Myers-Towlerton Rite Read
 Miss Janet Celesta Towlerton and Lloyd Myers were married Jan. 1 at River Road Baptist Chapel. The Rev. W. M. Whitwell, pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony, at 3 p.m. before 100 guests. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Towlerton of Eugene, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Myers of Geraldine, Mont.

Church decorations were tall white baskets filled with white chrysanthemums, heather and ivy, flanked by tall candelabra holding white tapers.

Mrs. Guy L. Lee of Springfield played traditional wedding marches and accompanied Misses Flor and Janet Barker who sang "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina-length dress of white net with lace bodice and full skirt with pointed lace insets. The dress had sleeves, and was worn with lace mitts. She wore a gold band ring more than 100 years old which has been in her father's family. Her fingertip veil of illusion was edged in lace and was held by a tiara of lace and beads. She carried white orchids and stephanotis on a white Bible.

Miss Edith Towlerton was her sister's maid of honor, dressed in a gown of orchid net. Flora Gent, Susan Conant, Rosemary Hall and Harriett Johnston, dressed in green, rose, blue and yellow. They carried nosegays of pink and yellow rosebuds and white chrysanthemums.

Little Judy Domer of Missoula, Mont., niece of the groom, and Sandra Towlerton, cousin of the bride, were flower girls, dressed in floor length gowns of white organza over blue. Tapers were lighted by Miss Evelyn Madsen.

The groom's best man was his brother-in-law, E. S. Domer of Missoula, and ushers were Mark Towlerton, Jerry Domer, Wayne Tucker and James Partridge.

Following the ceremony there was a reception at the church where guests were served from the bride's table covered with a lace cloth. The cake was cut by the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. E. S. Domer. The bridesmaids assisted with serving punch and coffee, and Miss Kim Sem presented the guest book.

Special guests were the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Towlerton of Goshen.

Following a wedding trip the couple will live at Square Butte, Mont.

Wedding Rites

Baskets of yellow and bronze chrysanthemums, tall white candelabra holding white tapers, and white altar candles decorated First Congregational Church for the wedding of Miss Patricia Claire Shaffer and Wayne Bruce Hebert, Jan. 4. The Rev. Byron D. Hughes of Central Presbyterian Church heard the couple repeat their vows at 8 p.m. before 200 guests. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. George H. Shaffer and Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Hebert, all of Eugene.

A wedding gown of white satin with an off-the-shoulder net yoke and wide lace bertha collar was worn by the bride, who was given in marriage by her father. The fitted bodice of the dress, pointed in back and front, joined the full skirt which fell into a full train. Her fingertip veil of illusion net was held in place by a Juliet cap of lace. At her neck she wore a necklace of rhinestones, gift of her parents. She carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses and stephanotis centered by a white orchid on a white Bible. The Bible was the gift of her paternal grandparents.

Dressed in identically fashioned dresses were the maid of honor, Miss Jacqueline Wolcott, cousin of the bride, and Misses Marjorie Cross, Janet and Jean Wildish, bridesmaids. Miss Wolcott wore cinnamon taffeta and the three maids wore gold taffeta, made with low neck fitted bodice, cap sleeves and full skirts. Miss Wolcott had a neckband and sash of gold velvet and the maids wore brown velvet trimmings. All had wreaths of gold chrysanthemums at the back of their hair and carried colonial bouquets of bronze, yellow and white chrysanthemums.

Little Mary Francis Hebert, cousin of the groom, was flower girl, dressed in gold taffeta identical to that of the other attendants. She carried a basket of gold and bronze mums. Mrs. Ruth Magart, organist, played organ music, the wedding marches and accompanied Donald Neely, who sang, "O Promise Me" and "Because."

Attending the groom as best man was James Wildish, and ushers were Donald Birran, Clarence Everts, Clark Hollis and James Gay, the latter a cousin of the groom, of Salem. Wheeler Room of the church was decorated with poinsettias, holly and evergreens for the reception. Miss Carlene Petersen presented the guest book. The bride's table was laid with a lace cloth, centered by a four-tiered wedding cake, and had crystal candelabra with white tapers at either end. The cake was decorated in pink rosebuds, silver leaves and lily of the valley. A garland of gardenia blossoms and wild huckleberry was around the base of the cake.

A cousin of the bride, Mrs. Philip Wolcott Jr., cut the cake. Miss Jacqueline Eccles, also a cousin, poured punch, and Mrs. C. O. Matteson, an aunt of the groom, poured coffee. Assisting with the serving were Misses Nancy Cross, Yvonne Youngquist, Charlene Vogel and Karen Petersen.

Following a wedding trip the couple will be at home at 709 W. Broadway. For her going away costume the bride wore a raspberry knit suit with navy coat and accessories and the orchid from her wedding bouquet.

Among the out-of-town guests was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. H. G. Wolcott of Ashland.

MRS. ERNEST GROSSO (Nancy Seals) is a recent bride, married in First Christian Church, and now at home in Eugene.

Grosso-Seals
Rites Recent

The marriage of Miss Nancy Seals to Ernest Roy Grosso took place in First Christian Church the evening of Dec. 22. The Rev. Carroll Roberts officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon O. Seals, and Mrs. Vera F. Grosso is the bridegroom's mother.

Poinsettias, evergreens and white candles decorated the church, and white chrysanthemums were placed in tall baskets. Miss Dolores Robbins sang "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer" before the ceremony, accompanied at the organ by Nelle Murphy Dickson.

The bride, given by her father, wore a dress of white satin with net overskirt, the net yoke outlined with rosettes of net in form of rosebuds. The ballerina-length skirt was worn over crinoline and hoops. Mitts met the cap sleeves. Her net veil was shoulder length, held by a pearl-trimmed cap in halo form. Her flowers were stephanotis and carnations, with gardenias at center.

Mrs. John Lilyengren of Seattle was matron attendant for her sister. She wore blue satin net overskirt, and carried yellow chrysanthemums.

John Lilyengren was best man and ushers were James Bradford and Jack Eckstein, both of Eugene. Candelighters were Miss Darlene Marentette and Miss Marie Cantrell.

At the reception in the church parlors afterward, Mrs. Robert Bailey of Coos Bay, aunt of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. E. A. Goodnough poured coffee and Mrs. Mary Casciano served punch. Mrs. James Lillie, another aunt, assisted. Miss Donna Wilcox had the guest book.
