

Former Junction City Girl Bride In California

JUNCTION CITY—Baskets of red and white carnations and ferns decorated the Church of God Bethel Temple in Compton, Calif. for the Christmas Day wedding of Miss Geraldine Hope Absher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Absher of Compton, to Eugene Leslie Beyerlin, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Beyerlin of Leaburg. The Rev. Ronnie Wiseman officiated at the 7 p.m. ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a tan and beige gown of satin brocade with brown accessories and carried a bouquet of red roses. Her only attendant was her cousin, Miss Patricia Absher, in a gown of green organdy with an orchid corsage. O. A. Absher was best man and Wilbur Wiseman served as usher.

Miss Kathryn Wiseman sang "I Love You Truly," accompanied by Mrs. Wilbur Wiseman, organist.

At the reception at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony, Mrs. F. H. Absher cut the cake and Mrs. Rowland Harris, Mrs. Eula Absher and Mrs. A. H. Absher were in charge of the serving. Red, white and yellow carnations were used as decoration and red and white candles were used on the bride's table which was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake.

The couple is now at home on Route 2, near Junction City. Both attended Junction City High School, the bride having made her home here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Absher.

Claude E. Dawson, manager of the Eugene Social Security office, will speak to members of Eugene Soroptimist Club at that group's Tuesday noon luncheon at Eugene Hotel. A good attendance of both old and new members is expected.

Vroman-Wyant Vows Exchanged

A spray of white orchids and white roses was carried by Miss Patty Wyant for her marriage to Kenneth Vroman Dec. 21 at First Christian Church, Springfield. Centering the bouquet were white orange blossoms and a miniature orange which her grandmother had in the bouquet at her golden wedding anniversary. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wyant and Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Vroman.

The bride's dress of slipper satin was made with long train and mandarin collar, the yoke and collar of lace meeting the satin in a design. A cascade of lace trimmed the front of the skirt. Her veil was edged with lace in heart design and fell from a tiara of seed pearls. Mr. Wyant gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Evangeline Robinson of Mohawk was maid of honor. She wore an ankle-length strapless frock of light lavender net over taffeta with net stole. Her ballerina slippers were in matching color as was her headdress of braided satin and lace, worn high across the top of the head. She carried Talisman and yellow roses tied with a lavender bow.

The three bridesmaids, Miss Betty Gloyne, Miss Margery Hollister and Miss Glenda Gray, wore dresses made like that of the maid of honor. Miss Gloyne was in gold net over taffeta, Miss Hollister in medium blue and Miss Gray in bright fuchsia. They wore matching ballerina slippers and headdresses and carried Talisman roses tied with white.

Richard Coghill was best man and Gordon Ware, William

Spores and William Rennie ushered.

The Rev. Ren Hollister officiated and special music was by Miss Jane Patterson, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer," with Miss Judy Ellefson at the organ. Baskets of yellow, white and lavender chrysanthemums decorated the church. Bouquets of white chrysanthemums and greenery decorated the church parlors for the reception and Talisman roses circled the wedding cake. Mrs. Paul Nordling, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the guest book. Mrs. James Cooper, aunt of the bride, served cake with Mrs. Frank Prociw, a cousin, assisting. Miss Janice Hewitt and Miss Joyce Roberts served coffee and Mrs. Ed Cooper, a cousin of the bride, poured punch. Mrs. Jerry Tomseth and Miss Ethel Reeves received the gifts.

For going-away, the bride wore a navy suit, hat and gloves, red shoes and purse and her white orchid. The couple is at home at Springfield.

Miss Watts Bride Of Ernest Edwards

Miss LaVerne Watts, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor W. Watts of Eugene, was married Dec. 28 to Ernest J. Edwards of Linslaw. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Edwards of the latter place.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. James H. Cornett, assistant pastor of First Christian Church of Eugene, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Tweedie, 3791 Elmira Road. The hosts are long-time friends of the bride's parents.

The bride wore an afternoon dress in poudre blue, made of sheer material. It had long sleeves and full gathered skirt. She wore a spray of white asters in her hair, and carried orchids on a white Bible.

Her sister, Miss Kathleen Watts of St. Louis, Mo., was her attendant. She wore an afternoon dress of sheer material, iridescent lavender and green, and carried a nosegay of white and pink-striped carnations. John W. Evans was best man.

Candles were lighted by Miss Carol and Janet Tweedie. The ceremony took place before the fireplace, the mantel of which was decorated with holly and white candles. Stacey Green played piano music, and Douglas Stobie sang.

At the reception which followed, Mrs. C. W. Hawkesworth poured coffee and Mrs. John Rosene, aunt of the bride, poured punch.

For going away, the bride wore a teal-blue woolen dress with cherry-colored woolen coat. They are at home at 465 E. 11th St.

Springfield Church Scene of Marriage

Springfield Assembly of God Church was trimmed with a white arch and gates entwined with ivy, centered by a cross of bronze chrysanthemums for the wedding of Miss Jean Marks to Donald E. Van Ordstrand of Denver Nov. 9. The Rev. Arthur Hyland officiated. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Roy O. Marks of Eugene.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a royal blue suit with wine accessories and carried an orchid corsage on a white Bible. Her two attendants, Mrs. Rollo Schultz, her sister, and Mrs. Gerald Wilson, both of Springfield, also carried corsages on white Bibles.

Best man was David Marks of Eugene, brother of the bride, and ushering were another brother, Glenn Marks of Eugene and Bob and Bill Whitlow of Springfield.

After a trip along the Oregon Coast and into Washington, the bride is living in Eugene. The groom is with the U.S. Army in Korea.
