

Ski-Type Model Found a Rarity

NEW YORK (U.P.)—There is an acute shortage of ski clothes models.

"The average model agencies have hundreds of girls but they specialize in the sophisticated type, whereas ski clothes need a typical outdoor looking girl," said Fred Picard, noted ski clothes designer. "This type can be found much more readily on campuses or in sports areas away from cosmopolitan cities."

A woman when skiing has good natural color because of the outdoor activity. Therefore she cannot have a made-up look or her hair cannot look too set. She must have the type of beauty that comes with health.

"Another difficulty," Picard said, "consists in the fact that many pictures are action shots, which shows girls in a position of actually skiing. Most of the time the model doesn't ski and therefore has a hard time adjusting to the looks of a skier."

MIKE HIGHLIGHTS

It was quite an offer that Marie Wilson made for the current "March of Dimes" campaign. In order to fulfill her promise, made on her CBS radio "My Friend Irma" show, she will serve as secretary for a day to the highest bidder to the March of Dimes.

Last week she had three bids for $1000. Sunday afternoon she will announce her latest offer (KERG-CBS 3 p.m.). Irma turns the heat on an intruding burglar on the same show when she holds him at bay with a revolver that is really a cigarette lighter.

"The Greatest Story Ever Told" will repeat the first episode presented in the series, "The Good Samaritan," in commemoration of the program's fifth "birthday," this Sunday (KUGN-ABC 2:30 p.m.).

MGM movie star programs are featured this Sunday on KORE. Station program personnel say it begins at 9:30 and features Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer film talent. The MGM drama theater is scheduled for 8 p.m. Saturday.

"Remember the Time," a nostalgic comedy drama, makes its first appearance on KERG and the Columbia Pacific network at 8:30 p.m. Monday. The leading role of John Young is played by Gordon T. Hughes, producer. The show is the story of the Young family and two children, with the setting laid in the twenties by flashbacks from the present.

Alfred Wallenstein will conduct the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra on the "Standard Hour" on Sunday. Concertmaster David Frisina will be violin soloist (KUGN-NBC 8:30 p.m.).

Leopold Stokowski, distinguished conductor, will give his views on "Music in a Changing World," as it affects the young musician, the listener and the conductor on "You and the World," (KERG-CBS 10:15 p.m., Monday through Friday).

Radio KORE has started a new "Bedtime Story" strip on a weekly basis from 7:15 to 7:30 p.m. The program features such records as "Bozo the Clown," "Bugs Bunny," "Jump Jump" and others. Station says program was set-up to send children "off to bed" with a good bedtime story, saving parents the problem of reading to their kids.

Jack Benny has turned song-plugger since he wrote the tune "When You Say I Beg Your Pardon, Then I'll Come Back to You," but he's had some difficulty in getting a name singer to do his number. Now, he's pleased to announce that George "Sugar-throat" Burns will sing it on "The Jack Benny Program" Sunday (KERG-CBS 4 and 9:30 p.m.).

A local news roundup is featured each Sunday by KUGN News-Editor Robert Short. He presents a combination of verbal and recorded events (KUGN 6:15 p.m.).

"The Lives of Harry Lime" is being broadcast by Radio KGW in Portland on Thursday at 7:30 p.m. The program features Orson Wells in a continuation of "The Third Man Theme" adventures. The top "crime thriller" in the form of "Dragnet" is now aired Thursday evening (KGW-9 p.m.).

"Man From Montecarlo," with Paul Masterson, will make its debut on the Columbia network this Sunday (KERG-CBS 2:30 p.m.). Masterson, "as Larry Croft," overseas representative for a mythical company, looking for a guitarist in London.

A rising young politician's greed for power and romance proves his undoing when rivals disclose his use of an assumed name in wooing a powerful racketeer's daughter, in "The Dying Embers" mystery solved by "Mr. and Mrs. North" Tuesday night (KERG-CBS 8:30 p.m.).

LOOK and LISTEN

WITH GLEN STADLER

What does a man think about when he's taken to the hospital with polio, and is given only a 2-to-8 chance of surviving?

In the case of Hartley Kneeland, of State Game Road, he thought of... going fishing again!

"They told me my chances were about the same as those of a man standing on his tip-toes on a ledge."

Hart told the doctors: "All right. Then let's say the odds are in my favor, eight-to-two, I'm going fishing next April."

Back on Job

That was last October. Now, Hart is back at his business—manager of Baxter & Henning, Springfield—and is anxiously awaiting the opening of trout season. He made an assortment of flies for the occasion.

"When you're lying there... with odds like that against you, you have a chance to think, and to re-evaluate your beliefs. Spiritual values become more important. Physical ambitions recede more into their proper perspective."

Too Much Rushing

"You realize, for one thing, that you've been rushing around too fast. You wonder why. You realize you haven't taken enough time to sit down, and relax, and become better acquainted with the real beauty around you... things you used to take for granted."

Hart Kneeland drew mighty comfort, during his long hospitalization and convalescence, from thoughts of his friends... from the indomitable spirit of the other polio patients in Sacred Heart hospital.

'Greatest Faith'

"Most of them were kids. One was paralyzed from the neck down. But did she complain? Not one bit! She smiled, and always looked forward to walking again. Polio patients, I believe, display the greatest faith of anyone I've ever known."

Hart himself was stricken first in the throat. The paralysis moved to both sides of his face—the most severe case of this type in medical records here. But Hart wanted to go fishing. And now, he will. Kneeland never dreamed polio would strike him, neither had most of his fellow patients.

But they received equal treatment, financed by the March of Dimes fund.

French Assembly Proves Socialist

PARIS—(U.P.)—Radical Socialist Edgar Faure was approved by the National Assembly Friday and became the youngest French Premier in 50 years. The vote was 401 to 101.

The 43-year-old financial expert was supported by all parties in the assembly except the Communist bloc, which voted against him, and the right wing followers of Gen. Charles de Gaulle, who abstained.

QUINCY, Cal. — (AP) — He huffed and puffed in the snow to get his automobile dug out.

Gene DuPont shoveled the snow away from the rear, the front and the sides. Then he learned he'd uncovered his neighbor's car — an identical model.

His own can stay where it is until spring, says DuPont.

India to Make Own Penicillin

NEW DELHI, India — (AP) — India will have its own penicillin factory in 1953 producing every year 3 trillion units, increasing later to 9 trillion units, official sources here said.

Plans to achieve this objective have been made by the government of India jointly with the World Health Organization and the United States International Children's Emergency Fund. The agreement envisages the training of about 30 Indians in Belgium, the United States and Canada for six months on penicillin production. Two have already completed training in Europe.

The U.S. Army adopted the 24-hour clock system on July 1, 1942.
