

Eugene Nurse to Aid Navajos, Vessel Nearing Port Signals 'It's a Boy'

tis known as yellow fever.

one of nine from the Pacific area, which covers northern California and the Pacific Northwest. Others have been sent from elsewhere in the United States.

Miss Brand had to be immunized against yellow jaundice. For this, globulin, a constituent of whole blood, was extracted from blood donated in local drives and made into serum.

The Red Cross is paying transportation expenses, and Miss Brand's housing and subsistence will be taken care of by the local office.

A volunteer for the assignment, Miss Brand will be gone at least six weeks. She had been working for a local doctor.

Vessel Nearing Port Signals 'It's a Boy'

SEATTLE — (P) — An enormous flag proclaiming "IT'S A BOY" fluttered from the port side of the Navy transport Hugh J. Gaffey Saturday as the vessel eased up to the dock and cheers from shore.

The flag also carried the symbolic figure for all new babies, the stork.

Staff Sgt. Clinton Fogel, Roseburg, Ore., the proud father, and Japanese wife, Kumiko, were all smiles and joy when complimented as the parents of a 2½ pound boy born at sea last Monday. They also have a son, Jimmy, 14 months.

Everyone on ship helped out. Carpenters made an incubator from a bookcase and electricians fitted out a makeshift incubator. The doctors, nurses and medical staff aided. The transport brought 827 rotatees home.

Sergeant Fogel looks back on 52 months of Army occupation assignment in Japan, eight years in the Army, the Normandy invasion and now all this furor about his latest.

"We've named him Jeffrey," he said shyly.

Adult Driving Class Planned

Another adult driving class, sponsored by the Eugene public schools, is scheduled to begin about Feb. 1, if enough interested persons sign up.

Eight students are needed. The course includes 15 hours of classroom instruction and eight hours of "behind the wheel" individual driving experience. Cost of the course is $30 a person.

To register, or for further information, telephone the Office of Special Education, 5-8551.
