Forest 'Abuse' Hit by Official

WASHINGTON — (U.P.) — The nation's forest resources are in an "unhealthy condition" because of abuse by man, the chief of the Agriculture Department's Forest Service said Monday.

In his annual report, Lyle F. Watts said that more than half of the nation's 460,000,000 acres of commercial forest lands is being handled "poorly or destructively."

He noted that there are already shortages of certain kinds of forest products. Furthermore, he said, lumber prices have increased to about three times what they were 10 years ago — a much faster price rise than for other building materials.

Water Dowers Win Another Argument

CORNISH, Me. — (U.P.) — The pros and cons of water dowsing are argued continually but Roy Thompson says he has switched to the pro side.

His farm well went dry and contractors quoted "sky-high" prices for damming the large brook which curves past his barn.

A local water dower, Morris Rogers, brought out his willow rod and checked the farm.

"Dig here," he told Thompson at one spot. Thompson gambled on the willow and won a productive new well.

Indian Pepper Russia to Buy

BOMBAY, India — (U.P.) — Indian black pepper exporters hope for increasing sales to Soviet Russia, once an insignificant buyer of the spice.

Russia bought 1000 tons of Indian output in the 11 months ending October 1951, Bombay exporters declared. The United States bought 9000 tons, followed closely by the United Kingdom with 2000 tons.

Russia is buying the pepper with rupees gained in the sale of 100,000 tons of food-grains to India during the spring food crisis.

Soviet purchases have eased a recent crisis in the Indian pepper industry, which has felt the pinch of competition from Indonesia and other countries.

Baugh to Set Active Record

NEW YORK — (U.P.) — One of the oft-asked questions at the current pro football meetings is whether "Slingin' Sammy" Baugh will be back next year and the Washington Redskins happily announce that they're counting on the grandpappy of the gridiron for 1952.

Sammy, the wire and whipcord Texan who has thrown a football roughly from here to the moon, currently holds the record for pro football longevity along with Mel Hein and Johnny Blood. All three played 15 years. Baugh moves into the 16-year class all by himself next season.

That is, he is expected to. For they've been predicting each season would be his last since 1947 and Sammy gives them no help. Come time for first practice, Sam shows up and draws:

"Maybe last year was my last season."

In other words, Sam is waiting just like anybody else to see whether he can creak and groan along. And when a man makes in the rather exclusive neighborhood of $25,000 a year tossing a chunk of wind-filled leather, you can't blame him for hanging on.

And at a much-battered 38, Sam still is doing a bit better than all right. Last season, for instance, he came up to the kick-off still recuperating from a knee injury. Said injury is typical of Baugh's busy life.

IN HIGH GEAR Raised in a city and never on a horse until he hit the football jackpot, the Texan who didn't own a pair of cowboy boots until he signed with the Redskins was injured in a rodeo. A popular outdoor horse opera performer, Sam limped into camp and saw young Harry Gilmer start out with a lock on the quarterback's chores.

The Redskins led the first three games. And when the third went up the flue by a 45-0 count, irate owner George Preston Marshall, Washington's wet wash wizard, summoned Slingin' Sam into action.

So Sammy stepped into the old slot and led the Redskins to victory over the rough Chicago Cardinals.

Young Mr. Gilmer again became a seldom used sub.

NEW YORK — (U.P.) — Cleveland baseball fans will get to see their heroes most often on television next season but the Pittsburgh Pirates will be blacked out entirely and the St. Louis Browns and Cardinals will be seen only on rare occasion, a United Press-Marshall League club-by-club video survey showed Saturday.

Six clubs, Cleveland, Boston and New York in the American league, and Brooklyn, New York, and Chicago in the National will televise all home games. The Indians also plan to transmit a selected number of road games, depending mainly on how many the commercial sponsor wants to handle. The indication was that there would be a number of such games, particularly when the Indians are playing away in the western end of the league at Detroit, Chicago, or St. Louis.

In contrast, there is no major change in televising over 1951. These six clubs also were the only ones to televise all home games last season.

Bill Bevens Awaits 'Comeback Try'

NEW YORK — (NEA) — An uncommonly able mathematician, watching Floyd Bevens slide down the chute four years ago, figured that the odds were better than 10,000-to-1 against the large right-hander ever showing up in a big-league uniform again.

The figure fibert was caught with his adding machine down, for Bill Bevens is coming back, the Reds having plucked him from the Salem, Ore., club of the Class B Western International as the national Leaguers' third draft choice.

It was Bevens, you'll recall, who came within just this much of hurling the first no-hitter in World Series history.

No one needs to be reminded of that dramatic ninth inning at Ebbets Field, Oct. 3, 1947. The memory of Cookie Lavagetto's pinch double which gave the Dodgers their only victory over the Yankees, 3-2, is still too fresh to require repetition.

"It was losing the game that hurt—not losing the no-hitter," Bevens said later.

"I didn't deserve to win. I walked 10, and to me a walk is as bad as a base hit."

TURNED TO SOFTBALL The road back from baseball's cemetery gates for Bevens has been a wavering, jerky, unsteady line, swerving sharply here and there like a woman motorist.

The huge Oregonian, troubled by a sore arm, failed to pitch a game for the New York Americans in 1948, was inevitably handed railway passage.
