COHEN SAID McHale and McKinney each purchased 1,000 shares of common stock of Empire Tractor at $100 each, and—a total of $26,000. Mrs. McHale bought 250 shares of common at $1 each, selling the stock later for a total of $17,812.50.

Cohen said that Stephen Pan Britz, a trader and broker, succeeded in obtaining a contract for 7,000 tractors from Argentina in January, 1947. "And he claimed he could get contracts for 10,000 or more tractors," Cohen said, adding:

"BUT HE refused to consider negotiating these contracts unless he was assured the bulk of the profits would go to him. So he agreed to buy all the stock of Empire Tractor and I agreed to help him get it after placing the value of the Empire stock at one million dollars.

"Empire Tractor was solvent when the stock was sold," Cohen said.

"Then, around November, 1947, Argentina ran out of dollars and Empire South America ran out of money. I never was paid for my common stock, and neither was my wife nor son."

Pole Swims To Haven

DOVER, Eng. —(AP)— A 23-year-old Pole, wearing four suits, a rubber "frog man" outfit and a lifebelt, was found floating in the English Channel seven miles from shore Monday.

He told rescuing sailors of the channel ferry Twickenham he had jumped six hours before from a Polish vessel of which he was third mate. He said he hoped for haven in England from the Communist government of his homeland.

The Pole, unharmed and cheerful, was turned over to immigration authorities here.

Wainwright To Enter Race

ASHLAND, Wis. —(U.P.)— John Chapple, national leader of "Fighters for MacArthur," said Wednesday that Gen. Jonathan Wainwright has agreed to run as a favorite son candidate in Wisconsin's April 1 presidential primary.

Chapple said Wainwright, a comrade-in-arms of Gen. Douglas MacArthur, would turn over any delegates to MacArthur at the Republican National Convention.

The 68-year-old Wainwright, living at San Antonio, Tex., said that he would be "highly honored to be named favorite son in Wisconsin," Chapple reported.

Gilt Bears 15 Piggies

A thoroughbred Chester White gilt, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lyons, Fern Ridge Dam Road, has given birth to 15 little piggies, Mrs. Lyons told the Onion Editor Tuesday.

All 15 are living and in good health, she said. A normal pig litter is 7 or 8.

The prolific gilt, who was a year old last August, had 5 pigs in her first litter.

"If she keeps adding 10 more every time, I don't know what we'll do with them all next time," Mrs. Lyons observed.
