

al Plans Made 'School Clinic' curriculums and school taxation and legislation were the two main topics at a countywide, day-long conference for prominent lay persons in the area March 8 at Erb Student Union.

Jointly by the Oregon PTA, the Oregon Educational Association, and the University of Oregon school of education, the meeting was held at the University of Oregon Educational Center.

Robert Holmes of Eugene was a backer of the conference, which will be by invitation only. School board members, school club members and service club members will be invited.

Approximately 150 persons from throughout the county are expected at the conference, which will be held at the University of Oregon Educational Center.

The keynote address will be given by Elsie Bolt, director of Corvallis schools. Other speakers include Cecil Posey, executive director of the Oregon Educational Association, and Lester Wilcox, of the Department of Education.

Other speakers include T. Tucker, elementary school principal, and assistant superintendent of Multnomah County.

Huffaker will be the representative to the section meeting, which will be held at the University of Oregon Educational Center.

THE SECTION meeting will be held at the University of Oregon Educational Center. The section meeting will be held at the University of Oregon Educational Center.

club members by student Bethel Schools will be held at the University of Oregon Educational Center.

Chairman W. M. Tugger will be the speaker, and will be held at the University of Oregon Educational Center.

purpose of the conference is to acquaint the layman with the problems confronting the school.

ALTHOUGH SOME fear was expressed at the meeting that the curriculum might be "covered" by the committee last year, it is believed that this will be a wide meeting covering the problems.

Holmes will be available for consultation all day, and will be held at the University of Oregon Educational Center.

T. Gentle is in charge of the registration and will be held at the University of Oregon Educational Center.
