Airman Takes Buddy's Name In Court Action

WICHITA FALLS, Tex. — (AP) — A pact that had its beginning on Okinawa and was climaxed in Korea was sealed Wednesday in 30th district court.

A slight, black-haired, dark-eyed Air Force veteran had a request. He wanted to change his name. John Donning Graham, 21, told this story to Judge Arthur Tipps: He was alone in the world. His father was long dead and his mother remarried. He joined the Air Force in Indiana and was shipped to Okinawa where he made a real buddy—a young airman from old Mexico.

ORDERS CAME and the buddy was shipped to Korea, but not before he made Graham an offer. The young Mexican told him "if anything happens to me, I want you to take my name. You will belong to my family then."

His buddy was killed. Graham recited quietly, and last Septem- ber he was returned to the United States. He went to Sheppard Air Force Base and was discharged as a corporal.

AND NOW, before making an- other move, he said: "I want to take his name. I want to change mine to his."

Judge Tipps signed a piece of paper.

Smiling, Juan Rodriguez Es- trada walked out of the court- house alone.

Firemen Make Return Call to E. 11th Site

Eugene firemen made the sec- ond run in two days to 536 E. 11th Ave. Wednesday where a grocery and apartments are located.

A fire (no damage) brought out the wagons Tuesday and a short in an electric motor (no damage) brought them out Wed- nesday.

On another run Wednesday, the Eugene fire department checked an overheated motor in an electric clothes dryer at 1820 Walnut St. There was no damage reported.

Drama Leaders Arriving at UO

500 Expected For Conference

More than 500 delegates from at least eight Western states, ex- pected for the Northwest Drama Conference, started registering on the University of Oregon campus Thursday morning for the three- day convention.

Under the sponsorship of the university's speech department, the sessions of the conference were to start Thursday afternoon and are scheduled through Fri- day and Saturday.

The Northwest Drama Con- ference, which also combines region- al meetings of the American Edu- cational Theatre Assn. and the National Theatre Assembly, is the largest session of its kind in the United States. It brings together some of the most prominent teachers and leaders in the field of drama in the West. A full pro- gram of lectures and discussions covering every phase of theatre activity is planned for the dele- gates, who also will see four ma- jor dramatic productions.

Main speaker for the conference

Quads Born

SALEM — (U.P.) — Quadruplet lambs, a rare occurrence, were born to a Romney ewe on the Russell Tautfest place near Donald, Marion County, this week. Tautfest said it was the first time any of his ewes had quadruplets. He now has some 300 sheep.

will be Sawyer Falk, president of the National Theatre Conference and head of the drama depart- ment of Syracuse University, New York. He will speak Friday at 2 p. m. on "Beyond the Theatre."

Two of the plays scheduled for production during the convention will be programed Friday at 8:30 p. m.

Saturday afternoon the Port- land Civic Theatre will present "Snow Queen" in the University Theatre, at 3 p. m. "Come Back Little Sheba" will be produced by the Portland Civic Theatre Saturday 8 p. m. in the University Theatre.
