'Quick Relief'

OAKRIDGE — The organization tentatively called "Quick Relief" has asked for the use of the Baptist Church, Monday, March 10, for a public meeting according to Lynn Simpson, temporary chairman. The club is being organized to give quick relief to anyone in the Oakridge, Veneta, Willamette City area and of all surrounding roads. Mrs. Kenneth Randall is acting secretary. So far, a treasurer has not been named.

The original planning board was Charles Perkins, Paul Sims and Mrs. Bill Cash. Organizations of the town sent representatives to a recent meeting to start the group going.

Their most recent "quick relief" was for a Willamette City family who lost everything in a Monday morning fire. Two double beds, a three quarter bed, clothing, dishes, cooking utensils, some furniture has been collected or promised. Anyone wishing to donate for the family should call Lynn Simpson as to clothing sizes or their needs.

Monroe Briefs

MONROE — "The Bible Hour," especially for children, is being presented every afternoon after school hours at this time Monday through Friday at Monroe Free Methodist Chapel with the Oregon conference child evangelist, Miss Julia Weber, in charge. The program started Tuesday of this week and will continue through March 7.

This is Miss Weber's seventh year in the work, and her fourth year to meet with the Monroe boys and girls. Her program features felt-ograms, puppets and marionettes. All community children are welcome and adults too if they care to attend.

"The True Values of the Lord" will be the study topic for Monroe Methodist midweek prayer service and Bible study scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 5. Where the group will gather will be announced by the pastor this Sunday.

Archie Parrish of Monroe entered the Sacred Heart Hospital in Eugene the first part of this week for surgery, and may have to undergo a second major operation.

Joe Owen here suffered a severe heart attack in late afternoon Wednesday and was taken by ambulance to Sacred Heart Hospital for treatment. According to a family report he was still in serious condition Thursday afternoon. Friday's hospital report: "Resting better today."

Elmira P-TA

ELMIRA — The monthly meeting of the Elmira Union High School Parent-Teacher Ass'n. will be held Monday, March 3, 8 p.m. at the school.

On the program will be a reading by Jack Wylie, a volleyball game by girls of the school and musical numbers by the newly formed Elmira High Dance Band. The business session and refreshments will follow.

London Men Hurt In Similar Injuries

LONDON — Two separate accidents resulted in similar injuries to two London men recently that sent both to the Cottage Grove Hospital for treatment. Dickie Kelly lost the end of his front finger on his left hand while working with a jointer saw at Cottage Grove High School. Part of the bone was lost. He is recovered and able to be back in school at latest reports.

John Lickias sliced the middle of his middle finger on his left hand Tuesday morning while working with a rip-saw doing cupboard work at the home of a brother-in-law. He expected to be able to leave the hospital Wednesday, Feb. 27. It is thought his finger will be saved unless complications occur. Lickias has been filling in his time while off work this winter carpentering furniture and cupboards.

DIPLOMA WON AT 91

LEOMINSTER, Mass. — Miss Hannah Johns quit high school at the end of her sophomore year. Two years ago she decided to complete her high school education. Now she has her diploma at the age of 91.

Town, Country Church Reports

All bonafide churches in the town and country areas are welcome to use this Church Reports service, free. Each church is given two paragraphs. The first is the weekly news summary and it is to be CHANGED WEEKLY. The second gives the hour of Sunday school and the routine information and is NOT changed weekly; but ALL news of unusual importance is carried in the first or news paragraph. Follow the EXACT style used below. Mail, phone, or give the news each Thursday to your nearest Register-Guard correspondent.
