

Mr. and Mrs. James C. Munkers of Springfield, Ore., will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary Sunday, March 9, with an open house for their relatives and friends. The marriage took place March 9, 1899, at Seaside, Ore. Both are natives of Oregon and have lived all their lives in the state, except for a few years in Fallon, Nev. The couple have three children: William, a son, and two daughters, Mrs. Frank Woods of Eugene and Mrs. Jack Woods of Eugene. The couple have eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. The open house should be like the pioneer get-together with the pioneer west on the tongue. Mr. Munkers may be the oldest father shot on the coast of the present state capital in Salem, when his father-in-law, a senator from Linn county, and of the oxen that pulled the wagons across the state in the early days.

Rubenstein-Goodman Betrothal Told

MISS LOERAIN GOODMAN of Portland is the fiancée of Jack Rubenstein of Eugene, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rubenstein. The couple will have a spring wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Goodman of Portland announce the engagement of their daughter, Lorraine Goodman, to Jack Rubenstein, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Sam Rubenstein of Eugene. Miss Goodman attended Oregon State College and Mr. Rubenstein, who is now active in veterans affairs, attended University of Oregon.

An early spring wedding is planned. A shower Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brenner will honor Miss Goodman, who will come to Eugene from Portland for the affair. Hostesses will be Mrs. Paul Schneiderman, Mrs. Sam Gold and Mrs. Morris Rubenstein, all from Marshfield and all aunts of the bridegroom-to-be. Many Eugene friends of the couple, as well as a number of out-of-town guests, will attend the party.

Miss Goodman has been honored at a number of parties in Portland.

City PTA Chooses Mrs. W. C. Adams As New President

Mrs. W. C. Adams will serve as president of City Parent Teacher Association Council for the coming year, having been elected at a meeting Monday afternoon. Others chosen to serve as council officers are: Harris Hurd, first vice president; Dean Lobough, second vice president; Mrs. Jack Caton, recording secretary; Mrs. Everett Marquis, corresponding secretary and Mrs. John R. Warren, treasurer.

Mrs. Adams, of Santa Clara PTA, was elected as a delegate to attend the state PTA convention in Pendleton, April 6, 7 and 8. Anyone interested in making special bus reservations to the convention may contact Mrs. H. T. Gentile, who has information about the fare and other arrangements.

Clarence Hines, superintendent of Eugene schools, presented and explained the first draft of the 1952-53 school budget. Any changes or alterations will be made by March 24, date of the final budget committee meeting. Meetings of interested groups may be arranged with the school office for further explanation of the items making up the budget. A copy of each individual school budget is on display in the various school offices.

Radio program for the month of March is a talk by Mrs. Jennelle Moorhead on "Know Your Oregon Congress."

Creswell Girls Chosen

Miss Barbara Tiedje and Miss Madeline Black, both of Creswell, have been elected officers of The Pines, Oregon State College cooperative house. Miss Tiedje, song leader, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Tiedje and Miss Black, historian, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Black. Both are freshmen in science.

Chorus Not to Rehearse

Women's Choral Club members will be able to attend the Civic Music Association concert Monday evening, when the Portland Symphony Orchestra will play. The weekly rehearsal will be omitted on this occasion, since the time conflicts. The group will meet as usual the following Monday.

Correction on Caption

The name of Mrs. Melvin R. King was given incorrectly as Mrs. Robert King in a caption under one of the Red Cross pictures in the Wednesday society edition of the Register-Guard.

Zinsers Honored on Golden Wedding

COBURG—Sixty-five relatives and friends honored Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Zinser recently with a reception in the Methodist Church. The occasion was the 50th wedding anniversary of the couple, who were married in Marion, Iowa, Feb. 25, 1902, at a double ceremony with Mrs. Zinser's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Jones.

Ira Zinser, brother of Mr. Zinser, was the only guest present at both the original ceremony and the golden wedding observance.

Mr. and Mrs. Zinser have lived at Coburg more than 27 years. All their children and grandchildren were present, the three daughters serving. Mrs. Kenneth Kelly (Lois) served cake and Mrs. Harold Head (Norma) and Miss Ada Zinser poured.

Mrs. John Adair was hostess. Mrs. A. J. Pirtle had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Loren Longcoy, Mrs. Charles Harrison, Mrs. Lea Jaragin and Mrs. R. T. Ruthven were in the kitchen and the Misses Ila Pirtle, Loretta Longcoy and Sarah Manley were waitresses.

Two couples were present who have passed their 50th wedding anniversaries: The Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Empey of Junction City, 52 years; and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harrison of Coburg, 53 years.

A program of music and readings was presented.

Women's Guild Meets

Women's Guild of Central Lutheran Church attended the Bible study on the Book of Hebrews in the church Tuesday. Leader of the study was the Rev. E. V. Stime, dean of the Lutheran Bible Institute of Seattle, Wash. Later the guild met at the home of Mrs. Harold Aalbu with Mrs. Adolph Potampa as co-hostess.

Next meeting will be March 17 at the home of Mrs. Charles Dirham, 430 Whitbeck, with Mrs. Lorin Carmichael as co-hostess.

New Venetian blinds have a sleek glass-like surface—no pits or crevices to catch or hold dust. Lighter than metal blinds, the slats are extremely flexible and will withstand rough treatment without sagging, bending or cracking. Available in nine colors including yellow, pale blue, terra cotta and green.
