Parking Lot's Ticket No Meter Violation

GREENVILLE, S. C. — (AP) — A 67-year-old Greenville man still has a spotless record.

Police Chief J. H. Jennings said the elderly man walked into headquarters and informed the desk sergeant he wanted to pay a parking ticket.

The sergeant wrote out a receipt and the man gave him a dollar, explaining that it was his first "brush with the law." Then the man handed the officer his "parking ticket."

It was a stub that had been placed on the man's windshield at a parking lot.

The dollar was refunded.

Hiss Attorney Makes Appeal

NEW YORK — (AP) — Alger Hiss' lawyer charged Wednesday that an old typewriter which helped imprison Hiss was faked and planted evidence.

Said Attorney Chester T. Lane in a new affidavit seeking a new trial:

"It can only have been planted on the defense by or on behalf of Whittaker Chambers as part of his plot for the false incrimination of Alger Hiss."

Hiss is serving a five year federal prison term for lying. He has denied he ever gave government secrets to Chambers to give to a pre-war Russian spy ring.
