Easter

Gov. Allan Shivers will speak at the annual "Heart for Easter" service, reported by Dr. Eugene R. Leland, Lutheran Hour director, which is held at the geographical center of Texas, the second successive year. The service will be aired over a network on a delayed basis at 9 a.m. (EST) through stations KBWD, affiliate in Brownwood, and Thorman midway between Brownwood and Brady, a town from Mercury.

For the event which attracts thousands of workers from all denominations, the Lutheran Hour of Concordia Theological Seminary, Springfield, Ill., group of ministerial students, and Prof. Fred L. Precht have been featured on the Lutheran Hour on various occasions. Extensive advertising through newspapers, radio and billboards will be the event. Executive secretary of the committee is the Rev. John C. Roock, pastor of Lutheran Church in Brownwood.

Year 17 states were represented in the Texas audience and the Mutual network carried the program to millions.

Springfield Pastor Initiates New Charitable Sewing Project

By VERA HANSEN
For the first time women in the Oregon State Penitentiary will work on an organized creative project. The Rev. Leland Nelson, of Nicholas Gardens Church of the Brethren, director of Ministry and Missions for Brethren churches in Oregon, visited the prison recently and upon recommendation of Warden Virgil O'Malley talked with the women and offered to furnish them with sewing materials for mission work.

After the meeting and at the request of several of the women, the Brethren Service Commission furnished cut material for six dozen garments. The women of the Springfield church donated the thread, needles, bias tape and fastenings for the clothing. All garments to be made are for children between the ages of four and seven and will be sent to India for distribution.

CONTENTMENT
For years grandpa had been stubborn and crabbed. No one could please him.

Then, overnight, he changed. Gentleness and optimism characterized him.

"Grandpa," he was asked, "what caused you to change so suddenly?"

"Well, sir," the old man replied. "I've been striving all my life for a contented mind. It's done no good, so I've decided to be contented without it."—Radio Review.

"Palm Sunday" Is New Members' Day

By MARGARET BENSTON
Palm Sunday, when Jesus entered Jerusalem in triumph and palms and flowers were strewn in his path by the multitude, comes next Sunday. And as the first Palm Sunday was an occasion for people to rally to Christianity, so the tradition goes that Palm Sunday today is known as "Decision Day," when the churches take in their largest classes of new members of the year. Most churches are having visiting team this coming week, calling on neighbors and prospects.

Last minute preparations for Palm Sunday, Good Friday, and Easter, will be on the slate for the Eugene and Springfield Ministerial Association when it meets Tuesday, 10 a.m., at the Wheeler Room of the Congregational Church.

Bailey Hill Evangelical United Brethren Church announces special pre-Easter services, April 7 through 11, 7:30 p.m. The Rev. Leonard Wierent of Portland, former pastor of the Lebanon EUB Church, will be the guest speaker at each service.

Independent Bible Center Sunday School's attendance contest will close Sunday. The awards will be a Bible to the teen age and to the adult who has brought the most members to enroll. Contest closes this Sunday and awards will be made Sunday, April 8. The Bibles will be personal gifts of the co-pastor, the Rev. Chas. T. Wilson. This Sunday they will have a potluck dinner after the morning service and everyone attending is to bring a dish. There will be guest speakers and special music.

Foursquare Church will have the first showing, Sunday at 7 p.m., of articles which members may obtain by exchanging their attendance tickets or "talents" for Bibles, Bible picture plaques, and other items.

The Junior High Westminster Fellowship at Central Presbyterian Church will meet in Fellowship Hall Sunday at 6 p.m. The play cast of "The First Easter" will rehearse with Grant Mortenson and the entire fellowship will hear and criticize a report from the program committee. The Older Young People, which is a newly organized group, will meet at the Parish House at 8:30. Their evening program will consist of a buffet supper, planning and recreation.

"Squeaky," the First Christian Church mouse who writes for the papers, has been challenged by Nibbles, the Junction City Methodist Church's churchmouse who writes for the Methodist Church Echoes. Nibbles didn't say just what sort of competition he has in mind. Maybe a cheese-eating contest?

Apologies to the Rev. Alfred Stenner, new minister of Springfield Presbyterian Church, for referring to him in the caption of a recent picture as "the Rev. Harry Stenner." Wrong name; sorry, Mr. Stenner.

Bailey Hill Evangelical United Brethren Church Sunday School Board meets Monday, 7:30 p.m. at the school house to make final plans for the Easter program.

OR HAM AND HAGGAI
It was Sunday morning in a men's class in church school. "Will you please tell me," said a member to the minister, "how far in actual miles Dan is from Beersheba? All my life I have heard the phrase 'from Dan to Beersheba,' but I have never known the distance."

Before the answer could be given, another member arose in the back of the room and inquired, "Do I understand that Dan and Beersheba are names of places?" "Yes," replied the minister. "That's a new one on me," answered the inquirer. "I always thought they were husband and wife, like Sodom and Gomorrah."

Home Visiting Plan Recruits Members

Preparatory to the Easter season, members of the Fairmount Church of Christ will be participating in a period of visiting homes, March 30 to April 6. Edwin Dewees, of Coburg, will speak Sunday morning and will direct the callers.

Fifteen to 20 teams of callers are expected to assemble each evening at the church for dinner, instruction, and assignment then to go out to call on prospective members. Climax to this special effort is "Decision Day" April 6, at which time it is hoped that a large number of persons will take membership with the church.

Also April 6, Evangelist Don Dewelt, of San Jose, Calif., will deliver a series of services, which will conclude on Easter Sunday. The public is invited.

A TRIBUTE TO OUR CHURCHES
We bring this message to all the churches of our city. It is a message of deep appreciation for your services and for your faithful consecration to the life of Him who died on the cross. The church is the spiritual gathering place for those who would worship in reverent communion and prayer. It is the cathedral of contemplation, whether it be an impressive edifice or a humble meeting house. Here we have churches of many denominations... and God lovingly invites you to attend the one of your choice. Let's ALL go to church EVERY Sunday. Let's pray for the redemption of the world.
