Disposal Plant
Forwarded

GROVE—The city of Eugene is planning a disposal plant for the city's garbage. The plant is to be located on the south side of the city, near the river. The city has already secured a site for the plant and is now in the process of obtaining the necessary permits. The plant is expected to be completed within the next few years.

MARINE SGT. WERNER W. Reininger, 22 of San Antonio, Texas, kept his vow to escort his pretty bride, the former Jeanette Stretton, 21, of Hayward, Calif., from the altar after their marriage in Oakland (Calif.) Naval Hospital chapel. Reininger, a quadruple amputee of the Korean war, said they will make their home in San Antonio after a two months honeymoon.

Eugene Spends Day With No Accidents

Not a single traffic accident was reported to Eugene police during the 24-hour period ending at 8 a.m. Tuesday.

Precedent for this apparent calm in the city streets has been recorded only at rare intervals. Officers report that less than one day each month goes by without their being called to check some type of traffic mishap.

Boys in Play Really a Girl

What happens when a guardian suddenly finds "the boy" he has newly acquired is in reality very much of a girl? To further the plot, the juniors and seniors of Crow High School have made "seventeen and pretty" in the three-act play to be presented Friday evening, April 4, in the school gymnasium.

The situation leads to "many amusing situations" the cast promises. Taking parts: Nora Malone, Dale Holland, Gerald Bloom, Charles Meer, Elizabeth Wallace, Charles Blazer, Mary Jeffers, Betty Hartwig and Jim Hatfield.

Autopsy Material Sent to Laboratory

Material relating to the death of Loyal Earl Phillips has been sent to the State Crime Laboratory in Portland for analysis, according to state police.

Phillips, a 41-year-old resident of Rt. 1, Veneta, was found dead in his car Saturday morning. An autopsy Monday failed to reveal the cause of death. However, no evidence of foul play has been found, Coroner Fred Buell said Tuesday.
