

Springfield Teacher Tells Plans for Summer Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. A. James Jacobs of Harrisburg have announced the engagement of their daughter, Gayle Renee, to John Robert Sullivan, son of Mrs. William J. Sullivan and the late Dr. Sullivan of St. Helens. The wedding will be July 19.

Miss Jacobs is a graduate of St. Helen's Hall High School in Portland and attended University of Oregon where she was a member of Delta Zeta sorority. She is a graduate of Oregon College of Education at Monmouth and now teaches at Springfield.

Mr. Sullivan attended the St. Helens schools and is a graduate of Oregon State College. He was a member of Rho Chi and Kappa Psi, pharmacy honoraries. He will enter University of Oregon Medical School in the fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Miller of Pleasant Hill announce the engagement of their daughter, Doris Ann, to Robert Claude Rhoads, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Rhoads of Bend. They will be married May 24 at First Congregational Church.

Both Miss Miller and her fiancé are employed at the United States National Bank. She is a graduate of Pleasant Hill High School and he of Willamette University.

A June wedding is planned by Miss Gloria Rogers and William Clark, whose engagement was announced recently at a party for school friends at the home of a friend, Miss Shirley Belsey. Each log on a small logging truck contained two or three words of a verse, which, when pieced together by the guests, revealed the news.

Miss Rogers is the daughter of M. and Mrs. C. H. Rogers and a graduate of Eugene High School. Mr. Clark is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Clark and was graduated from University High School.

The engagement of Miss Hazelee Lettau to Charles L. Stevenson is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Lettau. No wedding date has been set by the couple, both of whom are students at Eugene High School.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Stevenson.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jessop of Springfield recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Winona Mae, to Duane S. Martinson. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Martinson, also of Springfield. Both young people are graduates of Springfield High School.

Miss Jessop is employed by Consolidated Freightways, Inc. in Eugene. Mr. Martinson now is employed by Weyerhaeuser Timber Co. but is going into the U.S. Navy in May.

No definite wedding plans have been made.

The engagement of Miss Nadine N. Nichols of Fresno, Cal., daughter of Mrs. Joseph A. Bowen of that city, to Aviation Cadet Bill Maycumber recently was made known in a toast at a family dinner. The gathering was in the Ahwanee Hotel in Yosemite National Park. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Maycumber of Fresno, and formerly of Eugene.

Cadet Maycumber is a graduate of Junction City High School, and attended Fresno State College. He was employed by J. C. Penney Co. there before enlistment. He is due for graduation May 10 with rank of 2nd lieutenant, and will be stationed in Panama City, Fla.

Miss Nichols is a physical education teacher in Fresno High School. The couple will be married in May.

Oregon Mothers Meet Wednesday; Installation Due

Mothers of graduating high school seniors, whose sons and daughters consider entering University of Oregon in the fall, are invited to attend the meeting of Oregon Mothers Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. in Gerlinger Hall. A short business meeting will be followed by a program.

"Workhouse Ward," a play by Lady Gregory, will be presented by a group from the university drama department, under the direction of Fred J. Hunter. Two musical pantomime skits will be interpreted by Miss Gloria Lee and Vera Thompson.

Newly-elected officers for 1952-53 will be installed, following which there will be refreshments and a social hour.

Mrs. L. O. Meisel, state president of University of Oregon Mothers, will install for the Eugene unit. Assisting hostesses groups for the afternoon will be Alpha Xi Delta, Yeomen and Sigma Chi Mothers.

National Y Week Slated

"On Your Own, But Not Alone," theme of National YWCA Week, will be seen on blue and white posters throughout the nation—and in Eugene too. The week of April 20 to 26 will be set aside in observance of the far-flung work with women and young girls which this globe-girdling organization pursues.

Previous to the national observance, two events will take place in Eugene and Springfield. Y Wives of Eugene YWCA will hold its meeting next Wednesday at 10 a.m. The Hobby Show of Y-Teens of Springfield High School will take place Friday from 12 noon to 3:30 p.m. in the cafeteria. More than 100 exhibits, collective and creative, will be on display. Exhibits are invited and should be brought Thursday evening.

An evening meeting at Eugene YWCA Tuesday, April 22, will feature a panel on the "Y Contribution to Peace." All interested are invited to attend.

Thursday afternoon, from 3 to 6 p.m. a tea will be given at the home of Mrs. Virgil D. Earl, 1135 E. 22nd Ave. The YWCA extends this invitation to all women. The late hour is planned so that employed women and girls may attend.

Alpha Delta Pi Mothers will go to Jasper Tuesday for a 1 p.m. potluck luncheon at the home of Mrs. Frank Graham.

Dance Clubs Plan Events

Bonne Heure Dance Club will have a semi-formal dance at Masonic Temple Thursday starting at 9 p.m. Co-chairmen Mr. and Mrs. George Kardell will be assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Zinke, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Beeson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brooks. All members and their guests are invited.

A "PRINT and cord dance" is planned by members of Centurian Dance Club for Saturday evening at Veterans Memorial Building. A cocktail hour will start at 8:30 p.m. and dancing will begin at 9:30.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Cox will be hosts for the evening. Members planning to take guests should call Mrs. Willard Watson, guest chairman, at 4-9672.

Folk Dancers Host Festival

Eugene Folk Dancers will be hosts at the Folk Dance Festival to be held here Sunday, April 20, at the armory. Dancers are expected from all parts of the state. Instruction sessions will be from 10 a.m. to 12 noon, in charge of Miss Madeline Greene of San Francisco. Dancing of the festival program will be from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. Evening dancing will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The public is invited to view the dancers in action, many of whom will be in costume.

Shakespeare Club will meet Monday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. with Mrs. O. F. Stafford, 1825 University St. Mrs. Frederick M. Hunter will conduct the study.

Trophy Play to Start

Wednesday events for the Women's Committee of Eugene Country Club include first play on the President's Trophy and a putting tournament. Golf instruction will continue every week during the season.

'Little Club' to Meet

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Gerot will be hosts and hostesses to Little Club Around the Corner for a 7:30 dessert Tuesday evening. Their address is 908 Adams St.

Patronesses Meet For Dessert, Music

Mu Phi Epsilon Patronesses will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Verne Adams, 2290 Spring Blvd., for dessert at 1:30 p.m.

During the business meeting the nominating committee will make its report and officers will be elected. Mrs. John Pennington is chairman.

The program, under the direction of Mrs. Herman Kehrl, will consist of vocal numbers by Harriet Nizic, Donna Trebbe, and Jean Boyden of the University Singers. Madeline Adler, a Mu Phi active, will play piano selections.

Mrs. Sam Tyler and Mrs. Calvin Smith are in charge of arrangements.

Hollywood Topic, Fortnightly Club

Meeting of Eugene Fortnightly Club will be Thursday at 2 p.m. at the First Congregational Church. Theme of the program will be "The Hollywood Scene," to be presented by Mrs. N. H. Comish.

Plans will be discussed for the annual meeting of the club May 1. Horace Robinson then will be guest speaker on the topic, "The Theater as an Art."

Welfare League to Recruit Blood Donors Before May

Eugene Welfare League will undertake as its next project recruitment of donors for the Red Cross blood bank scheduled for May 14. Each member will be responsible for recruiting five donors or more. Anyone interested in signing up may contact Mrs. Chas. D. Thompson, blood bank chairman, or any other Welfare League member.

Also a future event is the annual June luncheon, which has been announced for June 12.

Faculty Group Plans White Elephant Party

A "white elephant" party for husbands and wives is planned by the Newcomers Group of Faculty Wives Club Friday at Gerlinger Annex. An informal supper will be served at 7 p.m., to be followed by games and entertainment. Mr. and Mrs. Sam N. Dickens will show colored slides on Oregon vacation spots.

Each couple is to take a wrapped white elephant gift. These are to be used as prizes. Tickets for the evening may be purchased at the door.

Mrs. N. N. Mihallov and Mrs. Marshall Wattle are co-chairmen of the committee in charge.

Candlelight Rite Weds Young Pair

Miss Lu Wauna Kinkade became the bride of Fred W. Johnson in a candlelight ceremony March 23 at Central Presbyterian Church. She is the daughter of Mrs. Gust Rosin of Springfield and W. F. Kinkade of Missoula, Mont. He is the son of Mrs. Earl Kiser of Gimple Hill Road, Eugene and Fred W. Johnson of Kelso, Wash.

The double-ring ceremony was at 2 p.m. The Rev. Paul Meli officiating. Yellow and white flowers, calla lilies, forsythia and daffodils, decorated the church. Organ music was played.

The bride wore a suit of new blue, with white accessories, and carried a white Bible. Her flowers were red rosebuds and lily of the valley.

Miss Wilma Sorenson was the bride's attendant. She wore a black suit with white accessories and corsage of stephanotis and pink rosebuds. Gerald Ingwersen was best man.

At the reception in Fellowship Hall, those serving were Mrs. Jolene Dusky, Mrs. Oscar Rosin and Mrs. Duane Wedel. The couple made a wedding trip to the coast, returning to reside at 643½ Oak St.

The bridegroom is a third year student at University of Oregon. Among out of town guests for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Marion McGahan and family of Kelso, Wash. and Mr. and Mrs. Nogsten and family of Salem.
