

Veneta Church Wedding Scene

VENETA — Miss Adaline Shirley Frazier and Robert Beryl Craighill stood before a white arch decorated with daffodils and ivy, at Veneta Full Gospel Church, for their marriage March 29. Daffodils, ivy and yellow candles were used about the church.

The Rev. Donald McGregor, pastor of the Bethany Church at Franklin, officiated at 7 p.m. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Frazier of Junction City, and Mr. and Mrs. K. E. Craighill of Veneta.

The bride, dressed in a light grey street suit and white accessories, carried a white Bible with an arrangement of yellow carnations and satin streamers. She was attended by Mrs. George I. Glidden of Veneta, who wore a beige suit with pink accessories and corsage of pink carnations. Best man was Mr. Glidden, and ushers were Lewis Viestenz and Buford Willette.

Ray Newby sang "Because" and "Jesus Our Helmsman," accompanied by Miss Marian Leamon.

At a reception in the Full Gospel parsonage, Mrs. F. Arnold poured. Mrs. Edwin Craighill and Mrs. Alvin Craighill, sisters-in-law of the groom, assisted by Mrs. V. Warner and Mrs. Ray Newby, served.

The couple will live at Veneta.

Florence Couple Wedded in Eugene

FLORENCE—Married at 2 the fireplace, before which the nuptials were performed. The bride's cousin, Fred Chandler of Corvallis sang "I Love You Truly," preceding the ceremony. His mother, Mrs. Albert Chandler, played the piano accompaniment and wedding music.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white net over taffeta, fashioned with fitted bodice and bouffant skirt, ballerina length. A shirred bertha of net outlined the neckline. She wore a tiara of mock orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis, centered with an orchid.

Miss Laurel Lee Hanscom of Swisshome, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore blue marquisette, fashioned similarly to the bride's dress, and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations and stephanotis. Corinne Morgan, eight-year-old sister of the bride, was junior bride. She wore a dress identical to the bride's gown and carried a miniature nosegay.

Best man was Gerald Steinmetz of Springfield and LaVerne Oarde of Springfield was usher. At the reception, Miss Ardice Houghton of Florence cut the cake. Mrs. Mahlon Snidow, aunt of the bride, poured coffee, and Mrs. Spencer Monson of Eugene, another aunt, served punch. Miss Sharon Chandler of Corvallis, a cousin, had the guest book.

Following a honeymoon at Medford the couple is now at home at 437 Lawrence street, Eugene. For going away the bride wore a gold dressmaker suit with white accessories and the orchid from her wedding bouquet.

Eugene Home For Couple Recently Wed

Now at home in Eugene are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hames (Doreen Dion) who were married March 22 in morning rites at St. Mary's Catholic Church. The Very Rev. Edmund J. Murmane performed the ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Dion, wore a dress of white satin with full train. Tiny satin-covered buttons formed a long line down the front of the dress—from neck to hemline. Her fingertip-length veil was held in place by a fitted crown of white seed pearls.

Mr. Dion escorted his daughter to the altar. She carried a bouquet of white roses and a lace handkerchief given to her by an aunt of the bridegroom.

Miss Annette Dion was her sister's only attendant. She wore yellow marquisette in a full-length dress with shirred bodice. It was made with a short shoulder cape of the same material.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hames of Gold Beach, chose Roger Moore to serve as best man. Ushers were Dan Dion and Leo Naapi. Organ music for the ceremony was furnished by Mrs. Dale Cooley.

At the reception that followed at the Osburn Hotel, Mrs. Rose Smith, aunt of the bridegroom, cut the cake. Miss Janet Cooley was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Fernande Lawson, sister of the bride, poured coffee. Assisting with the serving were Miss Marilyn Cable, Miss Arlyn Erickson, Miss Cathrine Stevens, Mrs. Daniel Dion and Mrs. Noel Dion.

The bride's table was decorated with white lilies. A navy fable suit was chosen by the bride for her wedding trip. It was trimmed with navy and white checked collar and cuffs, and with it she wore navy accessories.
