

Delta Award Be Repeated

Applications for Delta Delta Delta scholarships are being received in the office of Mrs. Goldie Wickham, director of wo-man's affairs, at the University of Oregon. Deadline for them to be received is April 21 at 4 p.m. for the fourth year they have been given.

A scholarship for $350 will be awarded to an incoming junior and another for $250 to an incoming senior. Choice of the winners will be announced at the Campus Sing event of the weekend festivities, May 1-2.

Members of the Delta Delta Delta chapter for the current school year are: Jackie Pritzen, senior, and Anne Thompson, junior.

Modern photo, Willshire engraving.
MRS. LEON R. KEEFE (Corinne Dillon), married here in March at First Baptist Church, will live at Ashland while her husband attends SOCE.

Nurses Meet At Center

District Five of Oregon State Nurses Association will meet Tuesday evening at 8 p.m. at Washington Park Recreation Center. The series of programs on "Active Participation in the Church of Your Choice."

Miss Norah Marco, assistant executive secretary of the state association, will be a special guest. This will be her first visit since her election, and all nurses are invited to attend the meeting and to meet her.

Details on a state-wide membership contest "jack-pot" will be announced in the business meeting and a report of the nominating committee and a report will be given by the nominating committee.

'Dad' Spalinger Celebrates '75' With Big Party

OAKRIDGE—Mrs. Albert Spalinger invited the family for a birthday dinner recently, honoring her husband who was 75. Spalinger, an invalid for 10 years, was up in his wheel chair.

Al, or "Dad" as he is affectionately called, was born in Zurich, Switzerland and came to this country with his parents when he was six months old. Mrs. Spalinger was born in Switzerland, too, and came to this country when she was 9 years old.

Spalinger was for many years an engineer for Southern Pacific, starting at Portland in 1901. He moved his family to Oakridge in 1927 where he worked until the time of his disability on the helper engines taking long freights to Cascade Summit, work trains or the "manifest" trains.

Present at the dinner were sons and families: Mr. and Mrs. Martin Spalinger, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Spalinger and boys, Mrs. Alvin Spalinger and girls, and his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Walker and boys and his nurse, Mrs. Irma Noland. Many friends sent flowers and congratulations.

Women's Groups List Meetings

Five various women's groups of Ebbert Memorial Methodist Church in Springfield will meet Monday as follows:

- Lydia Service Guild, 7:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Frank Bowman, 1431 S St.
 - Circle 5, 7:30 p.m. with Mrs. L. Donald Derickson, 193 S. 52nd St.
 - Circle 6, 8 p.m. at the Hayden Bridge home of Mrs. Owen Sabin.
 - Circle 8, 8 p.m. with Mrs. H. Owens, 781 E. St.
 - Circle 10, 7:30 p.m. with Mrs. James Snedden, 1481 Parker St.
- Mrs. Wilbur Dehne will serve as co-hostess.
- Wednesday and Thursday, delegates from WCSS will attend meetings in Forest Grove.

Fine Art Prints To Be Exhibited

MONROE—An exhibit of Fine Art Prints will be held in Monroe High School starting April 14 and continuing through April 18. About 150 masterpieces will be shown in reproductions.

The money taken in on the exhibition will be used for buying good pictures for the school.

The high school's schedule for the showing of the art exhibit is: April 14 all day; April 15 morning only; April 16 all day; April 17 all day and 7:30 to 9 p.m.; April 18 morning only.

Music Teachers Meet At Cottage Grove Home

Eugene District, Oregon Music Teachers Association, will meet Monday at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. H. A. Hagen, 426 S. 2nd St., Cottage Grove. The program will be Mozart's "Quintet No. 6", played by Leo W. York, clarinet; Miss Wanda K. Eastwood and Mrs. William D. Elkins, violins; Mrs. Marian Daniel, viola, and Mrs. Alvord S. Lathrop, cello.

Insurance Women To Name Officers

Nomination for new officers will take place at the meeting of Insurance Women of Eugene and Lane County Tuesday. It will be at 7:45 p.m. at Woman's Club. Crosby Owens, special state agent for an insurance firm, will be guest speaker.

Schultz photo, Willshire engraving.
MRS. SYLVANIS HUBERT PACE (Constance Hope Stone) was a bride of late March at the Church of Christ in Harrisburg. Her new home is at Monroe following a wedding trip to the coast.

Linn County OES Chapters to Visit

Meridian Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, will entertain officers and members of Zenith Chapter of Brownsville, and Marguerite Chapter of Lebanon at its regular meeting Friday at 8 p.m. in the Masonic Temple, 10th and Olive Sts. The session will be in the small chapter room.

Mrs. Carl Wicklund, Miss Joanne Jarvis and Mrs. Harold Ayres are in charge of refreshments after the meeting. Mrs. K. D. Rude and Mrs. P. W. Halweg will provide chapter room decorations. All members of the order are welcome to attend.

Blue River Star Club To Have Social Evening

Blue River Star Club will meet Friday at McKenzie River Temple for a potluck luncheon at 12:30 p.m. A social afternoon will follow. Mrs. Harry Jacobs and Mrs. Merle Howard are chairmen in charge of the meeting.

Serving on the refreshment and dinner committees are Mrs. Andrew Nissen, Mrs. E. A. Lewis, Mrs. Howard Ormiston, Mrs. Ernest Stacks and Mrs. Joseph Svatos.

THIRD GENERATION to wear this old-fashioned little dress in which she is posed is Molly Madeline Northam, 3, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John V. Northam. The dress, trimmed in fine eyelet embroidery, was made by the little girl's great grandmother, and was worn by her grandmother, Mrs. Clarence Chase, as well as her mother, before her. Each wearer also had in common a middle name of Madeline. (Arnold photo, Willshire engraving) ictures and Framing . . .

P

A few carefully chosen prints in appropriate frames will lift your walls, your rooms to new heights of interest, impart a modern mood.

Our showing of fine prints is immensely varied.

Cathryn's

122 East Broadway

YWCA Calendar

- Wednesday, April 16
9:30 a.m.—12 noon — Nursery for pre-school children at First Methodist Church.
10 a.m.—Y-Wives club in Y-Center library.
- Thursday, April 17
7:30 p.m.—Charm class in Y-Center library.
7:45 p.m.—Folk-dancing in Y-Center Auditorium.
- Friday, April 18
9 a.m.—12 noon—Nursery for pre-school children at First Methodist Church.
12 noon—9 p.m.—Y-Teen Hobby Show at Springfield High School . . . public invited. Small admission charge.

Annual Meeting Set in Portland

"Home Economics Now" will be the theme of the Washington and Oregon Home Economics Associations when they gather in Portland Friday and Saturday, April 18-19, for a joint meeting.

Miss Frances Urban, field secretary for the American Home Economics Association, will be a special guest, and will speak for the national organization.

The many facts of home economics—foods, nutrition, textiles, clothing, family and community living, child care, and other related subjects will be discussed by home economists of both states. Miss Alice Wieman, president of the O. H. E. A., and Miss Goldie Manning, president of W. H. E. A., will preside at meetings. Dr. Jennie Poundtree, director of School of Home Economics, University of Washington, will serve as moderator for a round table, "Modern Approach to Nutrition." Miss Joan Patterson of Oregon State College will report on her research with Oregon flax. Other outstanding speakers, both from the field of home economics and from the business world, will appear on the program.

Dr. Frederick Peters of Reed College, recently back from the American Institute in Germany, will talk on "The Family in Post-war Germany" at the banquet Saturday night.

Members of the Home Economics department of University of Oregon planning to attend are: Miss Frances Van Voorhis, acting head, Miss Faith Johnston, Miss Margaret Wiese, and Miss L. Mildred Wilson.

Parents Club Sponsors Benefit Card Party

Parents Club of St. Francis High School will sponsor a card party Thursday evening at the school. Games will begin at 8 p.m., and everybody is invited to attend. There will be a silver collection for benefit of the school.

Club Meets Friday

Happy Dozen Club will meet Friday at 1:30 p.m. with Mrs. Estelle McCormack, 124 E. 13th Ave.

Dessert Meeting Slated at Hotel

Dessert meeting of Evergreen Toastmistress Club will be at the Osburn Hotel Monday at 7:30 p.m. Toastmistress will be Mrs. Virginia Fry. Anyone interested in the club is invited to attend. Mrs. Charles E. Lowe Jr., club president, asks that all members attend so that final arrangements can be made for the regional meeting in Salem, April 26 and 27.

Pick a pattern—any pattern in

TOWLE STERLING

. . . and rejoice for life in a profitable investment

Register it here, and rejoice doubly—for we will keep your record up to date for family and friends to consult at gift times. Smartest way on earth to build a treasure of lifetime beauty!

All solid silver, of course, —and a low starting price of $20.65 for starter settings, $3.70 for teaspoons.

Best time to start: as soon as possible!

CREDIT if Desired! No interest—No Carrying Charge!

LARAWAY'S JEWELERS

1016 WILLAMETTE ST. DIAL 4-3203
(Next to McDonald Theatre)

Always fine hats at Bonnet Nook

SHARON HATS
SONNI HATS
DEVONSHIRE HATS

Open Friday Eve.

Singer's a beautiful walnut-finish

SINGER

ELECTRIC CONSOLE

ONLY $142.50

With this smooth stitching, sturdy SINGER* sewing Machine you can make perfect lock stitches with ease and, when it's time in sewing use the beautiful console cabinet becomes a perfect piece of furniture.

Pay as little as $21.50 down.

Yours AT NO EXTRA COST!

- Basic set of SINGER Attachments for handling fine sewing details.
- Special SINGER Warranty of manufacturing perfection.
- Famous SINGER Sewing Course—8 two-hour lessons.

SINGER SEWING CENTER
1022 WILLAMETTE PHONE 5-8421
EUGENE, OREGON

Play PIANO
Play ORGAN
Play BOTH, TOGETHER
on this ONE lovely instrument!

It's just the size of a conventional spinet piano, yet it fills the largest living room (or small church or theatre) with vibrant organ music. It's a miracle instrument. Come see it, and be prepared for love at first sight!

Gaylord's
Pianos for Particular People
13th & Willamette Dial 5-2179

Treat your legs to new Spring Fashion . . .

Munsingwear's delectable new

Sugar coat your pretty legs this season with Munsingwear's delectable new "Confection Colors" . . . concocted to sweeten your fashion menu and to complement the new "frosted" look. And now Munsingwear's exclusive new Secre-Seal Beauty Finish keeps hosiery colors lovelier longer.

$1.35 to $1.95

Sculptured to fit your very own leg-size
IRIS, small (blue stripe)
VENUS, medium (green stripe)
DIANA, tall (peach stripe)

The Broadway