

7 Teen-Agers Face Charges

Two carloads of teen-agers were taken to Eugene's police station Friday night. Seven juveniles were charged with illegal possession of alcohol, and David Lee Rogers, 21, of 1180 Hayes St., with contributing to the delinquency of minors.

Two boys and two girls, all under age, were placed in custody after a 75-mile an hour chase across the Ferry St. Bridge and a mile and a half along Coburg Road about 10:30 p.m.

WHEN THEIR car finally was stopped, the pursuing officer found 17 bottles of beer inside. The youngsters subsequently were released on their own recognizance pending court appearance with their parents the night of April 16.

Police records listed this quartet as Harlan Dale Weise, 18, 6025 McKenzie Hwy.; Robert J. LeRoy, 19, Rt. 2, Springfield; Bertha Jane Redding, 19, of 1191 Echo Hollow Road; and Shirley Ann Hylton, 18, Box 232, Springfield.

ROGERS was arrested with a trio of boys, 15, 16 and 17 years old. The car in which they were traveling was stopped at 7th and Willamette Sts. at 1:15 a.m. Saturday, and four quarts of beer discovered in the car.

At headquarters, Rogers signed a statement indicating that he had purchased a case of quarts earlier in the evening and consumed it with the younger boys. He stated he had believed them old enough to drink.

Rogers was placed in the city jail pending arraignment on the contributing charge. The others were released to their parents to answer "illegal possession" charges in municipal court next Friday.

District to Study Fire Protection

Rainbow Water District has called a public meeting Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. in Springfield fire hall to discuss possible formation of a fire district.

Jay C. Hicks, Jr., superintendent of the Rainbow District, has urged all persons living in his area to attend. The city of Springfield recently gave notice to areas outside the city that they have until May 1 to take action toward helping themselves if they want Springfield aid at fires.

Hicks said a representative of the state fire marshal's office will attend. Fire Chief Harry Krieger will attend as a representative of the city.

Several houses just outside city limits of Eugene and Springfield have burned recently, with large losses, because there has been no fire protection in those areas.

Bessie Boyle

Bessie Boyle, 630 High St., Eugene, died Friday, April 11, 1952, at the age of 83. She was born July 30, 1868, at Philomath, Ore., of pioneers, Mr. and Mrs. James B. Irwin.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Axel Petersen of Eugene, and many nieces and nephews.

Graveside services will be at Newton Cemetery at Philomath Monday, April 14, at 2:30 p.m. Simon-Lounsbury Mortuary, Eugene, is in charge.

Fire Drill Prize Won by School At Santa Clara

Students of Santa Clara School Friday were awarded a pennant for excellency in fire drills by representatives of Eugene's bureau of fire prevention and Eugene-Lane County Fire Insurance Assn.

The students, in graded drills, scored 497.9 out of a possible 500. St. Mary's School was second with the close score of 497.6. Fire Marshal Lester Barker praised the Crippled Children's Hospital School for its score of 491.6.

Graded drills are held every two months in all District 4 schools. The next drill, however, will be held sometime in May to avoid year-end confusion.

Special emphasis during drills this year has been put on checking for missing students to be sure all are out of the building. Officials have hidden a few students in remote parts of the buildings to see whether roll calls and final checks through the building would locate them.

Breeders Slate Rabbit Show

More than 500 rabbits from San Francisco to the Canadian border will be entered in a rabbit show at the Lane County Fairgrounds Saturday and Sunday, April 19 and 20.

The 50 members of the Lane County Rabbit Breeders Assn., sponsors of the show, are all planning to enter animals. All breeds will be represented.

A separate division has been established for 4-H Clubs. The show will be in the 4-H building at the fairgrounds. The public has been invited to attend at no charge. The building will be open from 8 a. m. to at least 5 p. m. both days.

Judges will be George Bayless, Hayward, Calif., and Burt Searl, Spokane, Wash. Prizes of trophies, ribbons and feed will be awarded. Show manager is Keith Douglas, telephone 4-1534.

SO SORRY, PLEASE

PEABODY, Mass.—(U.P.)—A thief broke into the Ellis Grain Co., robbed a safe of $400, and left a note saying, "I am sorry." Company officials were left wondering whether the burglar was sorry he took the money or sorry that there had not been more to take.

Doctors Face Damage Suits

Separate $35,000 damage suits have been filed in Circuit Court against E. N. Rhoads, named as operator of a hospital and clinic at 675 W. Broadway, and Dr. Gladys Rathbone, identified as an osteopath working at the clinic.

Plaintiff is Eva M. Harris, who charges negligence on the part of the doctor and the hospital in treating her for a broken arm. In each suit Mrs. Harris asks $35,000 general damages and $743 special damages.

The complaint alleges she broke the arm April 27, 1950, and was treated at the hospital. It further alleges negligence on the part of doctor and hospital, charging the cast was removed too soon and that the arm was not x-rayed after the cast was taken off.

The result, Mrs. Harris charges, is that the right elbow and the fingers of the right hand are left useless.

Landscaping Lecture Set

A free demonstration and lecture on home landscaping will be offered at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday at the 4-H Club Bldg. on the county fairgrounds.

I. B. Solberg, associate professor of landscape architecture at Oregon State College, will conduct the lecture, illustrated by colored slides. He will also answer questions and give suggestions on pruning shrubs.

Those attending are invited to bring specimen shrubs for pruning.

The meeting has been arranged by the County Home Economics and Agricultural Extension offices in cooperation with the horticultural committee of the Lane County Agricultural Council.

Although the meeting was planned primarily for rural homeowners, County Agent O. S. Fletcher said city residents are also invited.

FOR GOOD MEASURE

NEW HAVEN, Conn.—(U.P.)—Joseph DiNuzzo complained his missing pigeons weren't flying the coop, but were being stolen. The loss of 20 pigeons hurt, but the thief added insult to injury when he also took a pair of mash to feed his newly-acquired roost.

Schoolboy Files Suit Against Truck Driver

An 8-year-old boy allegedly injured in an accident in front of his school has sued a truck operator for $17,000. In a suit filed in Circuit Court, the boy, Gerald M. Burke asks $15,000 general damages and $2,000 special damages.

Suing through his guardian, Virgil I. Burke, the lad charges he was struck by a truck operated by Norris A. Olson in front of the Harrison School in Cottage Grove at 3 p. m. Feb. 1, 1952. Olson is defendant in the suit.
