

Creswell Seniors Present Play; Other News of Week's Meetings

CRESWELL — Lions Club will hold a dinner meeting at the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall, Monday evening, April 21. The Auxiliary to the VFW will serve the dinner.

Girl Scout leaders, committee members and mothers will meet at the City Hall, 1:30 p.m., Monday, April 21. "Play Day" and day camp will be discussed.

FL Club members will hold a progressive dinner, Monday evening, April 21. Meet at Mrs. Norman Skaggs' home for the first course at 7 p. m.

Mrs. Leo Netzel and Mrs. W. W. Smith will serve refreshments at Rebekahs, Wednesday evening, April 23.

Initiation will be held at Theta Rho Club, Thursday evening.

AA Offers Help At Westfir Hall

WESTFIR — Members of the Westfir-Oakridge chapter of Alcoholics Anonymous are meeting every Sunday evening in the Westfir Show Hall from 7 till 8:15 p.m. Residents of the two communities who may be troubled by drinking problems are invited to attend the meetings which are open to members and friends. There are no membership fees or complicated rituals, only a desire to help and to be helped when drinking problems exist. Coffee is served at each meeting. Anyone desiring A. A. help is invited to attend one of the meetings or to call Westfir 2-2334 for further information.

Triangle P-TA

BLACHLY — "Gym - packed was the crowd at the Triangle P-TA on Tuesday, to enjoy an all school program, consisting of samples of classroom activities from the grade school, choral and band numbers from the high school, an Indian play by the Cub Scouts, a style show by the 4-H's—and coffee and donuts.

Officers for the next school year were elected: Mrs. Albert Moe, president; Mrs. Russell Powell, vice-pres.; Mrs. Vergil Parker, sec'y-treas.

Elected to serve on the scholarship committee and to select the graduating senior to receive the $150 P-TA scholarship were P-TA President Mrs. Hubert Williams, Supt. Henry Strom, Warren Marshall, Mrs. Alfred Steinhauer, and Mrs. Carrol Hull.

The group also voted to furnish a one-half 4-H scholarship.

At Mapleton

MAPLETON—Rebekahs initiated Mrs. Glenn Platt to become a member of the lodge at the recent session. Mrs. Walter Camp received her commission from the Board of Controls as adviser of the Theta Rho Girls.

Mrs. Wm. Keep, who underwent an emergency operation at the Eugene Hospital, recently, is reported on the way to recovery.

Mrs. John Epperson's car collided with a logging truck on the Sweet Creek road Friday evening. Although the car was badly damaged no one was injured.

Alpine HEU

ALPINE—Home Extension Unit new officers: Mrs. L. C. Davidson, chairman, Mrs. Orin Nye, vice-chairman and Mrs. D. J. White, treasurer, were re-elected. Mrs. Guy Steward was elected secretary.

The Bellfountain and Alpine H.E.U.'s will present one episode of a historical pageant, May 10, in Corvallis, at the Homemakers festival. The women meet with Mrs. May Christlance April 29 at 7:30 p.m. for practice and dress rehearsal.

The H.E.U. will meet May 21, with Miss Madeline Nichols, Miss Helen Sellie, Benton County Home Helen Sellie, Benton County Home lesson on "Dry cleaning."

PAINFUL MISHAP

OAKRIDGE — Clyde Johnson who works in the woods above Oakridge, mashed a couple of fingers last Saturday. He was back on the job at Pope and Talbot Monday.

Kids Do Well In Selling Job; Reward Given

VENETA—The Crowell-Collier magazine contest conducted by the grade school has closed and fell short of the $500 goal by only $56.50. Of the $443.50 made, $255.20 was earned by the seventh grade room. This is the most earned by one room in any of contests held. Eighth grade room was second and sixth grade third.

Marilyn Cochran sold the most subscriptions and was to receive a wrist watch, Peggy Wood, second place, $5.00, Larry Padcock, third place, a scout hatchet and knife set, and fourth prize, an "eight ball," goes to Jackie Macklin. Eleven others sold over $10.10 worth of subscriptions and will receive some reward.

Friday morning there was to be a general assembly for the upper and Tom Graham of Creswell, district manager for Crowell-Collier Co. was to present the prizes and also the Crowell-Collier trophy to the seventh grade room.

In the afternoon the seventh graders were treated to an ice cream party by Graham.

Manager Plan Gets 'Talk-Out' Before Loranes

LORANE — A meeting with speakers discussing both sides of the County Manager Plan question will be held in Lorane Grange hall Thursday, April 24, at 8 p.m.

Two speakers will discuss aspects of the plan for each side. A question and answer period will follow the discussion.

All voters are welcome.

Lorane Grange will be hosts when Lowell grangers pay their respects Tuesday, April 22. The visitors will provide the program for the evening.

Each Lorane grange family is asked to bring a small salad, one-half dozen sandwiches and a dozen cookies.

Sum of $29 has been added to the building fund from various recent money raising projects.

Lorane Parent-Teachers Club will sponsor the annual Amateur Night at 8 p.m. Friday, April 25. Anyone wishing to enter the contest may contact either Mrs. C. B. Mitchell or Mrs. Arvid Rothauge.

Prizes of $1 for first and 50¢ second place will be given for four divisions: pre-schoolers through fourth grade; fifth through eighth grade; high school, and adults.

High school students will sell candy and pop corn to help finance the senior trip. No other refreshments will be served at this meeting.

Mrs. and Mrs. Victor Fink and family are driving a new car.

At Coburg

COBURG — A delegation from the Methodist Youth Fellowship is attending the sub-district rally at the Ebbert Memorial Methodist Church, in Springfield, Sunday, April 20. Those who wish to go are asked to meet at the Coburg Methodist Church, 2 p.m., Sunday where transportation will be provided.

Willing Workers Club meets, 2 p.m., Tuesday, April 22, with Mrs. Harold Hurd. The time will be spent in trying out quilts for the Red Cross.

Coburg Past Noble Grands Club meets with Mrs. D. J. Calvert, 8 p.m., Thursday, April 24.

Walton P-TA

WALTON—The parents of the Linslaw area are sponsoring a carnival at the Linslaw School Friday, April 25, Walton and other communities invited, proceeds to go for the school.

Walton PTA held their annual election for office recently: Mrs. Elmer Hansen, president; Mrs. Howard Smith, vice president; Mrs. W. P. Netherton, secretary; and Howard Smith, treasurer.

Thanks to Neighbors After Home Fire

ELMIRA—Mr. and Mrs. Earl F. Kelley, who recently lost their home by fire, wish to express their thanks "first to Helen Stanley for phoning Western Lane Fire Patrol at the time of the fire, also to Ray Ogleby of Western Lane, W. F. Harcombe and boys from Elmira Union High School, and neighbors who assisted during the fire.

"We would also like to thank Mr. and Mrs. Max Wiese and the Red Cross for their assistance and consolation at the time of our loss." The Kelleys are now established in the small restaurant which adjoined their home.

CDA Initiation

COTTAGE GROVE — Catholic Daughters of America will hold initiation in the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall, Monday evening, following a 6:30 p. m. banquet, Eugene Court Oregon will initiate.

MARCOLA WOMEN GET REBEKAH POSITIONS

MARCOLA — Mrs. Carl Clark and Mrs. Albert Wright were elected delegates to Rebekah Assembly of Oregon meeting in Salem in May. Mrs. Clark was recommended for the position of district deputy president for this lodge.

Stanford Tests Given Graders At Pleasant Hill

PLEASANT HILL—Notes from the Pleasant Hill schools include announcement that William Bromley, superintendent, and Arnold Martin, music director, are giving new Stanford Achievement Tests from grade one through eight. These tests will be scored and new achievement standard will be scored and new achievement standards will be set up from the results.

Parents who are interested may call at the office about May 15 to get the results of their children's tests.

Dates to clip and remember: May Festival (elementary) May 2; Junior-Senior Play, Friday, May 9, high school gym 8 p.m.; Baccalaureate, Sunday, June 1, high school gym, 8 p.m. Elementary Graduation, Thursday, June 5, gym, 8 p.m. High school graduation, Friday, June 6, gym 8 p.m.

Election of high school student body officers for the 1952-53 school year will be held April 26. To be eligible for office a student must have a 3-point grade average; must be a senior for the office of president; and petitions for candidates must be signed by 20 qualified voters; 1 e. those holding student body cards.

At an assembly held recently, National Honor Society pins were presented to Betty Kingsbury, Rhoda Glahn, Lorraine Martin, Winifred Mathews, Dorothy Rogers, Delpha Walker, and Delbert Robertson. Dora Ellen Cash, honor society advisor, made the presentation stating that awards are based on scholarship, citizenship, and character.

These students will attend a formal banquet Saturday, May 3, sponsored by the principals of the Lane B schools. Sophomores attend as "probation students," and juniors are eligible for initiation. Winifred Mathews and Delpha Walker are initiated a year ago.

Groups Plan Spring Events At Creswell

CRESWELL—Odd Fellows have voted to sponsor Boy Scout Troop 28 again and Harry Mawson has been appointed institutional representative to take the place of Norman Skaggs, who resigned.

Lane County Odd Fellows convention has been announced for April 25 at Oakridge and Lane County Leaders Council will meet at Lorane IOOF Hall, Sunday afternoon, April 27.

Mrs. A. J. Gabriel has been appointed "sunshine" chairman for the Presbyterian Ladies Aid and also chairman of the apron committee for the annual bazaar.

Presbytery has been announced for April 24 and 25 in Eugene and those planning to attend are asked to contact Mrs. H. A. Simmons by April 21.

Mrs. G. L. Decker, Mrs. A. W. Bartel and Miss Margaret Ferguson will be hostesses for the May 7 meeting.

Women's Society for Christian Service of the Methodist Church cleared $15 on the merchant's lunch served Wednesday. Eighty dollars was received from the Lenten boxes that were distributed. The money was used for redecorating the interior of the church.

New members of the WSCS are Mrs. Chester Hamner, Mrs. Foster Elliott and Mrs. Kenneth Marple. The Miriam Circle of the group has chosen the contribution of tea towels to the Methodist Old Folks Home at Salem as their next project.

Mrs. J. M. Walkup will lead the lesson on "Choose Ye This Day" and Mrs. J. E. Smith will lead devotions at the May meeting.

Congratulations To Mrs. Elnan

SWISSHOME—Mrs. Olaf (Constance) Elnan who has lived at Deadwood since 1914, celebrated her 81st birthday Easter Sunday April 13th. All of her children and their families except one granddaughter, Joyce Ochampaugh, Corpus Christi, Texas were present for the surprise dinner, which was held at the home of her youngest daughter, Mrs. Ted Neilson.

Mrs. Elnan tells many interesting stories of the growth and development of the Siuslaw valley. Families lived far apart and with no doctor near. Mrs. Elnan was almost impassable in the winter time but no call was ever left unanswered if old Dobbin could get her there.

The four children present for the 1952 celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elnan of Newport, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Rice (Laurie Elnan) of Mapleton, Mr. and Mrs. James Ochampaugh (Rachel Elnan) of Colton, Ore. and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Neilson (Ruth Elnan) of Deadwood. Also attending were 9 grandchildren, 5 great grandchildren and a niece, Miss Kathleen Nute of Silt, Ore.

Open house was held in the afternoon with refreshments of ice cream and cake served to the any old time friends who called to wish Grandma Elnan a Happy Birthday and many more.

GRANGE MASTER AT 15

BEALLSVILLE, O.—(U.P.)—Robert Hagans, elected Grange master, believes he's the youngest person to hold such a position. He is 15.

Manager Plan Gets 'Talk-Out' Before Loranes

LORANE — A meeting with speakers discussing both sides of the County Manager Plan question will be held in Lorane Grange hall Thursday, April 24, at 8 p.m.

Two speakers will discuss aspects of the plan for each side. A question and answer period will follow the discussion.

All voters are welcome.

Groups Plan Spring Events At Creswell

CRESWELL—Odd Fellows have voted to sponsor Boy Scout Troop 28 again and Harry Mawson has been appointed institutional representative to take the place of Norman Skaggs, who resigned.

Lane County Odd Fellows convention has been announced for April 25 at Oakridge and Lane County Leaders Council will meet at Lorane IOOF Hall, Sunday afternoon, April 27.

Mrs. A. J. Gabriel has been appointed "sunshine" chairman for the Presbyterian Ladies Aid and also chairman of the apron committee for the annual bazaar.

Presbytery has been announced for April 24 and 25 in Eugene and those planning to attend are asked to contact Mrs. H. A. Simmons by April 21.

Mrs. G. L. Decker, Mrs. A. W. Bartel and Miss Margaret Ferguson will be hostesses for the May 7 meeting.

Women's Society for Christian Service of the Methodist Church cleared $15 on the merchant's lunch served Wednesday. Eighty dollars was received from the Lenten boxes that were distributed. The money was used for redecorating the interior of the church.

New members of the WSCS are Mrs. Chester Hamner, Mrs. Foster Elliott and Mrs. Kenneth Marple. The Miriam Circle of the group has chosen the contribution of tea towels to the Methodist Old Folks Home at Salem as their next project.

Mrs. J. M. Walkup will lead the lesson on "Choose Ye This Day" and Mrs. J. E. Smith will lead devotions at the May meeting.

Congratulations To Mrs. Elnan

SWISSHOME—Mrs. Olaf (Constance) Elnan who has lived at Deadwood since 1914, celebrated her 81st birthday Easter Sunday April 13th. All of her children and their families except one granddaughter, Joyce Ochampaugh, Corpus Christi, Texas were present for the surprise dinner, which was held at the home of her youngest daughter, Mrs. Ted Neilson.

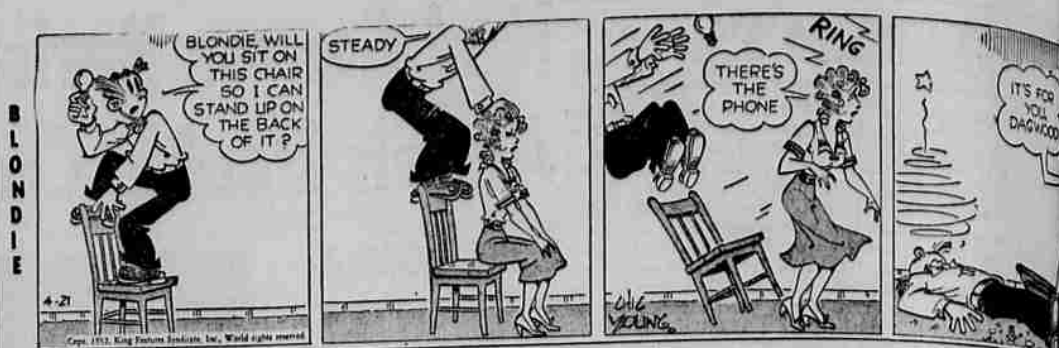

Mrs. Elnan tells many interesting stories of the growth and development of the Siuslaw valley. Families lived far apart and with no doctor near. Mrs. Elnan was almost impassable in the winter time but no call was ever left unanswered if old Dobbin could get her there.

The four children present for the 1952 celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Elnan of Newport, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Rice (Laurie Elnan) of Mapleton, Mr. and Mrs. James Ochampaugh (Rachel Elnan) of Colton, Ore. and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Neilson (Ruth Elnan) of Deadwood. Also attending were 9 grandchildren, 5 great grandchildren and a niece, Miss Kathleen Nute of Silt, Ore.

Open house was held in the afternoon with refreshments of ice cream and cake served to the any old time friends who called to wish Grandma Elnan a Happy Birthday and many more.

GRANGE MASTER AT 15

BEALLSVILLE, O.—(U.P.)—Robert Hagans, elected Grange master, believes he's the youngest person to hold such a position. He is 15.

FEEL RELAXED!

Base that tension
Chew Wrigley's Spearmint Gum.
Pleasant chewing reduces strain.
Helps you feel relaxed.
Enjoy it anytime, anywhere.

good to chew...
and good for you

Wrigley's
SPEARMINT
CHEWING GUM

Refreshing Delicious

Wow!

VENETA—Mrs. George I. Glidden telephoned relatives in Sioux City Sunday evening to find out how they were faring during the flood and learned that the ones living in the flooded area had been evacuated to higher ground. They told that just the tops of the telephone poles along highway 20, which goes through the city, were above water but were expected to be completely covered by morning.