

Band Boosters Sponsor Concert Tuesday Eve

MAPLETON — Band Boosters Club will sponsor a concert given by the High School Band 8 p.m. Tuesday, May 13, in the school auditorium. Proceeds will be used to help purchase uniforms for the band. Admission: Adults 50 cents; children 25 cents. General public is invited.

The Band Boosters Club recently elected Mrs. D. F. Fraundtner, president; Early Boushey, vice president; Mrs. Ernest Rhodes, secretary; and Mrs. Wallace Stevens, treasurer.

After the business meeting about 40 adults, teachers and band members held a miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Marian Templeton, home economics teacher, and John Kienzie, band director. The young couple plan on a June wedding shortly after school closes. Special entertainment was a mock wedding. The principal characters (and what characters) were Supt. Al Johnson, "the bride," Mrs. Wallace Stevens, "the groom," Mrs. Delbert Rexford, "the bridesmaid," Earl Boushey, "the best man," Lefty Woodruff, "the flower girl," Mrs. Earl Boushey, "justice of the peace." For something special and out of the ordinary Mrs. Patsy Ellington attempted to sing (she should have had help) "Hall, Hall, the Gang's All Here" as a solo for the wedding march. After the surprised couple was lavishly gifted, cake and coffee was served.
