

Mrs. Agule Chosen New President For River Road Club

RIVER ROAD—Mrs. Frank I. Agule was installed president of River Road Women's Club Wednesday at the last meeting of the fiscal year. Serving with her as elective officers will be Mrs. George B. Nash, vice president; Mrs. John L. Mitchell, secretary and Mrs. Nina Spierling, treasurer. Mrs. Harry R. Hollis was installing officer, assisted by Mrs. E. Roy Smith who presented corsages to new and outgoing officers. Mrs. Arthur R. Beebe is retiring president and Mrs. Darrell Hebert, secretary. A corsage was given, also, to Mrs. Edward E. Martin, program chairman.

The club will have family night Saturday, with a potluck meal served at 6:30 p.m. (DST). All families of the River Road community are invited, whether members of the club or not, and are requested to take their potluck meal and table service. Coffee, rolls and butter will be furnished by the hostess committee.

The organization voted to join Santa Clara Club in its new project, if plans can be worked out. A rummage sale is planned for October and members are asked to put aside woolen articles for the project. The club also voted to have the clubhouse painted this summer.

A musical program was given following the noon luncheon. Don Neely sang, "None But The Lonely Heart" and "Lady of Spain," accompanied by Jerry Jerome. Judy Herendeen played several numbers on her accordion and accompanied her mother, Mrs. Alfred E. Herendeen, who sang several numbers. Hostesses were Mrs. L. D. Sem, Mrs. Mitchell, Mrs. W. S. Hardy, Mrs. S. R. Williams and Mrs. Herendeen.

A simple exercise for relieving eyestrain and relaxing the eyes is the following: Look at an object far away. Now look at your index finger six inches away from your nose. Blink often, and repeat the exercise many times.

Girls Honor Mothers

YONCALLA — The annual Mothers' Tea was held at the high school recently, with the home economics girls making the cookies that were served. The prom queen, Dolores Sanders, announced the girls as they modeled the dresses they made the past year. Girls modeling were Wanda Rapp, Pauline Rychard, Shirley South, Betty Currier and Jean Edwards. They also demonstrated table settings, using the table cloths and napkins made during the school year.

Nurse Says Double

Life Possible By

Work Short Cuts

Many nurses must do double duty as housewives and part-time breadwinners. "Vano Powdered Bleach saves precious minutes," says Mrs. A. W. "Now I bleach as I wash. And what's more, new Vano really whitens nylon uniforms I never dared bleach before. It's a life saver for me."
