Negro Singers' Concert Slated By Methodists

"Wings Over Jordan," billed as the world's most renowned Negro choir, will sing in Eugene Thursday at 8 p.m. at First Methodist Church. The choir is on a goodwill tour of the country.

No admission charge will be made but a free will offering will be taken.

Six months after its first radio broadcast in July, 1937, the choir became one of the featured programs of a coast-to-coast Columbia Broadcasting System hookup. Except for 10 months spent overseas entertaining servicemen, the choir has had 12 consecutive years as a radio recording group.

The group has appeared in famous concert halls in 45 states including New York's Town Hall, Madison Square Garden and Carnegie Hall, Hollywood Bowl in Los Angeles, Convention Hall in Philadelphia and many others. Recently, sponsored by the U.S. Treasury Department, they choir assisted in the sale of savings bonds.

Origin of the group is credited to the Rev. Glynn T. Settle, at one time pastor of Gethsemane Baptist Church, Cleveland, Ohio.

Hells Canyon in the Snake River between Idaho and Oregon is deeper than the Grand Canyon of the Colorado and narrower between the rims.

River Roaders Vote for Lights

RIVER ROAD—Voters in the River Road Water District area Tuesday approved installation of street lights along River Road by approving a ballot measure for financing of the project.

Yes votes totaled 167; no votes, 99. Plans call for the lights to be installed on every other power pole between Eugene City limits and Howard Ave.

Colorful DAV 'Circus Revue' Scheduled for Armory Friday

Aerialists, a Viennese juggler, a dog act, a zany xylophonist, and other circus-type acts will be featured at the Eugene Armory Friday when the local chapter of the Disabled American Veterans presents its "Circus Revue."

The talent in the show has been at several other Oregon cities recently. Don Simmons is producer and director.

Among the acts is Toscanelli, Viennese juggler, who has entertained royalty and audiences throughout the world, his billing claims.

OTHER ACTS include: Miss Patsy Jean, girl contortionist; The Tuckerettes, three girls who perform on the trampoline; Sud and Virginia, comedy team who will offer humor and unusual musical presentations, Simmons said.

Also with the show are Ben Yost's Royal Guards, who recently completed an engagement at New York's Palace Theater and before that, a command performance in London; El Cota, who plays a xylophone, and his partner Beatrice; the Lamarettes, five aerialists; and "Canine Capers," a trained dog act.

LOCAL HANDICAPPED, orphaned and underpriviliged children are to be the guests of local business men for the matinee performance of the indoor circus Friday. About 1500 children will be there.

The afternoon show starts at 3:30 p.m.; the evening performance at 8:30 p.m.

Tickets can be purchased from any DAV member, or at DAV offices in the Veterans Memorial Building, or by phoning 5-0111.

Because a cow's digestive process must include the activitity of bacteria which produce gas, bloat can result if the animal gorges on young legumes without sufficient roughage to stimulate belching.
