Junction Meets Albany

Baseball Tourney To Open Thursday

The state baseball tournament will get underway at Albany's Legion Stadium Thursday afternoon and evening with Junction City seeing action in the fourth and final round game that night. The Tigers will go against Albany in the 9 p.m., DST, contest.

First contest of the tourney will be held at 1:30 p.m. and pits two of the choice clubs, Medford and The Dalles. At 3:30 p.m., Roosevelt clashes with Central Catholic while West Linn meets Lincoln at 7 p.m.

Junction City, Lane County's entry, enters the baseball playoff as the "longest of the long shots." The Tigers are the lone A-2 team to make the tournament. All other seven entries are from the larger A-1 category.

DON RUECKER, in his first year at the Junction baseball helm, named a 15-man squad for the Albany trip. This includes: catchers—Eric Jacobson and Ray Hill; pitchers—Bill Pollard, Loring Dixon, Henry Robinson and Wally Shirmer; infield—Gale Lee at first, Larry Barger at second, Bob Todd at shortstop, Ray Stuckrath at third and Terry Williams, utility; outfield—Jim Christensen in left, Chet Hatfield in center and Jerry Williams in right, with Bob Hall as utility.

Jim Templeton and Marion Gribskov will perform as managers for the Junction nine. This is the Tigers' first trip to the diamond tournament.

The losers of Thursday's games will automatically drop from the tourney, which continues Friday and Saturday nights. The four remaining teams will vie for the championship.

ALBANY, the District 8 team, will likely use its ace pitcher, Frank Buford, against Junction. Otherwise LeRoy Babcock will draw the starting assignment. Leading Bulldog hitters are Don Brenneman, Gary Torgeson, J. R. Stamps, and Bill Parrett.

Junction's starting pitcher is also in doubt although Pollard may come right back at the Bulldogs after hurling the Tigers into the tourney Monday via a 1-0 one-hitter against Springfield. In case he doesn't start, Loring Dixon will draw the starting role.

Probably the outstanding individual at the tournament will be The Dalles fastball pitcher, Eddie Urness. He is rated a sure bonus Major League prospect and has been instrumental in the Indians' record of 15 wins and no defeats. Junction's 12-1 mark is second best among the entries.

Probable starting lineups, and batting order, for the Junction City-Albany contest:

ALBANY—Gatlin, rf; Brenneman, ss; Torgeson, cf; Babcock or Burford, p; Parrett, c; Stamps, 1; Sease, 3; Derrah or Burford, 2; Derrah or Anderson, rf. Coach—Chuck Kerr.
JUNCTION CITY—Hatfield, cf; Barger, 2; Stuckrath, 3; Todd, ss; Jacobson, c; Williams, rf; Christenson, lf; Lee, 1; Pollard or Dixon, p. Coach—Don Ruecker.

Pinch-Hitter Bats For Pinch-Hitter

AUSTIN, Tex.—(AP)—A pinch-hitter batted for a pinch-hitter in a Big State League game here Tuesday night and baseball veterans said they never heard of it in Texas before.

It was in the sixth inning of the Austin-Longview game with Austin staging a six-run rally. Ricardo Dieguez batted for pitcher Jim Logan and struck out. They batted around and when it came Dieguez' turn again John Andre batted for him and got on first through a fielder's choice.

Rookies Pacing Major Fielding

NEW YORK — (AP) — Two rookies who weren't wanted—Hec Rodriguez of the Chicago White Sox and Clint Courtney of the St. Louis Browns—are giving American League veterans a lesson in the fine art of fielding.

Rodriguez, whom Brooklyn peddled to Chicago from its Montreal farm club, has committed only two errors in 102 chances at third base to top the league with a .980 percentage.

Courtney, an ex-Yankee farm hand, has done even better. The bespectacled catcher, traded to the Brownies last fall, is fielding a perfect 1.000.

The figures, released Tuesday by the Associated Press' new statistical bureau, include games of Sunday, May 18.

Actually, Third Baseman Gil McDougald of the Yankees is tied with Rodriguez on a percentage basis, but the White Sox rookie has handled more chances.

Likewise, catchers Yogi Berra of the Yanks and Jim Hegan of Cleveland boast the same percentage as Courtney—1.000—but both have participated in fewer plays.

SAN FRANCISCO — (U.P.) — The wheel of fortune, its little white ball starting to plop in the wrong places, went spinning around Lefty O'Doul's head Wednesday. But the San Diego manager wagered —and hoped—his luck would hold out a while longer.

O'Doul and his Padres enjoy the altitude of first place, though they seem to be descending slowly.

Oakland sliced the Pads' Pacific Coast League margin to a game-and-a-half Tuesday night, nipping San Diego, 3-1, on Lefty Lloyd Hittle's fine pitching performance.

SAN FRANCISCO turned three hits into a 3-1 victory over Portland because one of the safeties was a homer by Joe Grace with two on. Los Angeles nipped Sacramento, 4-3, when Gene Baker doubled to set up the tie-breaker in the eighth. It rained at Seattle and Hollywood and the Rainiers did not play.

The appearance of San Diego as league leader was taken as a temporary thing, even to O'Doul. He's added talent like Allen Richter, Herb Gorman and Lou Stringer to his squad with the idea of maintaining the status quo.

But neither those three, nor any other Padres bothered Hittle as he went about his workmanlike job. Cracker Jack Graham spoiled his series of zeros by hitting a homer in the ninth. Earlier, the Oaks had picked up three runs in one-shots off Willie Luna, the San Diego southpaw.

GRACE, THE SEALS' leading sticker and among the PCL bat leaders, hit his four-master in the first inning. It was the southpaw-swinger's first homer of the year. With the three-run lead on which to work, Bill Bradford turned in a great effort, allowing only four hits.

The win put the Seals at the .500 mark, with 24 wins and 24 losses.

The fourth-place Angels fought from behind to measure the Solons. Don Watkins, who blanked the Sacs during his three-frame relief stint, got a deserved win. Bob Usher hit for the circuit for Los Angeles. And Catcher Jim McKeegan plopped one out of the park for the Solons.

Baker was pushed to third on a bunt and came home on Chuck Connors' long fly ball.

I'd a Murdered 'Em!

TORONTO—(U.P.) — Thirteen-year-old Art Kitamura pitched a no-hit game in a school baseball league Tuesday but said he could have done even better if he hadn't broken his glasses.

A ball broke the boy's spectacles in the second inning and while he was still blinking a runner scored on an error.

"If I could have seen 'em," Art said, "I'd have murdered them."
