Eugene High News

The annual Pep Club Spring sports banquet was held May 27, in the high school gym. Mary Lou Glass was general chairman of this banquet.

The final issue of the E.H.S. news will be out on class day, Thursday, June 5. This 12 page issue is always eagerly awaited by the student body.

Six Eugene High students are to be on a panel at the University of Oregon Teachers' Workshop, June 26.

The Latin, Spanish, and French club picnic that was originally planned for Tuesday, May 27, was postponed because of conflicting activities.

ALL GRADUATING seniors received their caps and gowns for the graduation exercises on Monday, May 26. These will be worn at both baccalaureate and commencement.

The first 1951-1952 "Eugenean" was presented to the Student Body by Anna Mae Barton, editor, on Friday, May 23. They were issued to the students throughout that day.

The commencement exercises for the graduating seniors will be held at McArthur Court on June 6. William Jones, Dean of Administration at the University of Oregon will be the speaker. Baccalaureate for the graduating seniors will be held at McArthur Court on Sunday, June 1st.

The 2nd period radio class presented their last 15 minute broadcast over KRVM Thursday, May 29.

NINE EUGENE high students have been neither tardy nor absent from school for the entire school year. Seven more students were not absent, but were tardy once during the year.

The last award assembly of the year will take place May 29.

NW Governors Make Civil Defense Compact

OLYMPIA—(P)—The governors of Washington, Oregon, Idaho and Montana have ratified interstate civil defense compacts, the state civil defense director said Wednesday.

D. E. Barbey said the compacts provide for mutual aid during times of emergency.

An informal mutual aid agreement between Washington and British Columbia was completed earlier this year.

Nate Boody Named To Portland Council

PORTLAND—(P)—The Portland City Council Wednesday named Nate Boody, department store executive, to fill the unexpired term of City Commissioner J. E. Bennett.

Bennett was recalled at the primary election.

Boody, a former president of the Portland Retail Trade Bureau, will serve until a successor is elected in November.

Awards that will be given are Scholarships, future first citizen, trophy, Baseball, Hendershott cup, Earl Jones Award, 1952-1953 pins, and Dave Hamblaw award.

The results of the college placement tests from the University of Oregon have been received. The students may find out their scores from Miss Nina Kitts, dean of girls, and Mr. Paul Potter, dean of boys.

The final student council meeting of the year was held Wednesday. Reports were made on the last two fire drills and methods of financing the E.H.S. News next year and the Eugenean were signed.

Applications were being turned in to the E.H.S. business office for students planning to take either the radio, speech, or radio electronics courses at Eugene Vocational School this summer.

'ALUMNI CARDS that will admit E.H.S. graduates to E.H.S. activities at student prices were being sold by Darlene Klaus, senior. The cards are good for life.

The Girls Glee held their annual picnic at Benton Lane Park Monday, May 26. They were accompanied by Weston Brockway and chaperones.

The last activity of the junior class this year is being in charge of commencements and class day, and the senior luncheon.

The Thespians of E.H.S. are taking in new members. Each person who received a recommendation from Mr. Filut, drama instructor, will put on skills in front of persons who are Thespians now. A formal initiation will be held.

The G.A.A. held their annual dessert Wednesday, May 28 at the Osburn Hotel. It was for their mothers also. Awards were presented at the banquet.

Willamette High News

The third annual baccalaureate service of Willamette High School will be held Sunday, June 1, at the Bethesda Lutheran church in Danboro. Rev. Ingward Olsen will give the address. The organist is Tom O'Brien.

The high school choir, under the direction of Robert Hemphill, will sing "Be Thou not Still Oh Lord" and "Beautiful Savior."

This class numbers the same as last year's, 50 students—24 girls and 26 boys.

Ushers for the evening are Bob Primrose, George Shephard, Carol Gillenwater, Joan Bond, Yvonne Devereaux, and Helen Johnson, all of the junior class.

The service will begin at 8:15 p.m. (DST).

Class Day will be Tuesday, June 3, with the following morning program: The history will be read by Jerry Enyart. Faye Isaacson, Belva Lee, and Dee Remington will sing popular songs. Presentation of senior gift by Bob Gilbert, senior class president, with acceptance by Laurie Burghardt, student body president elect, will precede a ceremony.
