

KERG Reveals Planning Ideas For Its Popular 'Church Of Air'

Representatives of nine religious groups who comprise the Board of Consultants for CBS Radio's Sunday morning "Church of the Air" unanimously endorsed the program's policy of making air time available to all the major religious groups in the country on a proportional basis, according to their numbers in the general population, during the Board's annual meeting held Wednesday, May 14, to review CBS Radio

Svendsens Off On Big Trip To Middle West

The Rev. and Mrs. H. A. Svendsen of Emmaus Lutheran Church have been given an extensive vacation. They are leaving by auto for the Midwest, June 2nd. By invitation they will participate in the Diamond Jubilee Festival in their first charge, Bethlehem Congregation near Harlan, Iowa. They served this congregation from 1915 to 1925. They also plan to visit relatives and friends in Hutchinson, Minn.; Blair and Seward County, Neb., the latter being the birthplace of Pastor Svendsen, and Luverne, N. D. Pastor Svendsen will attend the Synodical Convention of the United Evangelical Lutheran Church to be held at Albert Lea, Minn., June 17-22, and plans to be back in Eugene by July 2.

The following will fill the pulpit in the absence of Pastor Svendsen: Hans C. Nielsen, member of the congregation; William Smith of the Lutheran Student House, 1376 Alder St.; and Pastor Edwin Svendsen of Corvallis, son of Rev. and Mrs. Svendsen.

Regional Head Of Evangelical To Speak Here

The Rev. George L. Ford, Northwest Regional Director of the National Association of Evangelicals, will be the speaker at the morning service of the Free Methodist Church Sunday, June 1, Springfield. The Rev. Wesley Graves is the pastor of the host church.

Rev. Ford is the director for Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and Wyoming for the N.A.E., which nationally represents over the million persons. The organization serves churches of sixty-five denominations in the area of missions, evangelism, radio and television, world relief, Sunday Schools and other related interests. The 1952 National Sunday School Convention will be held in Portland next October.

Work and Song

COTTAGE GROVE—Christian Science Society, Cottage Grove, will give a free lecture, entitled "Christian Science: Its Work and Song" by Peter B. Biggins, C.S.B. of Seattle, member of the Board of Lectureship of "The Mother Church," the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass., Friday, June 6 at 8 p.m. in Cottage Grove High School Auditorium.

Food Prices Increase

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Government reports Friday show recent increases in retail food and farm prices, department store sales and the amount of money in circulation, but a drop in industrial production.

HERE ARE THE SMOULDERING ruins of the Marcola Methodist Church and parsonage, snapped Monday morning by the pastor, the Rev. Stewart Place. Neighbors of the town fought the fire all night. The standing portion of the ruin is the parsonage; the church formerly stood in the immediate foreground. Services will be held in the Victory Theater; Methodist churches are asked to donate a few Methodist hymnals, and some Sunday school hymnals are also needed; chairs for the primary and junior departments, a few tables, and a piano. Other needs have been met. Practically everything, including the church's antique pulpit Bible was lost in the fire.

Church Work Parties Preparing Sites Of Coming Summer Camps

By VERA HANSEN

THE REV. David Ben White, pastor of the newly organized Harlow Road Presbyterian Church, which "graduates" from Sunday school status this Sunday with its first 11 a.m. church service. The pastor chose "Pentecost" Sunday, the anniversary of the actual founding of the Christian religion, to open the church's career.

Three churches are holding work parties to prepare camps for summer use. Rev. Arthur Hyland is at the Salem location of the Church of God while the Free Methodist Church has a work party this week end at their camp up the McKenzie. They expect to have 40 in camp June 17.

The first constructive project ever given women inmates at Oregon State Prison has been completed with "excellent workmanship" according to a letter sent by Warden Virgil O'Malley to Rev. Leland Nelson, pastor of the Nicholas Gardens Community Church of the Brethren. Twelve dozen garments were supplied by the head church organization with findings furnished by the Springfield Women's Fellowship to the women confined in Salem. O'Malley's letter quoted from the one of thanks he received from Chicago office of the denomination in which it was stated that the clothing would be used in mission work in India.

Planning Is Complete for DVBS, Set For River Road Baptist

RIVER ROAD — The annual Daily Vacation Bible School of River Road Baptist Church will be held Monday, June 16, through Friday, June 27, from 9:30 a.m. (DST) to 12 noon, exclusive of Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Garland Read, superintendent of the school, announces that any child from three and one-half years of age through the seventh grade is invited to attend, and those needing transportation may call Mrs. Lola Tingley, 5-3178.

Four departments of the DVBS will have the stories from the Bible, hymns and other musical numbers, games, art and other handwork. Daily and weekly awards will be given for attendance, bringing new enrollees, etc. and there will be other special treats and prizes. Daily offerings will be used for missionary work to be furthered in Africa next year by Mr. and Mrs. Don (Faye) Smith who will teach native African workers in a school there. On Friday evening, June 27, the closing program will be held with parts taken from the daily workshops, and the special gift offering will be used to defray expenses of the DVBS.

Mrs. E. C. Eickmeyer is superintendent of the nursery which will take children from three and one-half years. Assisting her will be Mrs. Leslie Smith, Mrs. Buford S. Cryder and Mrs. C. Boise.

Mrs. William Telford is superintendent of the beginners department for children of pre-school age and the first grade. Her assistants will be Mrs. Fred Butler, Mrs. Reuben Radabaugh, Mrs. Dan Rehmann, Mrs. George Campbell, Mrs. James Wilcox, Mrs. Harold Beals and Mrs. Myron Bray.

Children of second, third, and fourth grades will be enrolled in the intermediate department with Mrs. Kenneth Steinhauer as superintendent. Her co-workers will be Mrs. Russell Tompkins, Mrs. John Maxwell, Mrs. Walter E. Home, Mrs. E. A. Conant, Mrs. Harvey Betts, Mrs. Arthur E. Bowder, Miss Colleen McMichael and Mrs. Don Read.

Mrs. Kenneth A. Barton will be superintendent of the junior department with these assistants: Mrs. Ralph Harris, Mrs. H. A. Eastman, Mrs. Walter Osborne, and Mrs. Clarence Brennenman. Mrs. Harland Rice is general secretary.

Anyone wishing to furnish transportation for children to and from the school is asked to call Mrs. Tingley, 5-3178.

A Sunday school picnic will be held for all those enrolled in the River Road Baptist Chapel Sunday School and any friends who wish to attend, Saturday, June 14, at Harlow Lodge on the McKenzie River. Potluck lunch will be eaten at 1 p.m. and again in the evening.

Harlow Church Announces Its First Service

HARLOW ROAD — The Presbyterian Church (which meets in the Washington School on Harlow Road) will observe Pentecost Sunday (celebration of the birth of the Christian Church after Christ's death and resurrection) by beginning as of June 1 to hold morning worship services each Sunday at 11 a.m.

The Rev. David Ben White, new pastor, will preach on "The Anchor of the Soul." This new group is anxious to minister to the people of the community in north Eugene and the beginning of church services is a significant step forward," said White Saturday. "A nursery for the children will be provided at church. People of the community are cordially invited."

Pentecost Sunday Is Ancient Rite

By MARGARET BENSTON

This Sunday is an historic anniversary, commemorating through tradition the establishment of the Christian Church. It is known as Pentecost Sunday or Whitsunday. Most of the Eugene churches are recognizing it in the sermon or service.

Most of the churches are busy with vacation Bible School planning right now. Of special interest is the idea working out at Willagillespie Baptist Church, where last year's very successful school is being enlarged on. The principle is to have the whole family. The classes for adults are as various as the talents of local patrons reach — they include such fascinating hobbies as figurine painting, woodworking, brick masonry, cake decorating, etc.

Springfield Reorganized Latter Day Saints will begin a two weeks series of special services to be held at 405 Main Street Monday through Thursday at 7:45 p.m. by Elder Donald Landon. Lectures will be illustrated by colored slides.

The Episcopal Church of St. John the Evangelist was dedicated last Sunday by Rt. Rev. Dr. Benjamin D. Dagwell, Bishop of Oregon. The address for the dedication was made by Venerable Perry H. Smith, Archbishop of Oregon, who organized the Mission two years ago. Nine members were confirmed at the same service. Other dignitaries assisting in the ceremonies were the Rector of Eugene, Rev. Father Ernest S. Bartlam, and the Associate Rector, Rev. Father Edwin W. Hughes and the Rev. Dr. Evan Rowland Williams, Vicar of St. John's. A reception and open house was held after the formalities were concluded.

Presbyterian Men's Club will meet Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Martin, 357 City View Blvd. Mrs. A. B. Goode will speak on photography as a hobby.

Christian Men's Fellowship of the Christian Church will entertain their wives and families with a hamburger fry Wednesday at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernice Manning, 5175 McKenzie Highway. Those who attend are asked to bring a salad or dessert and table service.

Those who have unfilled cars and those wishing transportation are asked to assemble at the church at 6:15 p.m.

Guessing at Bible references and church history clues is of great interest to Bible students. The ministers of course like to come out with cryptic sermon topics that take a little mental work from the layman. This week one of our sharpest Bible students, the Rev. J. Michael Shelley, comes up with two quiz-type sermon topics: "The Chest of Josiah," and "Angels in Charities." We'll spill the beans by revealing the Bible references—Second Kings 12:6-13, and 6:8-18. While browsing through "Kings" you might glance at chapters six and seven—a terrific "news story."

Santa Clara Church of Christ reports 135 registered already for DVBS, and classes do not begin until June 11. The classes will be at the church, all children welcome.

The Springfield and the Eugene Fairmount Presbyterian Church Schools will conduct a Vacation Bible School from June 16 to June 27 in the Fairmount Church building at East 15th and Villard. Children from both districts may attend who are between the ages of four and 11. The leaders will be the pastors and teachers of both schools.

June 9-20 at the Church of God, 23rd and Friendly Sts., will be a busy one for the teachers and pupils interested in the daily vacation Bible school which will convene Monday through Friday on the above dates.

Hannah Borgers, superintendent of the junior department at the Third and Monroe church, will be the director of the school, which will be for all children to 11 years inclusive. Transportation will be furnished from the church at Third and Monroe to take the children to 23rd and Friendly, site of the new church, now nearly completed.

The "Promise Club" will be a feature of the school this year. Students will learn a scripture promise every day. The theme of the school will be "God Keeps His Promise." Handcraft for the different ages will be provided for the children.

There will be a meeting Monday, June 2, 7:30 p.m. of all the officers and committees making arrangements for the "United Crusade" at the Evangelical-United Brethren Church, Monday, June 2 at 7:30 p.m.

The "Crusade," with nationally known Jack Shuler as evangelist, takes place here in August.

Seniors Saluted On Graduation

Seated in a place of special honor during the worship service, young people graduating from the local schools and the university will be honored at the Church of God Sunday morning, June 1. Those receiving graduation honors are Louise Hatfield, Jerry Graham, Margaret Conrad, Eddie McCullough, Marie Swain, Rachel Walker, Sydney Litz, Beverly Haug, Martha Walker, Arlene Westlake.

Four of these graduates plan to attend Pacific Bible College in Portland, a school of higher learning affiliated with the Church of God. In college these young people will train for full time service in religious work.
