

Reno Church Bridal Scene

First Methodist Church in Reno, Nev., was the scene of the wedding of Miss Joan F. Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Phillips, to Virgil E. Arnold, all of Yoncalla, at 12 noon Saturday, May 17. The Rev. Stephen C. Thomas officiated.

The bride wore a white ankle-length wedding gown of net with low neck and long sleeves. Her veil was of similar material. She carried a bridal bouquet of red and white roses, orange blossoms and pink carnations.

Mrs. Vern Dupper of Yoncalla was her sister's only attendant, and Mr. Dupper was best man. She wore an aqua nylon dress with white accessories and a bouquet of gardenias. The church was trimmed with lighted candles and baskets of spring flowers for the service.

About 50 relatives and friends of the family attended a reception for the newlyweds at the Wayne Phillips home in Hayhurst Valley near Yoncalla. Mrs. Ray Atkinson, aunt of the bridegroom, cut the wedding cake, and Mrs. Robert Hoagland poured. A sister of the groom, Mrs. Dallas Bragg, mother of the bride, Mrs. Harold Phillips, and the hostess, Mrs. Wayne Phillips, served.

The reception room was decorated with spring flowers, and on the bride's table, large candles flanked the tiered wedding cake.

The couple is now at home in Yoncalla. The bride has lived most of her life there, and both she and the groom were graduated from Yoncalla High School in 1951. He works in logging operations there.

Sutherlin Girl Married

SUTHERLIN — Miss Ruth Magill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Magill of Sutherlin, was married to James P. Gorman son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gorman of Conway, Mo., in a double-ring ceremony, April 13. The rite took place in Christadelphian House of Worship, at Pasadena, Calif., with the Rev. Maurice Stewart officiating.

The church was decorated with palms and baskets of white flowers, and calla lilies. Approximately 200 were in attendance.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white marquisette. A tiara of white satin and tulle held her hairloom veil of hand-embroidered white silk tulle. She carried a crescent-shaped bouquet of white carnations, gardenias, and stephanotis. The bride's only jewelry was a necklace of crystal and amethyst belonging to her mother.

Mrs. David Livingston of Santa Barbara, cousin of the bride, was her matron of honor. She wore a yellow taffeta gown and carried a matching tiara in her hair.

Carrying the rings in the center of two roses were Judith Lea and Rebecca Jane Magill, sisters of the bride. The former wore lavender dimity over matching taffeta and the latter wore a similar dress of turquoise.

Best man was David Livingston, and ushers were George Patterson of Pomona and James Magill, brother of the bride.

Organist was Mrs. Robert Cocke of Chino, who accompanied Ben Stark of Whittier, as he sang "Through the Years," and
