

Korean Officials' Terms Extended
National Assemblymen Try to Solve Crisis

PUSAN, Korea — (U.P.) — The National Assembly temporarily suspended the terms of its chairmen and two vice-chairmen Wednesday in a move to help solve the Korean political crisis.

Supporters and opponents of President Syngman Rhee joined in a near-unanimous vote to keep him in office. P. H. Shinicky and Chairman Kim Dong Song and Cho Bong An in office.

THE ACTION came shortly after Sin Chung Kyun, a top-ranking Korean employee of the U.S. State Dept., returned to his post after being missing for 36 hours. He had been to "see my father," but anti-Rhee assemblymen said he hid out to avoid being arrested "for political activities."

American authorities had suspected his absence was connected with a re-broadcast of the Voice of America program in South Korea. Sin helped prepare local news programs and translated the world news into Korean for the national assemblymen.

THE RHEE faction joined the assembly in renaming three chief officers, whose terms expired Wednesday, apparently because it needs the help of Rhee's opponents in solving the crisis.

Third Party Threatened

DENVER, Colo. — (U.P.) — The chairman of the Eisenhower campaign in Colorado said Tuesday that if Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower should fail to receive a "fair deal" at the July 7 Republican National Convention in Chicago, he should consider seeking the presidency on a new, third party ticket.

M. M. Pexton said he "certainly would feel released" from supporting any other Republican candidate who might get the nomination through "railroading" tactics.

He emphasized he made the statement as an individual and not as a representative of the Eisenhower campaign headquarters.

Eisenhower got down to practicalities Tuesday by beginning a series of conferences with Republican delegates from eight western states, Colorado, Wyoming and Utah delegations were first on the agenda.

Methodists Meet

PORTLAND — (U.P.) — The centennial conference of Oregon Methodists opened here Tuesday. The Rev. Orval M. Whitman reported a gain of 2,214 members since 1951 conference. Bishop George Kennedy will close the six-day conference Friday by reading of ministerial appointments.
