By United Press

Baseball's newest curfew law came in for a howl of protest from weary but still enthusiastic St. Louis Browns fans, who were deprived of setting in on a history-making event when an 18-inning battle with the Senators was called a 5-5 tie at 1:04 Saturday morning.

The finish provided nothing but frustration and the game will have to be replayed in its entirety since the league rule on games suspended by a curfew throws out all extra-inning battles.

THE GAME DID WIND UP as the longest tie-battle in night game history in the majors, but it proved nothing else, except that whenever the Browns and Senators get together this year, things are likely to be tedious.

The rules provide that no inning can start after 12:50 a.m. (local time) and the Browns wound up their 18th time at bat at 1:04. Egeless and indestructible Satchel Paige went 10 scoreless innings and gave up five hits before Dave Madison took over to hurl the 18th.

WHAT WAS REMARKABLE about it was that on June 3 the same teams had battled 17 innings in Washington as Paige finally came through with a 3-2 decision, just inside the 12:50 a.m. curfew. Prior to this year there was no deadline and in 1951 there was a 16-inning battle in which the White Sox topped the Red Sox. The way things were, this one probably would have gone longer.

Washington tied the score at 5-5 with two runs in the eighth when Paige came in and cut off the scoring. Joe Haynes, who pitched scoreless ball from the fourth until the 11th, and Sandy Consuegra who blanked the Browns the rest of the way, shared the frustration for Washington. Before the pitchers took over, Eddie Yost and Ken Wood homered for Washington and Bob Nieman homered for St. Louis.

THE WHITE SOX BATTLED to an 11-inning, 8-5 victory over the Yankees, decided on a three-run homer by Sam Mele. The win put Chicago three games out of first place. It was Chicago's first triumph over the Yankees this year, after seven defeats. Yogi Berra homered for New York.

The Indians snapped a six-game losing streak against Boston, 9-2, as Bob Lemon pitched five-hit ball and got three hits, including a homer. Jim Fridley and Larry Doby also homered.

The Athletics topped the Tigers 3-1 at Detroit on the eight-hit pitching of Harry Byrd as Gus Zernial and Ferris Fain drove in the marginal runs with singles.

THINGS WERE A LITTLE calmer, but not much, in the National League as the Dodgers and Giants both won last-ditch struggles. Brooklyn stayed five games in front by topping the Pirates, 5-4 in the last of the ninth on a two-run pinch-hit homer by Shotgun Shubert, while Whitey Lockman plunked a line drive double into center in the 10th to give the Giants a 4-3 victory over the Cubs.

The Braves made 10 runs in the sixth to top the Cardinals, 12-7 even though the losers bounced back to score all of their runs in the seventh. Robin Roberts pitched the Phils to a three-hit, 3-1 victory over the Reds as Del Ennis supplied a two-run homer and Hank Edwards ruined Roberts' shutout with a Cincy homer.

COAST NETTERS REACH Tourney Semi-Finals

KANSAS — (AP) — A couple of Pacific Coast players, fifth seeded Larry Huebner of UCLA and non-seeded Cliff Mayne of the University of California stroked their way into the semi-finals of the Heart of America tennis tournament Friday.

Bill Quillian, University of Washington, trounced Art Andrews of Iowa City, Ia., 6-1, 6-2 in a junior boys' semi-finals match.

Musial Leads Batting Parade

NEW YORK — (AP) — The National League batting race snapped back to normal this week as five-time champion Stan Musial of the Cardinals took his usual place at the top.

Musial, trying for his third straight batting crown and his sixth since 1943, edged into first place midway in the week, and official averages, which included Thursday's day games, gave him an eight-point edge on Jackie Robinson of the Dodgers. Musial was hitting .336, Robinson .328.

MUSIAL MADE A SLOW start. He was batting .301 midway in May but has gained steadily since. While Musial and Robinson, two of the majors' best hitters, took over the top spots, home run hitter Hank Sauer of the Cubs ran into a slump and slipped from first to sixth. His average dropped from .345 to .316 since last week.

Whitey Lockman of the Giants was third with a .324 average. Frank Baumholtz of the Cubs was next with .321 and Toby Atwell of the Cubs was fifth with .318.

THE AMERICAN LEAGUE race also began to settle down as the four top batters remained unchanged from last week. Dom DiMaggio of the Red Sox picked up one point to hold first place with a .338 mark. His new teammate, George Kell, added four points to boost his runner-up average to .330. Al Rosen of Cleveland kept his third place average at .328 and Billy Goodman of the Red Sox picked up eight points to hold fourth place with .323.

Dale Mitchell of the Indians jumped from 10th to fifth by boosting his average 13 points to .316. He replaced Eddie Robinson of the White Sox, who slid to sixth with .307.

Although his average dropped, Sauer continued to lead the majors in homers with 19 and in runs-batted-in with 60. Vic Wertz of the Tigers led the American League in home runs with 13. Rosen led in runs-batted-in with 41.

Gunners Await PITA Meeting

YAKIMA — (AP) — Headed by Arnold Riegger of Kelso, 150 western gunners will compete in the state Pacific International Trapshooting Association shoot here June 27-29.

Practice rounds will be fired Thursday, the day before the official launching of the first clay bird. Opening day will feature the 200-yard 16-yard event and the doubles.

Ed Scott, PITA president, said shooters were expected from Oregon, Idaho, Washington and California. Riegger is generally regarded as America's greatest trap-shooter.

Von Poppenheim Must Meet Dusette, Mackay

Kurt Von Poppenheim, who "cllobbered" Toi Yamato at the Armory arena last week to get a title shot at Rogers Mackay, will be risking his chance at the coast junior heavy title by meeting Georges Dusette Saturday night, Mackay, with a shoulder injury, will not make his local debut until next week.

Von Popp and Dusette will be the headliners this week and the talented French-Canadian is quite capable of upsetting the so-called "Proud Prussian."

There will be two other matches on the wrestling show, opening at 8:30 p.m. with Jack Lipscomb meeting Buck Weaver in a one-fall skirmish. Frenchie Roy will furnish the opposition for a highly-touted newcomer in the semi-final feature—Johnny Demchuck, fleet-footed veteran who will be making his inaugural local appearance.

Demos Defeat Republicans 6-3 At Washington

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Democratic Congressmen defeated their Republican colleagues 6-3 Friday night in the annual Congressional baseball game and promptly claimed it meant victory for the Democrats in November.

It was the fourth straight victory for the Democrats in the traditional puffing match between the representatives that originated 40 years ago.

The five-inning game—a Congressional limit—drew 1,551 customers.

The Republican team included Rep. Tollefson of Washington. He was at bat twice and didn't get a hit.

Martinez Wins Ring Decision

NEW YORK — (AP) — Vince Martinez, an electric-appliance draftsman of Paterson, N.J., was welcomed warmly to big-time boxing Saturday because of his electrifying victory over middleweight Sammy Giuliani in their television bout at Madison Square Garden.

Vince's explosive right fist earned the unanimous 10-round decision Friday night over wild-looking Giuliani of Stamford, Conn., who was floored once and staggered several times.

Matchmaker Al Weill said he would try to pair Martinez with the winner of the return bout between Chuck Davey and Chico Vejar, scheduled for Detroit June 25. The Martinez match would be staged in Detroit or Chicago.

Martinez, 23, is a welterweight who was slightly over-stuffed Friday night at 151 pounds. Giuliani, 20, registered 154 1/2.

Handsome, rangy Martinez—who never had fought more than six rounds before—was tired but still terrific in the late rounds; and he brought the "studio" crowd of only 2,938 to its feet several times as he threatened to knock out swingin' Sammy—or get belted out himself.

Ruling Stops Open Champ

BY GAYLE TALBOT
NEW YORK — (AP) — There is little hope that the average golfer will ever understand the five-year apprenticeship rule with which Julius Boros, the new Open champion, collided, and which eventually caused the Connecticut PGA title event at Louisville.

In recent days he has been advised perhaps a dozen times that the statute so zealously defended by the professionals is silly and out-moded and have been asked the same number of times why we didn't take the hide off the PGA without anaesthetic, for permitting it to remain on their books.

A comparative unknown, the big fellow slipped in to win the Open at Dallas after Ben Hogan, the favorite, faltered in the closing rounds. It was discovered within a matter of minutes that Julius had been a pro for only a couple of years and would not, therefore, be eligible to compete in the PGA.

Portlander Captures Junior Golf Crown

PORTLAND — (AP) — Bob Donnelly, a recent graduate of Grand High School here, defeated Lloyd Eckhardt, a former teammate, 3 and 2, Friday to win the Oregon Golf Association's junior golf championship.

Gary Hval won the boys' championship by defeating Roger Sielicky on the fourth extra hole. The two, both Portlanders, were tied at the end of the regulation 36.

Sue DeVoe won the girls' title with a 2 and 1 victory over Ann Quast of Marysville, Wash.

Two Eugene boys lost out in final rounds, Keith Gubrud lost 3-2 to Jack Holman in the fifth flight in the junior division and Mike Starr lost 3-2 to Mike Kane of Waverley in the ninth flight of the boys' division.

Hollywood Goes To First Place In Coast League

Stars Outscore San Diego Padres

COAST LEAGUE	W	L	Pct.
Hollywood	47	32	.595
San Diego	44	33	.569
Oakland	41	37	.526

Friday's Results:
Sacramento 2, San Francisco 0
Los Angeles 6, Portland 1
Hollywood 5, San Diego 1
Oakland 12, Seattle 5

SAN FRANCISCO — (AP) — Jim Walsh, a young righthander with jerky pitching motions, was an old sweetheart Saturday to fans of the Hollywood Stars.

He unwound a six-hitter Friday night to beat San Diego 5-1 and pry the Padres from first place in the Pacific Coast League.

Wise Frank (Lefty) O'Doul, who managed the bordertown boys to the top spot April 17th, had held the Pacific Coast League leadership for more than two months. But Walsh wiped out O'Doul's surprise showing with a minimum effort.

JAUNTY JIM went ahead before he even pitched one baseball. The Stars scored for him in the top of the first, Monte Basgall coming home on the front end of a double steal. Lou Stringer's throw to catch Basgall at the plate hit the Hollywood infielder in the back.

The race for the PCL pennant tightened as third-place Oakland trounced Seattle 12-5 to advance to within 5 1/2 games of the lead. Los Angeles, in fifth place seven games back, whipped Portland 6-1 and cellar-stationed Sacramento, 14 1/2 tilts away, defeated San Francisco 4-0 on Ken Gables' four-hit tossing.

TOOKIE GILBERT, Oakland's first baseman on option from the New York Giants, batted home five runs, two with a homer, in an 11-hit attack on three Seattle pitchers. Pete Milne rapped his third homer of the campaign with two aboard in the third, highlighting the Oaks' game-winning six-run inning.

Lefty Roger Bowman, making his first start for the Oaks, came in a winner, though he was in the shower room when the game ended. Bowman is one of the players optioned to the Oaks in the deal that sent Hal Gregg to the New York Giants.

ANGEL EDDIE CHANDLER would have blanked Portland, but the Bevos have a guy named Don Eggert who couldn't see things that way. One of the six hitters' third four-staffer in as many outings.

Gables followed the pattern set Thursday night by Lefty Glenn Elliott, who blanked the Seals with a four-hitter. The round righthander was latched in a 0-0 duel with Seal Bill Bevens until the eighth, when Eddie Bockman squeezed home one run and Bill Glynn singled home the second.

Bevens, an original hard-luck guy, worked a five-hitter for his sixth loss in seven decisions.

MINNEAPOLIS — (AP) — Don Nichols, and his buddy, Sam Sadler, runner-up, headed Saturday for Lafayette, Ind., where they will compete in the NCAA tourney which opens Tuesday.

The two 19-year-old youths, both from Kansas, battled each other for the 35th Western Junior title Friday, and Nichols came out on top 4 to 3.

Displaying a cool, deliberate game, Nichols went ahead of Sadler to stay after the 10th hole. Sadler, who had scorched the course during the first three days of the tourney which attracted 99 under-20 golfers from 15 states, lost his touch completely after the 10th.

Sedgman, Rose Reach London Net Finals

LONDON — (AP) — Australian Frank Sedgman defeated Irv Dorfman of New York, 6-1, 6-2 Friday to gain the final round in the London tennis championships.

Sedgman will play Merv Rose, Australia, who defeated Ken McGregor, another Australian, 6-4, 6-4 Friday.

Upsets Highlight PGA Golf Meet As Favorites Fall by the Wayside

Betsy Rawls Defeats Suggs

CHICAGO — (AP) — Hot-putting Betsy Rawls, nipped three-time champion Louise Suggs 2 and 1, and relentless Betty Jameson trimmed the lone surviving amateur, 19-year-old Barbara Romack 4 and 3, in Friday's rain-drenched semi-finals of the Women's Western Open golf tourney.

Miss Rawls, the meet medalist from Austin, Tex., and Miss Jameson of San Antonio, Tex., were scheduled to face one another Saturday in a 36-hole, all-Texas championship battle at Skokie Country Club.

Miss Jameson, who won the 1942 Western Open, uncorked a fine short game to turn back Miss Romack, the game youngster from Sacramento, Calif., who won only one hole, the ninth.

Twice before in the Western Open, Misses Jameson and Rawls have clashed, Betsy winning both times—with a 5 and 4 victory in 1950's second round, and 1 up in 1949 when Betsy lost in the title round to Miss Suggs.

SOCE Unveils Grid Schedule

ASHLAND — (AP) — An eight-game football schedule listing all four members of the Oregon Collegiate Conference as opponents was released Saturday by officials of Southern Oregon College of Education here.

However, Dr. Elmo Stevenson, president of the college, said SOCE will not hold official status in the conference, but will remain in the Far Western Conference for the present.

However, he pointed to recurring rumors that the University of Nevada and Sacramento State College will seek admission to the Far Western circuit. If they are admitted, SOCE might drop out.

The eight game schedule: Sept. 12, Linfield at McMinnville; Sept. 27, Eastern Oregon College at Ashland; Oct. 4, Oregon College of Education at Coos Bay; Oct. 11, Humboldt State College at Arcata; Oct. 18, Chico State College at Chico; Oct. 25, Oregon Technical Institute at Klamath Falls; Nov. 1, Portland State College at Ashland; Nov. 8, California Aggies at Ashland.

Wasley Leads WIL Batters

CHICAGO — (AP) — Outfielder Mel Wasley of Spokane is back in first place among Western International league hitters with a stout .352 average.

Howe News Bureau statistics showed Saturday the 33-year-old baseball veteran also was leading in runs batted in with 47. The statistics included games of June 16, except Salem at Vancouver and Tri-City at Victoria.

Behind Wasley in hitting were Walt Pockeay, Wenatchee catcher who was leading last week, .347, and Cece Garriott, Victoria, .348. Charlie Oubre of Wenatchee and Cal Melvyn of Victoria were the pitching leaders, each with eight wins and two losses.

Don Nichols Wins Western Golf Crown

MINNEAPOLIS — (AP) — Don Nichols, and his buddy, Sam Sadler, runner-up, headed Saturday for Lafayette, Ind., where they will compete in the NCAA tourney which opens Tuesday.

The two 19-year-old youths, both from Kansas, battled each other for the 35th Western Junior title Friday, and Nichols came out on top 4 to 3.

Displaying a cool, deliberate game, Nichols went ahead of Sadler to stay after the 10th hole. Sadler, who had scorched the course during the first three days of the tourney which attracted 99 under-20 golfers from 15 states, lost his touch completely after the 10th.

LONDON — (AP) — Australian Frank Sedgman defeated Irv Dorfman of New York, 6-1, 6-2 Friday to gain the final round in the London tennis championships.

Snead, Harrison Lose First-Day Tourney Duels

LOUISVILLE, Ky. — (AP) — Defending champion Sam Snead and medalist E. J. "Dutch" Harrison were blown to the sidelines Friday in a cyclone of upsets that swept the opening rounds of the PGA golf championships.

It was another "Black Friday," the worst first-carnage for the titans since 1947 when Ben Hogan, Sam Snead, Jimmy Demaret and Bobby Locke fell in one thunderous lump.

Three former PGA champions—Chandler Harper, Jim Ferrier and Denny Shute—were cut down during the long day of double eliminations, along with Lloyd Mangrum, 1946 national open king; graying Lawson Little, one of the giants of the '30s; and Jack Burke Jr., season's leading money winner.

OUT OF THE DEBRIS emerged tall Dr. Cary Middlecoff of Memphis as the No. 1 remaining favorite in Saturday's field of 16, generously scattered with little known home pros.

Snead bowed to Lew Worsham, Oakmont, Pa., pro, on the 19th hole.

Then, Worsham went out in the afternoon to lose to rangy Fred Hass of New Orleans, one up, in the second round.

HARRISON, 42-YEAR-OLD Arkansas traveler, succumbed to Marty Furgol of Atlanta, two up, thus upholding the ancient tradition that medalist never wins the championship.

A little 32-year-old pro named Ted Kroll produced two of the major victories over Big Springs' unbaked, par 72 course.

A former infantry sergeant who fought on the beaches at Anzio, Kroll first eliminated Little, one up, and then staged a great comeback behind battle to trip the heavily-favored Mangrum, 2 up. Against Mangrum, Kroll won the last four holes, two in birdies.

HARPER, SLENDER SWINGER from Portsmouth, Va., who won the PGA two years ago, played six-under-par golf to win 6 and 5 from Charles Larpe of Doylestown, Pa. Then, Harper bowed to the veteran Jim Turnesa of Briarcliff Manor, N. Y., 3 and 1.

Jim Ferrier, who survived the 1947 carnage of Plum Hollow, had to go 19 holes to beat Leonard Dodson of Mission, Kans., in the morning, but it took all the sting from his game.

He lost in the second round, one up, to Ray Honsberger, a jowly 42-year-old little known pro from Clarkston, Wash., playing in his first PGA.

HONSBERGER HAD WON HIS first round match in the morning, scoring a one up victory over Tom Blaskovich of Connelville, Pa. He was scheduled to meet Kroll Saturday morning.

The only other Pacific Northwest campaigner fell in first round play. He was Frank Newell Jr., of Tacoma, Wash., who dropped a 4 and 3 decision to Mangrum.

Jack Burke, after beating Jimmy Walkup of Midlothian, Ill., in the first round, lost to Argentinian's Roberto de Vicenzo, one up, in the afternoon.

Rulings Limit Boxing Titles

NEW YORK — (AP) — Sugar Ray Robinson must automatically surrender his middleweight championship Monday night if he wins the light-heavyweight title from Joey Maxim, according to rulings made Friday by the New York Boxing Commission and the National Boxing Association.

Robinson expressed surprise but no great disappointment. However, he was pleased when informed that odds-makers had at last made him the favorite at 6-5.

AT HIS TRAINING camp in Pompton Lakes, N. J., Sugar Ray expressed surprise at the New York commission's ruling, because he said his handlers had been assured by Chairman Robert K. Christenberry that he would be given time to decide which title he wanted to keep.

Robinson said the assurance was given over the telephone "in my presence."

It was apparent at Friday's commission meeting that Christenberry had been overruled by his fellow commissioners, Dr. Cillian Powell and Leon Swears. Dr. Powell said, "I believe firmly we should uphold our rule that prevents one man from holding two or more titles." He said Commissioner Swears was of the same opinion. Swears was not present.

AT PATERSON, N. J., Commissioner Abe J. Greene of the National Boxing Association said Robinson must surrender the 160-pound title automatically if he lifts the 175-pound crown from Max Baumbach.

Both he and Christenberry agreed, however, that Sugar Ray would still be regarded as a top middleweight contender who could fight the winner of a middleweight elimination tournament, in case he decided to give up the light-heavy crown and try to recapture the middleweight championship. The 10 leading 160-pounders would participate in the tourney.

Castle Airman Wins Pacific Tennis Crown

SACRAMENTO, Calif. — (AP) — Robert W. Hall, A/2C from Castle Air Force base, won the singles of the finals in the Pacific Tennis Conference at McClellan Air Force Base Friday.

Hall, representing the Northern Division, took a 6-2, 1-6, 6-1 win over A/3C Bernard J. Dawkins from Parks AFB.

When asked how he plans to handle his constabulary duties—if elected—from long range, the court ace smiled and said: "I just wanted to see how many votes I can get."

Lawrence Throws Hat Into Constable Race

LAWRENCE, Kans. — (AP) — Clyde Lovellette, All-American Kansas University basketball player and a member of the United States 1952 Olympic cage squad, is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Lawrence Township constable in the coming elections.

When asked how he plans to handle his constabulary duties—if elected—from long range, the court ace smiled and said: "I just wanted to see how many votes I can get."
