At Lowell

LOWELL—Chicken Cafe by Lowell Bridge changed hands this week with Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hickey, the new business lease owners.

Mr. and Mrs. Hickey recently operated Gay's Fountain Lunch on E. 11th Ave., Eugene. They also have operated a restaurant at Coos Bay. They are living in a trailer house near the cafe.

There are four children in the family and the older ones help at the cafe. Voda Michelle is only three years old. Clyde Jr., will be in the third grade; Lloyd will be a high school sophomore and Jerry graduated from Eugene High this last term.

Another cafe which has new management is the Recreation Restaurant on Moss St. in uptown Lowell. Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Richards, who came from Reedsport, have leased the entire large building and are using the former "read room" for living quarters. Their one daughter is married and living elsewhere.

Utah Construction Co. has vacated the office building on Moss St. which they occupied. It is owned by Gilmore Realty Co. of Eugene.

At Coburg

COBURG—One of the principal issues, which was much discussed at the school mass meeting for voters, Monday evening, was the sum of $5,000, which is now in the general budget, but may be transferred to the building fund or the school bus fund. Voting on the issue takes place, 8 p.m. standard time, Monday, June 30, at the school. All eligible voters in School District No. 43 are urged to turn out and vote.

Another item discussed at length was the providing of a parking space around the school baseball diamond. Clare Hamlin, architect, is working on plans for it.

Willing Workers Club meets 1:30 p.m. (DST) Tuesday, June 24 in the Armitage Park for a picnic.

Persons submitting news are reminded that given names or initials are necessary as well as the last name. In listing married women and widows, please give the husband's given name or initials. An unmarried woman must have her given name preceding her last name. Mrs. or Miss is not sufficient.

AT YONCALLA YONCALLA—Mrs. LaVelle Irvin of Madras, Ore., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Web Huntington, and sister, Mrs. Bernice Radtke. Mrs. Lila Jean Boggs and two children of Dalles, Ore., are also guests at the Huntington home.

Mrs. Al Hoffman returned home from a two weeks visit with relatives in Kingston, Ill., and she and Mr. Hoffman have gone to Corvallis, where both will attend summer school.

Mrs. Gertrude Stoute joined a group of 20 teachers at Spokane, Wash., and they will make a 25-day tour to Washington, D. C., Philadelphia, Buffalo, Niagara Falls, and Detroit before returning home.
