Make Conserves, Marmalades From Early Fall Fruits

Freestone peaches, Bartlett pears, and Italian prunes — are parading right from the fresh fruit markets onto storage shelves in the form of jams, marmalades and jellies. While fresh fruits are available in quantity, it is time for the homemaker to think ahead to winter. It means that summer sparkle can be captured for meals the year 'round.

These three fruits make excellent jams and preserves which will be your favorites on your conserve shelf.

Freestone peaches combine with raisins in this one to give a flavor combination supreme. Try serving Peach Raisin Medley as a meat accompaniment for a delightful treat.

Peach Raisin Medley

4 cups chopped freestone peaches
1 cup raisins
1 tsp. grated onion rind
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup chopped filberts
2 cups sugar
Combine all ingredients except nuts in large saucepan. Place over high heat, bring to a boil; turn down heat. Cook until conserve thickens, about a half hour. Add nuts during the last five minutes of cooking. Pour into hot sterilized jars and seal immediately. Yields 3 half-pint jars.

Pear Conserve

2 quarts Bartlett pear slices
6 cups sugar
2 oranges, cut in 1/8ths, then in thin slices
3 tbs. lemon juice
3 tbs. candied ginger
1/2 cup chopped nuts (filberts)
Wash, peel and quarter pears, removing cores, then slice in thin slices. It will require 5 to 6 pounds to make 2 quarts. Put in glass bowl and cover with sugar. Let stand overnight. Next day add orange slices, lemon juice and finely cut ginger pieces and bring to boil. Cook slowly until mixture thickens. Five minutes before removing from heat, add nuts. Ladle into clean, hot half-pint jars and seal at once. Makes 6 half-pints. Delicious jam is always in demand.

mand. Prune Orange Jam is sure to please. One which can be used in tart or muffin to give them a flair.

Prune Orange Jam

6 cups ripe Italian prunes, quartered
1/4 cup water
5 cups sugar
1 tbs. grated orange rind
1/2 cup chopped filberts or walnuts
1 box powdered fruit pectin
Measure sugar to be added later. Wash, pit and quarter Italian prunes. Add water and simmer for 5 minutes. Measure 4 cups of cooked prunes. Combine grated orange rind and filberts or walnuts with cooked prunes. Place over high heat and stir in pectin. Bring to a boil. Add sugar all at once and stir it in. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil for one minute stirring constantly. Remove from heat and stir for three minutes. Pour into hot sterilized jars at once and seal. Makes about 4 half-pint jars.

CITY BARS WHITE MICE

MT. CLEMENS, Mich. (AP)—This city got a vital industry when Gerald Schmitt moved out into the country. He raised white mice and sold 1,000 a month to scientific laboratories and hospitals for experimental purposes. When neighbors complained, the city commission told him he would have to give up his mice or move out of town.
