Survives Channel Smash

Two British tankers hauled the 37-ton American Liberty ship, the Farmer, from the English Channel early in the morning after a Norwegian tanker, the Wendell, was sunk.

The Farmer was being towed by the Wendell when the latter was struck by a German U-boat. The Farmer was damaged but all safe—at this point the Farmer was towed to the port of Southampton.

Oregonian Columnist Leaving Newspaper

PORTLAND (AP) — William Moyes, Oregonian columnist for many years, said he was leaving the newspaper to accept a position "affording a larger field."

Moyes, who wrote the column "Behind the Mike," left on a vacation and said his first stop was Chicago. He gave no further details.

Through a radio column, Moyes commented, sometimes caustically, on a wide variety of subjects.

The Oregonian said plans for continuing the column would be announced later.

Actor, Actress Divorced

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — English Actress Patricia Medina, 29, Wednesday received her final divorce from Actor Richard Greene, 32, in superior court. Miss Medina last year received an interlocutory divorce decree on charges Greene was moody, indifferent, humiliating, and insulting. The Greens were married in London.
