

Labor Day Finds Churches 'Quiet'

By MARGARET BENSTON

Labor Day weekend finds the churches in a lull, the "storm" of fall activity. Many ministers are away on trips and vacations. Building programs rushed to completion, Church of the Nazarene is in their new building very soon. Presbyterian Church is observing Labor Day, by having Ray McInnis, prominent local labor leader, on labor's problems and viewpoint. . . . Week-end instruction in the schools is getting started for the season. The Rev. Wilma I. Perry, pastor of the Church of God, is their chairman, and she reports much work and big plans from the first meeting of the Council of Religious Education, sponsor. . . . Dr. J. B. Brouger is here Sunday! River Road Baptist Church is the place. He is a famed humorist. . . . Recognition Synod of the Lutheran denomination, who are another young minister, Sunday—Robert E. Kunz of Cottage Grove Trinity Lutheran Church.

Church Honors Age-Bound Student Laymen

Church of God has honored age-bound students in a special way this past month. All will be "farewell Sunday" these "college" kids. The Pacific Bible College, where Sydney Litz, Marie Schaefer and Mariellen Westlake, will return to school at PBC. Verl Moore is bound at the Commercial School in Portland; Violet returns to Monmouth to continue her training; Marjorie leaves for Anderson and Barbara Pegles to Fla.

Blanche Seekins of New graduate of PBC, comes to be supervisor of week day school. She will succeed Miss Herman who has served the Religious Education Council supervisor of the weekday school for the past four Wilma I. Perry is preaching "What Will Cure Sleeping" in the morning service. Hoover and Bob Andersen of the Jack Shuler little party, will be guests Sunday morning service.

Church School Work Started

Eugene Council of Religious Education has high hopes for work which they will do this year in the week day school program. The school whose membership consists of the pastor and two laymen of every church in Eugene is a democratic organization plans to work alongside the school administrators and with other civic groups in guiding the lives of the community.

Executive council held its meeting in the First Methodist Church last week and laid out their religious education plan. The following communicants are the members of executive council. Elected officers: Rev. Wilma I. Perry, of the Church of God, president; Rev. Monteith Whitcomb, River Road Baptist, vice-chairman; Mrs. W. H. H. teacher of religious education in Northwest Christian Church; secretary; and Bernard H. business man and employee of First National Bank.

Finance committee will be headed by Wally Mull, grocery store. Eugene. The week day school chairman will be H. Nordling who served in capacity last year. The leadership committee will be headed by Dorothy Harding, religious education director of the Methodist Church and Leslie teacher at Willamette will serve as chairman of publicity and relations committee.

General council of religious education will hold its first meeting this year at the YMCA on evening Sept. 4, 7:30 p.m. Duane Muth, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, who is president of the Eugene Ministry Association will serve as an advisor member of the Council of Religious Education.

There was seldom attempt to reach Middle Ages because of that pestilence spread of water.

STROMBERG CARBURETORS
Parts and Service
CLARK
TERRY & ELECTRIC CO.
101 6th Ave., Phone 4-2319

ANO STUDIO
ADVANCED STUDENTS
ALSO: EVANGELISTIC SINGING CHURCH MUSIC
E. Smith—Ph. 5-3596

TRA NOURISHMENT
EACH GLASS OF

SPRING MILK

Delivery dial 8-0887

Spring Dairy

Jehovah's Witnesses Convene This Week; Study World Unity

CORVALLIS—The Watchtower Bible and Tract Society of New York will sponsor a three-day assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses in Corvallis, Ore., Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 5 to 7. The convention, which will be held in the Coliseum on the Oregon State College campus, is for Bible instruction, spokesman for the group announced today.

All three days of the assembly will consist of morning, afternoon and evening sessions of Bible talks, discussions and demonstrations of methods. All of these meetings are open to the public without charge. Upwards of 5,000 delegates are expected to attend from 75 congregations throughout the state of Oregon, Southern Washington, Central Idaho and Northern California. The feature of the three-day assembly will be a public address at 3 p.m., Sunday, Sept. 7, on the subject, "World Unity—Is It Just a Dream?"

Hi, Dr. Brouger; Welcome "Home"

Dr. J. Whitcomb Brouger, Sr., of Glendale, Calif., well-known minister, author, and humorist, will speak Sunday, Aug. 31, 11 a.m., at River Road Baptist Chapel, in the absence of the pastor, the Rev. W. M. Whitwell, on vacation.

His subject: "Love That Cannot Be Divorced." Dr. Brouger is on a speaking tour of the coast, and comes here from a speaking engagement in Portland.

While in Eugene he will visit his cousin, Fred Brouger and family, members of River Road Chapel.

Dr. Brouger and his two minister sons, Dr. Russel M. and J. Whitcomb Jr. have been coming to Eugene for a number of years

Lutheran Minister to Be Installed at Cottage Grove

Robert E. Kunz will be ordained and installed as pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, Seventh and Quincy, Cottage Grove, Ore., during a special service Sunday, Aug. 31 at 3:30 p.m. Members and friends of Trinity Lutheran Church are cordially invited to the service.

The Rev. E. D. Busch, pastor of Hope Lutheran Church, 14th and B Sts., Springfield, Ore., will perform the rite of ordination and installation, assisted by other Lutheran pastors of the surrounding cities. The sermon will be given by Pastor Busch.

Following the ordination and installation service, an informal reception will be given for the new pastor and his wife to which the members and friends of the congregation are also invited. Kunz accepted the call to serve and speaking at Baptist churches. J. Jr. and his family are vacationing as usual at Seaside. He is noted as an humorist, and a great friend of Will Rogers with whom he often appeared on the platform, when they held humorous debates for charity. Dr. Brouger is grand chaplain emeritus of the Royal Arch Masons, and he also is past eminent grand prelate of the Knights of Templar in California. "Man of a Million Jokes," and knows how to tell them.

The continuous mining machine wraps up in one cycle mechanized coal mining's traditional four steps of cutting, drilling, blasting and loading.

as pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church shortly after his graduation in June from Concordia Seminary, Springfield, Ill., a Lutheran Theological School affiliated with the Lutheran Church—Missouri Synod. He and his wife arrived by car from Springfield, Ill., early this past week.

He was born in North Dakota, but spent most of his life in San Diego, Calif. He served in the Army Air Force as an Air Crew trainee. After attending San Diego State College for almost a year, he decided to enter the ministry of the Lutheran Church. He enrolled at Concordia Theological Seminary in Springfield, Ill., in 1946. During his theological training Kunz received some first-hand experience in the work of the ministry as a vicar in Columbia, West Columbia and Camden, South Carolina under the supervision of John Nau, son of the famous Dr. Henry Nau of India Mission fame. Kunz was married in 1949. He graduated from Concordia Seminary in June of this year.

Kunz will assume the duties of his Lutheran parish immediately. He will conduct his first service at Trinity Lutheran Church, 7th and Quincy, Sept. 11 at 11 a.m. Sunday school will begin at 10 a.m.

During the morning worship on Aug. 31, at 9 a.m., the guest speaker will be the Rev. Richard E. Gross, former pastor of Trinity Lutheran Church, but now pastor of Calvary Lutheran Church, Coos Bay, Ore., and pastor of Grace Lutheran Church, North Bend, Oregon.

Two Special Topics Draw Listeners to "Church of the Air"

Elder Clifford E. Young, assistant to the Council of the Twelve Apostles of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, and a prominent western business and civic leader will give the address on the first half of CBS Radio's "Church of the Air" Sunday, Aug. 31, 7-7:30 a.m., on KERF.

He has chosen as his topic: "I Am the Way, the Truth, and the Life." Music for the program will be sung by the famed Salt Lake Tabernacle Choir directed by J. Spencer Cornwall. Alexander Schreiner will accompany on the organ.

Father Michael Montoya, C. M. F., pastor of the San Gabriel Mission of San Gabriel, Calif., will be the speaker on the second half of the program 7:30-8. Referring to the sacrament of marriage, he will speak on "Shall They Stay Together?" His San Gabriel Mission, representing the Claretian missionaries, commemorates its 181st anniversary in the same week. The Choir of the Mission, directed by Mrs. Jean Hussin, will sing four Latin church hymns.

A storage lake of 240 million gallons of water serves a giant Midwest coal preparation plant.

Central Lutheran Church
EVANGELICAL LUTHERAN
Eighteenth at Potter
MORNING WORSHIP
11:00 A.M.
SUNDAY SCHOOL
9:45 A.M.
Harold Aalhus, Pastor
Phone 5-2953

Register-Guard, Eugene, Ore., Sat., Aug. 30, 1952 Page 3

Springfield Church Still Wants Clothing Donations for Korea

By VERA HANSEN

Hope Lutheran Church is still to join others in a winterizing project collecting clothing to be sent to Korea, although more than 300 Springfield's delegation will be pounds has been gathered, they headed by Jess Dunning.

want more. Any one wishing to donate clean, warm clothing is asked to call Mrs. Elmer Renken 6-3077 for pick-up.

More than $20 was realized at the potluck dinner the congregation held at Armitage Park recently. It is to be used for mission work.

Members of Nicholas Gardens Community Church of the Brethren will journey to Camp Myrtlewood for the first time this year.

UNITY CHURCH OF EUGENE
1215 Oak Street
Affiliated with Unity School of Christianity, Lee's Summit, Mo.

SUNDAY at 11
"DOMINION"
TUESDAY at 7
"A MORE WONDERFUL YOU"
WEDNESDAY at 8
"PASSPORT TO GOD"
 Noon meetings 12 to 12:30
Center open daily except Saturday 11 to 4
Center Closed Labor Day
Consultations: Literature Subscriptions
Sunday at 8—Meeting at Cottage Grove in the Public Library
All Interested Invited
Muriel F. Venable, Minister

Church of the Nazarene
8th & Madison
9:45 A.M.
Sunday School
11:00 A.M.
Morning Worship
NORTHWEST NAZARENE COLLEGE SERVICE
THE MEL-O-DIES TRIO
WITH PROF. GUY E. SHARP
3:00 P.M.
Jack Shuler Campaign at McArthur Court
7:30 P.M.
No Evening Service
Please join us in cooperating with the Jack Shuler Gospel Crusade at McArthur Court, subject "The Unpardonable Sin"
Duane E. Muth, Minister

YOUR LAST CHANCE

TO HEAR
JACK SHULER
AT

McARTHUR COURT

TONIGHT—7:30 — "Why I Turned Down Hollywood"
(JACK'S LIFE STORY)

SUNDAY—3:00 — Dr. Bob Shuler of Los Angeles Will Preach
(JACK SHULER'S FATHER)

7:30 — "The Unpardonable Sin"

LABOR DAY VICTORY RALLY MONDAY 7:30

★ Stuart Hamblen, nationally-known radio star, author of "It Is No Secret"

★ Jack Shuler

★ Herb Hoover and his choir

★ Bob Andersen at the organ