European Army Totals 2 Million In Third Year

Red Army Troops Listed at 4 Million

WASHINGTON (AP) — The State Department reported Saturday this country's European Allies now have more than two million men under arms compared with Russia's four million.

The figures were cited in a 50-page departmental report designed to answer inquiries from Congress and private citizens about progress made in building Europe's defenses under the 3-year-old North Atlantic Treaty.

EXCLUDES U. S. FORCES

Although indicating a relationship in the balance of East-West military power, the figures do not include other forces which fit into the overall picture.

Not mentioned is the total American strength of 3½ million men under arms, the armed manpower of friendly nations like Australia, Yugoslavia and Spain, or the armies of Russia's satellites and Red China.

The report also referred to Russian possession of the atomic bomb as a major element in Soviet power—a reference reflecting conviction among officials here that Russia has such a bomb, although not in quantities equal to America's.

RED A-BOMB DOUBTED

Interest in Russia's actual or assumed possession of nuclear weapons was freshly aroused recently when Carlton S. Proctor, New York engineer who once worked in Russia, said he did not believe the Soviets had succeeded in mastering the complex task of producing atomic weapons.

The White House has announced three atomic explosions in Russia. Other sources have estimated that Russia has a stockpile of 100 or more A-bombs.

But Proctor, president of the American Society of Civil Engineers with wide experience in Russia and behind the Iron Curtain, said in Chicago Sept. 3:

"I do not believe Russia has one single bomb. . . I think every one of the atomic explosions in Russia was just a premature explosion, in an effort to produce a bomb."

MILLIONS IN RESERVE

The departmental survey of progress said that, aside from the men under arms in Western Europe and in Russia, millions more are in reserve and that Russia's strength includes 175 front line divisions "with 100 deployed in Soviet-occupied Europe."

The department cited the Soviet forces as evidence of why it considered the job of building up Western power far from completed.

The great current problem of the North Atlantic Treaty, the booklet said, is how to balance the security requirements of the North Atlantic powers against their capacity to arm, which is limited by their industrial and financial resources.

Six Lane Teams Win Grid Games

By DON FAIR
Register-Guard Sports Writer

Lane County high school football teams opened their 1952 seasons Friday afternoon and night, with local clubs victorious on six fronts.

Eugene opened its quest for a District 5-A-1 title by stopping Roseburg 27-0 at the Civic Stadium. The Axemen, completely dominating play in the first period, ran up a quick 13-0 lead and were never headed.

Roseburg had offensive possession of the ball for only two plays in the decisive first quarter. Fullback Bob Morgan was Eugene's leading scorer with two touchdowns and two extra points.

Springfield also made a successful opening by handing Lebanon a 33-20 defeat on the Warrior field. The Millers unleashed a wide-open passing attack, completing 15 of 26 aerials. Halfback Floyd Burright, with his running and passing, engineered the victory in addition to scoring once.

University, in its last year of athletic competition but with a new coach in Chuck DeAutremont, made a successful bow by blanking Mt. Angel 24-0 on the latter's field. Halfback Larry Payne was the scoring leader with three touchdowns, including a 56-yard romp. Cottage Grove posted a handy 28-6 victory over St. Francis, Friday night on the Lion gridiron. Clarence Smith collected two of the tallies as the Grovers racked up a score in every quarter.

Halfback Hal Sullivan and end George Shephard provided all the scoring fireworks as Willamette hosted and defeated Sutherlin 27-0. Sullivan scored on 56 and 54 yard jaunts, and booted three conversions. Shephard made the other two tallies on passes from Ron Sustello.

Oakridge showed power to burn in rolling roughshod over Creswell 50-6 on the Warriors' field. Walt Spriggs paced the Oakridge scoring binge with three touchdowns, including a 70-yard jaunt. The victory stamped the Warriors as the District 5-A-2 favorite.

Ike to Start Train Tour In Midwest

By JACK BELL
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK (UP) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower will set out again Sunday on an intensive 12-day, 12-state whistle stop campaign tour.

His itinerary includes Illinois, Indiana, Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska, Missouri, Kentucky, Ohio, West Virginia, Maryland, North Carolina and Virginia.

The Republican presidential nominee will leave by train at 4:10 p.m. EST, arriving in Ft. Wayne, Ind., Monday morning.

He returned only last Wednesday from nine days of rugged campaigning.

On the eve of the candidate's departure, a New York congressman moved to push Gov. Thomas E. Dewey into an active part in the presidential campaign after Sen. Robert A. Taft's spectacular enlistment in the fold.

PUSHING DEWEY

Rep. Leonard W. Hall was leading a drive to expand Dewey's influence beyond the win-New York role which previously had been assigned to the 1944 and 1948 GOP presidential nominees.

"If the governor will consent to a more active part in the campaign, I am sure that his help will be welcomed," Hall told a reporter.

However, representatives of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, who were influential in arranging the conference from which Taft emerged to announce he would give all-out aid to the Republican nominee, were noticeably cool to Hall's suggestion.

Sen. Frank Carlson of Kansas and Ralph Cate, Oregon National committeeman, said they hadn't heard any report that Dewey—as well as Taft—might undertake a national broadcast for the ticket.

BEEN FORGOTTEN MAN

Since the July Chicago convention, where he helped Eisenhower win the nomination from Taft, Dewey has been cast in the role of the Republican party's forgotten man.

He has remained in the background, apparently because of charges by the Taft forces that he engineered Eisenhower's nomination and was dominating his campaign. Taft leaders such as Thomas E. Coleman of Wisconsin said they counted in the pre-convention campaign on what they called an anti-Dewey sentiment among Republicans of the Midwest.

If Dewey were asked to take a more important role in the campaign than he thus far has assumed publicly, it was the consensus at Eisenhower headquarters here that he would be asked to appeal primarily to the voters in the Eastern Seaboard states.

That Eisenhower's backers regard the election results as touch-and-go was demonstrated when Gov. Sherman Adams of New Hampshire told the Citizens for Eisenhower-Nixon meeting in a two-day session here that without their help "all might be lost."

Eisenhower scheduled a closed session appearance before the group Saturday. He planned to spend the remainder of the day in drafting speeches for his whistle stop tour.

These will include Democratic Rep. Mike Mansfield of Montana, Henry M. Jackson of Washington and Walter K. Granger of Utah, now seeking Senate seats held by Republicans.

Truman to Make 24-State Trip

By ERNEST B. VACCARO
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman carried the Democratic National Committee's blessing Saturday for an 8,500-mile, 15-day "give-em-hell" campaign carrying him into 24 states.

His job, as the President has outlined it, is to be a sort of chief gunner in the presidential battle.

He will campaign his own and the Franklin D. Roosevelt record and fire away at the Republicans from coast to coast, while Democratic presidential nominee Adlai Stevenson charts the party program for the future.

Truman's news conference assertion Thursday he will speak wherever the national committee wants him to was followed by a White House announcement Friday of a trans-continental trip embracing major speeches as far apart as New York and San Francisco.

The President's campaign train, between the time of his departure from Washington Saturday, Sept. 27, until his return Sunday, Oct. 12, will cross enough states to assure a minimum of 50 rear platform whistle stop talks.

Already tentatively lined up are six major talks. They are: Oct. 1, dedicating the Hungry Horse Dam in Northwestern Montana near Kalispell; Oct. 2, Seattle, Wash.; Oct. 4, San Francisco; Oct. 8, Shennandoah, Iowa; Oct. 9, Buffalo, N. Y.; and Oct. 11, New York City.

The schedule is far from completed. Other speeches probably will be announced before the departure date.

The Truman campaign train will cross parts of Maryland, North Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, North Dakota, Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon, California, Nevada, Utah, Colorado, Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Missouri, Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey, and Delaware.

There seemed every prospect Truman would talk at any daylight stop where a crowd gathered except on the three Sundays he will be on the road. He says he will not make political speeches on the sabbath.

In his forthcoming trip, the President will emphasize a plea for the election of Democratic congressional candidates.

These will include Democratic Rep. Mike Mansfield of Montana, Henry M. Jackson of Washington and Walter K. Granger of Utah, now seeking Senate seats held by Republicans.

Morse Returns In Silent Mood

By A. ROBERT SMITH
Register-Guard Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Senator Wayne Morse has returned to the political wars from Europe dressed in new garb—a cloak of silence which there were indications he might not remove for remainder of the presidential election campaign.

Though critical of the Republican platform on labor, civil rights and foreign policy, Morse last month pledged his active support of Eisenhower. But when asked Friday when he intended to take the stump, the Oregon senator replied: "When and if I decide to."

Without disclosing any definite plans, Morse indicated he will not fly immediately to Oregon as previously planned and that he might cancel a speech September 19 in Seattle.

Morse returned unexpectedly from a five week inspection of overseas air bases with a slight virus infection but it was clear that political, not physical, discomfort was the cause of the uncertainty of his campaign plans.

Morse declined to comment on the Eisenhower-Taft meeting, the Steve Anderson resignation, or Eisenhower's blanket endorsement of Senators McCarthy and Jenner.

U. S. Fifth Air Force said its shot down 14 Communist planes without losing a single jet in the week ended Friday. The Mig shot down lower F-84 Thunderjets. 80 Shooting Star was lost ground fire.

Marine Cooks Accept Red Surrenders

PANMUNJOM, Korea (AP) — The third Communist soldier to flee into the United Nations lines from the Panmunjom neutral zone within a week surrendered to two U. S. Marine cooks Friday night.

Pfc. O'Neill Forbes of Berlin, N. H., and Cpl. Amielio Montie of Providence, R. I., were more annoyed than delighted by their catch.

"I'm not going to get up every night to take a prisoner," Montie said.

It was the second surrender in 24 hours for the two.

30,000 See Fall Fashions

Crowds at the annual Fall Opening held in Eugene Friday night have been estimated by Oscar Strauss, co-chairman for the event, at 30,000.

Strauss said any estimate of the size of the crowd would be difficult as people were both on the streets and in the stores. Strauss called the event a "huge success."

The large number of people on the streets both for the Fall Opening, and also for the Shrine Circus and a Eugene High School football game presented something of a problem for Eugene police, but here, too, everything seems to have gone well. Chief of Police Ted Brown has issued a commendation to the patrol division complimenting it for "an excellent job."

Awards for interior and exterior displays will be presented at a special Chamber meeting, at a date to be announced, according to Strauss.

Delegation to U. N. Named by President

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman announced yesterday appointment of the U. S. delegation to the United Nations General Assembly opening in New York Oct. 14.

It again will be headed by Warren R. Austin and will include Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt.
