Jane Knecht Married Here

VIDA—In a ceremony performed at high noon in First Congregational church of Eugene, Sept. 13, Miss Emily Jane Knecht of Vida was married to Arthur Raymond Moshofsky of Beaverton. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Alton B. Knecht of Vida and the late Mr. Knecht. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Moshofsky of Beaverton.

Dr. Victor P. Morris performed the double-ring ceremony. Baskets of white and apricot gladiolus, and white candles in candelabra, decorated the altar.

The bride wore a ballerina-length dress of white nylon net over a skirt of white satin, with a fitted lace bodice and lace mitts. The veil of illusion was attached to a lace crown. Her flowers were a white orchid surrounded by stephanotis, with the latter flower also tied in the streamers, and carried on a white Bible.

Maid of honor, Miss Mary Cockrane of Eugene, wore a peacock-blue taffeta dress of ballerina length and she carried an arm spray of apricot gladiolus and stephanotis. Bridesmaids were Miss Betty Moshofsky, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Harriet Vahey of Portland, in identical gowns of aqua taffeta, ballerina length. Both carried arm sprays of apricot gladiolus.

Best man was Gerald Moshofsky and three other brothers, Richard, William and Edward, were ushers. Richard and William Moshofsky lighted the candles preceding the ceremony.

An uncle of the bride, J. Harold Rodgers of Los Angeles, gave her in marriage. Traditional wedding music was played by the church organist before and during the ceremony. He also played accompaniments for Miss Janis Evans, who sang "I Love You" and "Through the Years."

At the reception in the church parlors, Mrs. Cal Alberts cut the three tiered wedding cake. The table was decorated with white flowers. Mrs. Wallace Rodgers of Los Angeles, aunt of the bride, poured and Mrs. Marvin Johns, sister of the bridegroom, served punch.

For her going away costume, the bride wore a beige suit and hat and accessories in red.

The bride, a former McKenzie High School student, has attended the University of Oregon for the past three years. She plans to study in Portland and return to the university to graduate with her class in June. She is a member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority.

The bridegroom was graduated from U. of O., where he was affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega. He is now in the lumber brokerage business with his brother in Portland.

Auxiliary to Initiate

Eagles Auxiliary will have initiation for new members at a meeting Tuesday evening at the Eagles Hall.

MRS. ARTHUR R. MOSHOFSKY (Jane Knecht) said her wedding vows before Dr. Victor P. Morris recently at First Congregational Church. Both bride and groom are former UO students. They will make their home in Portland where Mr. Moshofsky is in business with a brother.

Soroptimists Honor Member

Soroptimist Club of Eugene will honor Mrs. Frank (Olive) Barber, author of "The Lady and the Lumberjack," at noon luncheon Tuesday at Eugene Hotel. Mrs. Barber, who is a member of the Bremerton, Wash. club, will be remembered by many Eugeneans for the column which she wrote several years ago for the Eugene Morning News and, later, for the Register-Guard.

Party to Honor Anniversary

Mrs. H. R. Emerson and her daughter, Miss Thelma Schaefer, will have open house Sunday (today) from 2 to 6 p.m., in honor of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Schaefer on their 25th wedding anniversary. The event will be in the couple's home on Crest Drive.

Mr. and Mrs. Schaefer were married in Eugene in 1927.

All but one of their five sons and daughters will be present. One son is in military service in Florida.

The Frydenlund Bride

The bride wore a white orchid surrounded by white spider chrysanthemums. Miss Frydenlund is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thor Frydenlund. Mr. Kitchel is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford E. Kitchel.

Mrs. A. T. Goodwin, matron of honor, wore a deep rose, ballerina-length dress of faille taffeta with full skirt, buttoned bodice and stand-up collar. She had elbow-length mitts and a cap of deep-vine velvet trimmed with silver and gold beads. Her flowers were dusty-pink and rose spider chrysanthemums.

Mrs. George D. Easter of San Francisco, Miss Suzanne Schoenfeld of Portland, and Miss Anne Woodworth all wore dusty rose dresses made like that of the matron of honor. Their caps and flowers also were the same.

Jerry J. O'Leary of Portland, was best man and Edward Vanet of Hood River, Wallace Gibbs of Tigard, and Mervin Meyers of Hood River ushered.

Gladiolus and spider chrysanthemums in fall colors decorated the church when Mr. Frydenlund gave his daughter in marriage. Miss Mary Hawkins, Portland, sang "All the Things You Are" and "The Lord's Prayer." Dr. Wesley G. Nicholson officiated at the 4 p.m. ceremony.

A reception at the Alpha Phi sorority house followed the ceremony. Mrs. John L. Woodworth cut the cake assisted by Mrs. Fred Brenne, Mrs. Frank B. Reid and Mrs. Douglas Orme poured. Servers were Mrs. John N. Elder Jr., Mrs. Bruce M. Keller, Mrs. Donald D. South, Mrs. J. A. Smith of Burlingame, Calif., Mrs. Harold B. Ritchie of Portland, and Mrs. Paul McCracken, Portland. At the door were Miss Antoinette Kuzmanich and Mrs. George Knab. Miss Anne Collins passed the guest book. Autumn-colored flowers and the wedding cake were table decorations.

For the wedding trip down the coast to Carmel, through San Francisco, Tahoe and to Reno, the bride chose a dark brown suit with brown braid trim, a close-fitting hat trimmed with gold shells and brown accessories. The couple will be at home in Eugene where Mr. Kitchel is employed as a lumber buyer at the Gaynor Lumber Co.
