

Uncle Reads Bridal Vows

CRESWELL—Miss Carol Rank was married to Phillip W. Walker at Creswell Methodist Church Sunday, Sept. 14. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Rand and Mr. and Mrs. Phillip R. Walker are parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. Daniel Walker of Corvallis Methodist Church, uncle of the groom, read the vows.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a ballerina-length dress of white, with lace jacket and full skirt of net over satin. Her veil was finger tip length and held in place with a coronet. She carried a white Bible in a circlet of white stephanotis. For something old, she wore her maternal grandmother's wedding ring.

Mrs. Marion Burns of Saginaw, matron of honor, wore pink organdy and carried an arm bouquet of white gladiolus. Mrs. Don Wilson of Saginaw in yellow organdy and Miss Darlene Kinslow in blue were attendants. They also carried white gladiolus. Little Beverly Elliott was flower girl, in green organdy.

Martin Walker, brother of the groom, was best man. Warren Walker, another brother, and Robert Rand, brother of the bride, were ushers and lighted the candles.

Miss Corabelle Church of Corvallis, groom's cousin, played the wedding music. Lawrence Rand of Roseburg, uncle of the bride, sang "Because" and "Day of Golden Promise," accompanied by Miss Ramona Fay Force of Roseburg, bride's cousin.

Mrs. Dora Martin decorated the church with asters, dahlias, zinnias and ferns.

At a reception in the church parlors, Mrs. Flora Harvey of Roseburg served the cake; Mrs. Lawrence Rand of Roseburg, Mrs. Daniel Walker and Mrs. Clarence Church of Corvallis served punch. All are aunts of the bride or groom. Miriam Circle of the church assisted with serving.

Miss Barbara Tiedje had the guest book and Miss Betty Thomson cared for gifts.

For going away the bride wore a brick-red suit with black accessories and flowers from her bridal bouquet.
