

Boundary Board Approves Shift

JC School District Gives Up 24 Acres

The Lane County Boundary Board, following a public hearing Wednesday morning, approved the transfer of 24 acres of land in Junction City School District No. 68J to Eugene School District No. 4.

Milton Benesch, a resident of the area involved, told the board the boundary change would be beneficial from the standpoint of economy. He said three school buses—two from the Eugene district and one from the Junction City district—now serve the 24-acre area.

He also stated his child must leave early and return late on the Junction City bus now serving the area.

Edward Buck, superintendent of the Junction City district, said the school board of District 68J had no objection to the proposed boundary change. Clarence Hines, superintendent of District 4, said the Eugene school board did not object either.

The boundary board, including County Judge Day T. Bayly, County Commissioner Lee Raish, and County School Superintendent Mrs. Lucille Klinge, then voted to approve the proposed change.

Local Theater Slates Preview

Friday night, patrons of Eugene's McDonald Theater will have a chance to pass judgement on a new film, when the theater previews a late Twentieth Century Fox movie.

Honoring the president of the Evergreen theater chain, Frank L. Newman, theaters in the organization are having special events all this week. The preview is Eugene's part of the celebration.

Russ Brown, northwest manager of the chain said he could not release the name of the new film, but that it was Technicolor and filmed in the Argentine.

Customers will be given comment cards—which will be sent to Hollywood for an opinion survey. The new movie will be shown between the showings of the regular Friday feature.
