

Wafdist Leader Said to Resign

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Former Premier Mustapha el Nahas resigned as leader of the powerful Wafdist party, it was said Monday.

Following a morning-long meeting of the executive committee, called to work out the party after a revolt Saturday by 50 members, he would reorganize the party and support the political reform law, a move announced Monday.

ELEPHANT DIES; TOWN MOURNS

CANTERBURY, Eng. (AP)—Salt, a five-ton female elephant which lay ill for a week in a field near here, died Sunday, and this old cathedral town is mourning.

For at least 40 years, old-timers say, Salt was a beloved character in a little circus which moves about southern England.

Veterinary George Peyton's final diagnosis was: Acute exhaustion and old age. The exact age was not known—but about 65 or 85, or thereabouts.

figures in connection with Naguib's purge program. They included the party's secretary-general, ex-minister of Interior Fuad Serag el-Din.

Up to Monday all parties except the Wafd had complied with the reform law, which requires elimination of corrupt leaders and statements of political reforms and finances.

Just before the party's executive committee met Monday one of its senior members, 67-year-old Fahmy Wissa, died of a heart attack. Wissa, a Copt (Egyptian Christian), was one of the Wafd's founders and supported Nationalist leader Saad Zaghloul's 1919 revolt against Britain.

Two New Buildings
Approved for UCLA

SACRAMENTO (AP)—The University of California at Los Angeles was given the go-ahead sign Saturday on a proposed life sciences building and a medical center cancer wing.

Awarding of contracts for the two university buildings was finally made possible by additional funds amounting to $890,000 voted by the state public works board Friday.

The life sciences building will cost an estimated $3,182,720 while the medical center, mainly financed by the U. S. Public Health Service, will cost $826,000.

VINTAGE QUEEN—Pretty Virginia Best, 22, of Menlo Park, Calif., caught the eye of the California Wine Institute judges, for obvious reasons, and she was chosen "Vintage Queen" to reign during National Wine Week, Oct. 11-18.

300-Foot Deep Canyon On Atlantic Ocean Floor

NEW YORK (AP)—Scientists have discovered a 300-foot deep canyon at least 800 miles long on the floor of the Atlantic Ocean.

They believe it may be the main stream of a giant system of deep rivers on the bottom of the sea.

The discovery was announced by Dr. W. Maurice Ewing, an oceanographer and professor of geology at Columbia University.

He and a party of scientists returned from a 10,000-mile trip in the sea going tug, Kevin Moran. The tug was especially fitted for exploring the sea floor.

"I think we have discovered ourselves a piece of geography similar to the Mississippi River in size," Ewing told newsmen who met him when the tug docked.

The canyon was discovered by echo sounder, a device which measures depth, about 800 miles off and a little north of Boston.

The expedition was sponsored by Columbia University, the Office of Naval Research, the Navy's Bureau of Ships, and the Woods Hole Oceanographic Society.

Mushrooms contain about 90 per cent water.

Adlai's Campaign Changes Its Tune

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson's campaign for the presidency reached a cross roads Monday—with a shift in emphasis and issues.

From a series of speeches built largely around selling the idea that another Democratic election victory will mean continued prosperity, the Democratic nominee turned to drafting a major address on the menace of communism.

The prosperity theme ran through speeches Friday and Saturday in Ohio, Iowa and Minnesota. The communism issue, on the basis of present plans, is to be the topic of a major address in Detroit Tuesday night—the first major address of a five-day aerial sortie into seven states in the Midwest and deep South.

From using a deft, sharp needle to jab at the GOP and at Republican candidate Dwight D. Eisenhower, Stevenson apparently has switched to a sledgehammer approach.

As he swung through Ohio, Iowa and Minnesota at the close of last week, Stevenson bore down on the premise that the American people have been pretty happy and prosperous for the better part of 20 years under Democratic administration. That, obviously, was intended to counter the Republican time-for-a-change chant, and Eisenhower's statements that dollars aren't worth as much as they used to be.

The Illinois governor summed it up in Minneapolis when he hit at the GOP as talking about false prosperity.

"False prosperity, indeed," he snorted. "As false as money in the bank, fertilizer in the soil, a new tractor, and a new washing machine."

"You will find your reasons for supporting the Democratic party in debt-free farms, in markets for your harvest, in your strong co-operatives, in the homes you own, in the vacations you take, . . . in your new security . . . in schools . . . in plans you can make for your future."

All day long Saturday, at Ft. Dodge, Ia., then at Minneapolis and finally at St. Paul, Stevenson took harder and harder swats at Eisenhower and the GOP. He built up to a climax in St. Paul where he named names and even called a few.

He called Eisenhower a captive to the GOP "Old Guard," a man who "seems to have embraced or been embraced by the most reckless and embittered wing of his party."

He said Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy of Wisconsin is a "champion of the inquisition, champion of trial by ordeal and slander."

NOSE, THROAT,

and Accessory Organs not Adversely Affected by Smoking Chesterfields

FIRST SUCH REPORT EVER PUBLISHED ABOUT ANY CIGARETTE

responsible consulting organization has reported the results of a continuing study by a competent medical specialist and his staff on the effects of smoking Chesterfield cigarettes.

group of people from various walks of life organized to smoke only Chesterfields. For six months this group of men and women smoked their normal amount of Chesterfields—10 to 40 a day. 90% of the group have smoked Chesterfields continually from one to thirty years for an average of 15 years each.

the beginning and at the end of the six-month period each smoker was given a thorough examination, including X-ray pictures, by the medical specialist and his assistants. The examination covered the sinuses as well as the nose, ears and throat.

The medical specialist, after a thorough examination of every member of the group, stated: "It is my opinion that the ears, nose, throat and accessory organs of all participating subjects examined by me were not adversely affected in the six-months period by smoking the cigarettes provided."
