Police Check Theft Story

PORTLAND (U)—Police Tuesday continued checking the story of an ex-convict who said he stole an estimated $60,000 worth of jewels and other items in the Portland-Vancouver area.

Detective Fred Boynton said Fred Vernon Prather, 31, told him that a diamond necklace, valued at $1,500, was among the loot he had taken in a number of burglaries.

The necklace was stolen from the Vancouver, Wash., home of Alfred H. Schmidt, Boynton quoted Prather as saying. The necklace eventually was broken up and sold piecemeal, Boynton said.

Prather, booked on two burglary charges, was held on $3,000 bail.

State Treasurer's Wife Drops Divorce Action

PORTLAND (U)—Mrs. Walter J. Pearson has dropped her divorce action, her attorney said Tuesday.

Mrs. Pearson, wife of Oregon's state treasurer, filed suit in August alleging cruel and inhuman treatment.

Earl Bernard, her attorney, in reporting withdrawal of the suit said he did not know whether a reconciliation had been effected.

Actress Sues Former Hubby

NEW YORK (U)—Actress Wendy Barrie is suing her former husband for $250,000 for alleged slander. She charges he gossiped that she was living immorally with a man and supporting him.

Miss Barrie denied the charges in a complaint filed Tuesday in Federal Court against David L. Meyer. She said he slandered her thrice last spring by telling various persons here and in Florida that she was "openly living with 'Cappy' Smith as man and wife without being married, and is supporting him."

Smith was not identified in the suit. However, her attorneys describe Smith as a "mere acquaintance."

Meyer, a textile manufacturer, and Miss Barrie were married in 1946 and divorced in 1950.
