Eugene Woman In PTA Office

Mrs. Doty Elected
To Nominating Group

Mrs. Ross Doty, Eugene, was elected to a position on the nominating committee for the Oregon Congress of Parents and Teachers at a meeting of the state PTA board of managers in Portland last week.

She is one of five persons from throughout the state who will submit to the delegates at the group's state convention the names of candidates for next year's state PTA officers. The convention will be held in Medford in April.

The state PTA board also endorsed educational TV for Oregon; the new State Board of Higher Education plan for combined elementary and secondary teacher training at five state educational institutions; an increase in federal aid for school lunch programs; and safety legislation relating to school busses.

The board was also told that the Medford convention will include "workshops," many of them of two-hour duration; a "regional dinner" and Mothersingers concert; an informal installation; and a "coffee klatch."

Architect to Lecture At UO Next Week

An internationally famous architect who has pioneered in the contemporary style will be on the University of Oregon campus the last of next week as a guest of the school of architecture and allied arts.

He is Erich Mendelsohn, brought to the school in line with its policy to have outstanding people in architecture on the campus for lectures and criticism. Mendelsohn will arrive Thursday, Jan. 29, and remain on campus the remainder of the week.

Friday evening, Jan. 30, the tribune to Contemporary Architecture in the auditorium of the Science building at 8 p.m. According to Dean S. W. Little of the school of architecture, the lecture will be open to townspeople.

The Einstein Tower, designed by Mendelsohn, brought him international fame in 1921.

Also in the 1920's Mendelsohn designed new stores for the Schoen Department store chain, which are considered to be among his best work for that period. He had received an architecture degree in 1912 in Munich, Germany.

In the early 1930's he went to

Cottage Grove Boy Flees McLaren Custody

Jess Potter, 16, of Cottage Grove, is one of the six boys who escaped from McLaren School officials Tuesday. State police reported that the boys had been taken from the reformatory at Woodburn to a show in Portland from which they fled.

Potter was sent to the school a short time ago after he repeatedly had escaped from Skipworth Home.

Three Eugene Boys Held in California

Three Eugene juveniles—John Gunderson, Kenneth Brown and Norman Haas—are being held by the Lassen County, Calif., sheriff, on charges of burglary, according to state police at Eugene.

The boys were driving a car taken from E. A. Mook and Sons used car lot in Eugene when arrested, state police reported.

The matter has been turned over to the Lane County juvenile office.

Eugene, Lane County Students Pledge Campus Fraternities

Formal men's rushing ended Saturday with 147 upperclassmen and freshmen pledging 18 social fraternities in the University of Oregon. Phi Kappa Psi had the biggest pledge class with 19 men. Beta Theta Pi pledged 16 men and Phi Delta Theta and Sigma Chi each pledged 15 men for the third biggest pledge lists.

Fifteen Eugene and seven other Lane County men pledged during the rush week which started Monday, Jan. 12 and ended Saturday. Lane county men and the houses they pledged are:

Fullerton Named
Ralph Fullerton was appointed to the Springfield School District 19 budget committee this week to fill one of two vacant positions. Replacements were needed for E. W. Howells, whose term expired last year, and for J. W. Michael, who died last year. Howells will be contacted to see if he will serve again. Last week, Lester Hufstader was reappointed to fill his own expired term on the budget committee.
