Creswell Wins In Non-Leaguer

One local team indulged in non-league play Tuesday night and Drain won another game in District 4-B.

Creswell went outside the district to take on it's old B league foe, Lowell at Creswell. The Bulldogs came out winners by a 47-31 score.

Drain registered a 56-49 win over Elkton at Drain.

Creswell 47, Devils 31

In their breather from district action, the Creswell Bulldogs found it rough going for the first quarter and were behind 11-10 at the start of the second frame. But they immediately went ahead and pulled away to a 24-17 halftime lead.

Lowell made a brief spurt in the third quarter but the Bulldogs were up to it, and went on to win handily.

Joe Burris led the Creswell scoring, as usual, with 18. He was backed up by his steady teammate Dale Bates who garnered 12.

Fellow named Erickson tossed in 9 for Lowell.

Drain 56, Elkton 49

Drain moved into a tie for the lead in District 4-B as a result of it's win over Elkton. It was the first district loss for Elkton. Drain has lost to Oakland.

Drain had no trouble, leading 16-12 at the end of the first quarter, and really won the game in the second frame as the Warriors garnered 20 points while Elkton could only get 6.

Elkton had a good third quarter, getting 17 points, but Drain still led at the start of the final eight minutes, 45-35.

Jack Weaver and Jim Swearingen of Drain and Beckley of Elkton all got 15 points to split scoring honors. George LaGrander got 14 for Drain.

Drain also won the prelim 42-36 as Ron Moore tossed in 11 points.

Spivey 'Take' Said $1,000

Hirsch Says Center Expected More

NEW YORK (AP)—Bill Spivey, former University of Kentucky All-America basketball player, accepted $1,000 for juggling points in a game and thought "he should have got more," a former teammate testified Tuesday.

The witness was Walter Hirsch, 23, of Dayton, Ohio, now an Army private.

The seven-foot-tall Spivey is being tried in general sessions court on a charge of perjury in denying to a grand jury that he ever discussed fixing games or accepting bribes.

RECEIVED $1,000

Hirsch said Spivey received $1,000 and that he himself received $800 for "working" the score in a Kentucky game with the University of St. Louis at the Sugar Bowl tournament in New Orleans in 1950.

"Working" was described as keeping the point spread between the two teams at a predetermined margin for the benefit of gamblers.

Hirsch said he, Spivey and James Line, another Kentucky student accused of being a "go-between," agreed to accept $5,000 in bribes from Jack West, since convicted as a fixer in the basketball scandal, to "work" two games in the tournament.

LOST THE GAME

But he said West became disgusted when the Kentucky players, in trying to hold the winning margin within the agreed point spread, unintentionally lost the game, 43-42. He said West complained that this ruined his chance of "making big money" on the second game.

The loss put Kentucky out of the championship play and into a consolation game.

Palm Springs Lead Taken by Unknown

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Firing a torrid six-under-par 66, Pete Fleming, a former professional prize fighter and card dealer from Hot Springs, Ark., and St. Andrews, Ill., took over the leadership Wednesday at the end of two rounds in the $10,000 Palm Springs Invitational Golf Tournament.

At the same time, the pro-amateur best ball championship which ended Tuesday after 36 holes of play went to the team led by pro Ed (Porky) Oliver. His amateur partners were Laswell Maynard, a former national handball champion; home run slugger Ralph Kiner of the Pittsburgh Pirates, and former pro ball player Joe Dyer. They had a best ball of 113 to lead the field by two strokes.

Fleming put together nine-hole cards of 34-32 to add to his opening round of 67 for a 133 total. The final 18 holes of the 54-hole tournament will be played Thursday.

Dons Sporting 5-Game Streak

The San Francisco University Dons, beaten in their first seven games, will come here Friday night to meet Oregon's Webfoots riding the crest of a five-game winning streak.

The Dons defeated the Olympic Club of San Francisco 64-58 Saturday night in their last test and during the recent surge, defeated Santa Clara 59-48, a team Oregon nosed out 65-62 here early in the season. Only other mutual opponent has been Stanford, a quintet Oregon defeated 73-68 and 74-64, who in turn downed USF 74-73 in an overtime to open the season for both clubs.

Coach Bill Borcher rested his Webfoots until Thursday, following a split series against Idaho in Moscow last weekend. With the exception of Keith Farnam, who suffered a partial hip dislocation in the last game, the Oregons will be in top condition—and Farnum may be ready to start Friday, along with Ed Halberg at forward, Chet Noe at center, Barney Holland and Kenny Wegner at the guards.

Game time Friday will be 8 p.m., with the Oregon Frosh meeting the unbeaten OSC Rooks in a preliminary, starting at 4:45 p.m.

The Webfoots meet Portland University at the Portland Ice Arena Saturday and the Ducklings play a prelim against the Portland U. JV's.
