Creswell's Bulldogs, already finished with their regular league schedule, claimed the coveted runner-up spot in the District 6-2 basketball race Friday night when Oakridge defeated invading St. Francis, 74-62.

The defeat killed the Saints' hopes of gaining a tie with the Bulldogs, who will meet Junction City—third in the District 6-1 loop —for a fourth berth in the district tournament in March. Eugene, Springfield and Oakridge already have reached the tourney.

In the other game of the league's final action, host Pleasant Hill defeated Elmira, 59-49.

Oakridge 74, Saints 62

St. Francis, after trailing throughout the contest, climbed to within four points of the Warriors, at 62-58, midway in the fourth quarter but Center Paul Tuchardt poured in nine straight points to assure victory for Coach Lee Reeder's lads.

The victory was the eighth without a loss for Oakridge in league competition, the 13th in a row, and the 19th in 21 starts.

Oakridge, with Tuchardt, Guard Bunky Beard, and Forward Allie Clark leading the attack, rolled to a 23-11 lead after the first quarter and owned a comfortable 43-30 margin at halftime.

Center Larry Walsh, along with guards Fred Cerkeney and Jerome Poissant, paced a St. Francis comeback in the third period as the Saints closed the gap to 51-44 at the start of the final session.

St. Francis continued to whittle the deficit until that four-point deficit when Tuchardt settled the issue.

Tuchardt collected 20 points while Beard led all scoring with 22 and Walsh netted 15 for the Saints. Jim Haney collected 25 in leading Oakridge to a 42-41 jayvee overtime victory.

Billies 59, Elmira 49

Coach Carl Popoff's Pleasant Hill lads grabbed a 20-10 lead after the first quarter and coasted the rest of the way against the invading Elmiras.

Popoff substituted freely after the first period but the Billies had increased their margin to 30-18 at halftime. Craig Drugan and Jerry Robberson led the way in the third frame as Pleasant Hill continued to widen the breach and finished with 50-32 lead at the start of the final period.

The contest finished league action for each quintet. The victory left the Billies in fourth place, while Elmira finished in the cellar.

Elmira's Cliff Fisher led all scoring with 15 points, while Robberson finished with 12, and Drugan netted 10. Guard Wendy Ray contributed another sterling floor game for Elmira.

Pleasant Hill also won the jayvee game 49-39, as Jim Blighton led the way with 15 points.

Ramblers Split Two

Willamette Valley Nash Ramblers of Eugene defeated Monroe's best town team, 29-28, Friday night but dropped a 48-39 decision to Monroe high. Rambler Ron Hall led the victory with 12 points, while Jack Kessling tallied 10 as Bob Jensen led the Monroe preps with 12.

Toledo 51, Siuslaw 46

TOLEDO—Toledo defeated Siuslaw of Florence here Friday night, 51-46, although individual scoring honors went to the losers — Wes Strahn with 16 points. Skip Christiansen paced Toledo with a 15 point performance.

SPRINGFIELD'S FLOYD BURRIGHT (49) tries going in and under for a shot in Tuesday's Springfield-Eugene game, won by the Axemen 81-58. Burright is being followed by Gene Stott of Eugene while Norm Willoughby (Eugene 26) and Springfield's Jack Heacock jockey for rebound position.

TIGERS GAIN PLAYOFF BERTH

Junction City, Willamette Win

Junction City captured the important third-place berth in the District 6-1 basketball race Friday night when the Tigers defeated their competitor for that berth, University, 56-51 at McArthur Court. The Tigers will now meet Creswell with the winner gaining the fourth district tournament position.

In the other Division 1 game, which concluded the 1952-'53 race, Willamette pulled away in the last quarter to defeat Cottage Grove 67-51 on the Wolverine court. The hapless Lions thus wound up their district campaign winless in all 10 starts.

Tigers 56, Tiders 51

The Junction City-University High battle was just that—a battle. With a possible district tournament berth at stake, the Tiders and Tigers were really putting out.

University lost three men via the foul route and the Tigers lost two in the last quarter.

Late in the third quarter it looked like Chuck Deautremont's Tide was flowing in the game-winning direction. The Junctions had led 29-27 at the half but University broke loose its fast break and quickly went into the lead on Dick Nelson's layin. The Tide increased the lead to 33-29 before the Tigers scored to make it 33-32, then Uni-High pulled away to an 8 point margin, 40-32 with five minutes gone.

Bruce Paulson and Don Lowrance hit field goals and Stan Kenyon made two freethrows to pull the Tigers up to a 40-38 third quarter deficit.

Paulson, who led scorers with 21, hit for a couple of his feared jump shots after Jerry Sheets made a layup and a gifter for the Tide and the score was tied at 43-43 early in the final period. Two freethrows put Junction City ahead and then Paulson pushed in a rebound to make it 47-44. Bob Pierce and Nelson made fielders and Nelson added a freethrow to give University High its last lead of the game, 49-47 with 3 minutes to play.

Bill Pollard drove in for a layin, Lowrance dropped one from in close and Pollard calmly hit two gifters to put the Tigers out front 53-49. The Tide pulled up to 53-51 with a minute and 10 seconds to go but Kenyon made two freethrows and Paulson hit another to win the game.

The University B squad squeezed out a 49-48 victory in the prelim. Knowlton of the Tide and Marvin Plesner for Junction each made 15 points.

Will-Hi 67, C-Grove 51

A string of 16 consecutive points in the fourth quarter enabled the Wolverines to break up a tight contest for a comfortable victory. At the close of the third quarter, the Bethel club led 45-39 and then Willamette's Dale Stauffer tossed in three points while Grove's Lowell Radway hit two baskets making the count 48-43 and setting the stage for the point string.

Stauffer's whirl shot, and John McCutcheon's corner hook started off. Then Lowell Slick made two freethrows, McCutcheon connected on another hook, Slick collected two more charities, Ron Sustello pumped in a long side shot, and Don Dienes his twice from the foul line. This outburst, all within three and one-half minutes, made the score 62-45 and finished off the Grovers.

Throughout most of the first half, the visiting Lions set the pace. Ken Sloan's freethrow and Radway's freethrow put them into a quick 3-0 lead. Late in the period, Stauffer made a freethrow and Dienes jumped in a hang-on-the-rim shot from the end line to close the quarter at 14-all.

Sloan's tipin and Bob Dalberg's bank shot put Grove back in front to open the second session. It wasn't until 1:45 was left in the half that the Wolverines pulled ahead 22-21 on Sustello's one-hander from the key. Two more buckets by Sustello and another by McCutcheon gave Willamette a 28-22 intermission bulge.

McCutcheon, with a clever variety of hook and swing shots, paced all scorers with 19 in addition to topnotch board work. Trailing him for Willamette was Sustello with 16. Radway led the Lions with 17.

Cottage Grove, with Norm Abeene scoring 13, won the preliminary 50-42. Terry Gullickson had 11 for the Wolves.

WSC Beats Beavers 56-50

PULLMAN, Wash. (AP)—Washington State's Cougars snapped an 11-game losing streak Friday night by turning back fourth-place Oregon State, 56-50, in a Northern Division basketball tilt.

It was the Cougars' first victory since they downed the Beavers in Corvallis Jan. 6.

Oregon State, failing to take advantage of its greater height, nevertheless dominated the first half. But Washington State surged ahead early in the third period on a pair of field goals by forward Bob Swanson and another by high-point man Pete Mullins.

The basket gave the Cougars a 32-27 lead and they were ahead by no less than four points from then on.

Field goals by Forward Jim Sugrue and Center Ted Romanoff brought the Beavers within four points, 35-39, late in the third period, which ended with the count 42-37.

The Cougars nailed down their second victory in 14 division tries by making good on 10 freethrows in the final period. They led by margins of 49-42, 53-45 and 56-47 as they fought on even terms with the taller Beavers on the backboards and made hay out of the three-minute rule for the first time this year.

Both teams captured 25 rebounds.

Mullins, accounting for 10 of the Cougars' 26 free throws, led all scorers with 20. Guard Ren Bennink followed with 11.

Tony Vlastelica, Oregon State's fine hook shot artist, had a limited number of scoring chances and tallied 13 points—a modest output for him but more than any other Beaver could tally.

Heacock Paces Miller Victory

ROSEBURG—Coach Stan Williamson's Springfield Millers rallied in the second and third periods here Friday night to turn back the Roseburg Indians 64-57 in a non-league basketball game.

Roseburg, with Bud Backen and Beamer hitting from outside, took a 16-12 lead in the first quarter, but the Millers started hitting Jack Heacock with feed-passes that gave the big Springfield center 26 points on hook and jump shots. Springfield was ahead 26-24 at halftime and stretched the advantage to 41-31 going into the final period.

Backen scored 19 points for the scalped Indians.

Trojan forward Ken Flowers sank two crucial last minute free-throws Friday night at Berkeley as University of Southern California defeated league-leading California, 68-66, to remain in the running for the Southern Division basketball title.

UCLA's Bruins also stayed in the race as they defeated Stanford, 75-50, at Los Angeles for their third victory in a row over their northern rivals.

USC 68, Bears 66

California led most of the game but yielded in the final four minutes, chiefly on fouls which gave the Trojans the advantage from the freethrow line. The Trojans sank seven of them.

USC got off to a 9-2 lead in the first three minutes of the game, but the Golden Bears came back to lead 18-14 at the end of the initial period. California led 36-31 at the half and by the end of the third quarter had only a 52-51 margin.

Forward Ed Simpson and Guard Chet Carr led the third period rally for the Trojans, Simpson getting five and Carr sinking for six. Simpson and Center Roy Irvin led the Trojan scoring with 14 each. Forward John Ricksen led the Bears with 13.

UCLA 75, Indians 50

Led by diminutive guard Ronny Livingston, the Bruins ran wild in the first half and smothered Stanford under a barrage of buckets.

They led 16-9 at the end of the first quarter and at the half held a 38-27 advantage. Livingston dropped in seven push shots from the floor with a freethrow for 15 points in the first 20 minutes.

A terrific Bruin defense which Coach Johnny Wooden cooked up for Ron Tomsic, Stanford's ace scorer, slowed Tomsic slightly but wasn't enough to keep him from setting a new all-time Stanford season scoring record.

Tomsic had 451 points going into the battle, and the 16 markers he picked up gave him a total of 467 to break the old mark of 465 set by the great Hank Luisetti in 1938.

Rooks Defeat Druggist Quint

CORVALLIS—Coach Paul Valenti's Oregon State Rooks posted their 16th victory in 17 starts here Friday night, defeating Everybody's Drugs of Eugene, state AAU finalists last year, 56-52 in a game that was close throughout.

Scoring honors went to the two centers, Mel Streeter of the Drugmen and Swede Halbrook of the Rooks, both with 17 points. The count was 16-16 at the end of the first quarter, the Rooks held a 30-25 halftime advantage, and the score was tied again, 41-41, at the end of the third period.

Coach Bob Hamilton's Eugene quintet, favored to gain a state AAU tourney berth, ran out of gas in the closing minutes.

Georgia Araujo Tops DeMarco

NEW YORK (AP) — Matchmaker Billy Brown designated young Georgia Araujo lightweight challenger Saturday because of his split 10-round decision over Paddy DeMarco, the "Brooklyn Billy-goat," before 5,163 at Madison Square Garden.

The 22-year-old speedster from Providence, R.I., out-boxed Paddy consistently Friday night and outfought him at times in their nationally televised and broadcast bout.

Araujo, 133½ pounds, had the better of the milling when he could keep his 135-pound opponent at long range, when he could evade Paddy's rushes and spear him with left jabs or knock him back onto his heels with solid left hooks.

But when Paddy's headlong rushes pinned the fast-stepping Portuguese Negro from Providence against the ropes or in corners, DeMarco's combined head-and-hook attack gave Georgie the worst of it.

"I'm asking promoter Jim Norris to match Araujo with champion James Carter for the title at the Garden in May," matchmaker Brown said. "The New York commission has approved Georgie as a logical contender."

Four-Star Mat Show At Armory Saturday

Al Szasz and Kurt Von Poppenheim meet in the leading match of a double main event on a four-star wrestling program at the Armory arena Saturday night. Von Poppenheim, returning here after setting an enviable record, was turned down for a match against Eric Pedersen, who has promised to meet the winner.

In the other part of the twin headliner, Head-butting Don Kindred, the eastern Negro, meets Gino Nicolini. The semi-final matches Steve Novac against Buck Weaver, and the opener, getting under way at 8:30 p.m., will be a dynamic skirmish between Henry Lenz and Dale Kiser.

Huskies Win ND Crow[n] After Noe Out on Fou[ls]

From AP, UP Services

The Washington Huskies overwhelmed Oregon 8[4-67] Friday night at Seattle to win their third straight North[ern] Division basketball crown and qualify for the confer[ence] title playoffs against the southern zone victor.

The victory was tougher than the score indicated. Oregon, led by its fine center Chet Noe, held Washin[gton] during the first three per[iods]. The score at the halftime [was] 37-36, Washington.

Noe did a great defensi[ve job] on Washington's All-Americ[a can]didate Bob Houbregs, who [got] but 16 points, second low[est for] him this season. Noe's effo[rts]

No. Division	W	L	Pct.	Pts.
Washington	13	0	1.000	[illegible]
Oregon	8	5	.615	[illegible]
Idaho	6	7	.462	[illegible]
Oregon State	4	9	.308	[illegible]
Wash. State	2	12	.143	[illegible]

him out of the game on fo[uls in] the final six minutes, howe[ver].

Guard Charlie Koon took [over] to spark the Washington se[cond] half drive. He scored 17 p[oints].

The victory, Washington's [13th] in a row and 23rd of the s[eason] against only one loss, was a [rugged] affair.

Noe was high for Oregon [with] 19. Barney Holland had 1[7 and] Ken Wegner 10.

With its chief gunner held —almost his low for the sea[son]— Washington called on its l[ong] range artillery to salt dow[n its] 13th straight division tri[umph]. UCLA held Big Bobby, whose av[erage] is 25.6 for the season, t[o] points in an early game.

A turnaway crowd of 11,8[00 saw] Washington clinch the crow[n and] earn the conference title pl[ayoff] berth against the southern di[vision] winner.

Not until Noe bowed out on [per]sonal fouls with seven minu[tes of] play remaining could Washi[ngton] break away for a really saf[e lead]. At that moment Washington [was] leading 65-58.

Oregon made it a battle [all] through the first half and t[railed] by only one point, at 37-36, [at inter]cess. Up to that time, the [lead] had changed hands four times [and] the count was tied on three [occa]sions. Oregon never led by [more] than three points, holding [the] edge three times late in the [open]ing half.

Third-ranked nationally and [op]erating under a vow to w[in all] their conference games, Wa[shing]ton's Huskies were running a [ris]ing temperature when they [came] back out for the second [half]. Quickly they boosted their le[ad to] 45-37 and the Oregonians [only] once in the entire second [half] could pull as close as three p[oints].

Houbregs got nine of h[is] points after Noe had fouled [out].

The Huskies, third ranked [na]tionally, will meet the winn[er of] the Southern Division in a [best]-of-three series in Seattle M[arch] 6-7, and 9 if needed, for the [con]ference crown and a berth in [the] NCAA Western Regionals at [Cor]vallis, March 13-14.

They'll try to make it 14 in a [row on] home floor Saturday night, [while] across the state at Pullman [the] Washington State Cougars [will] gun for their third league [win in] the close-out of their two[-game] series with Oregon State.

Drain, Elkton Win in Tourney

Drain and Elkton gained berths in next week's Douglas County B basketball tournament at Glide by capturing victories Friday night in the North Douglas sub-county tourney at Drain.

Elkton claimed a 41-35 verdict over Yoncalla, while Drain came from behind in the final quarter to beat Oakland, 36-33. The two winners and the two losers will tangle Saturday night.

ELKTON 41, YONCALLA 35

Ron Henderer's long field goal a few seconds before halftime put Elkton in front to stay, 20-19. Yoncalla had led, 12-8, after the first quarter but Elkton moved back in front, 16-14, midway in the second period before falling behind again. Elkton held a 32-28 advantage at the end of the third quarter.

Henderer garnered 13 and John Beckley 12 for the winners, while Don Vest tallied 15 for Yoncalla.

DRAIN 36, OAKLAND 33

Dave Swearingen staged a one-man show in the final quarter to assure victory for Drain. He broke an Oakland stall with three minutes to go and added six points before the final gun.

Oakland, leading by 29-28, began its stall early in the period and kept possession until Swearingen stole the ball and dashed down court for a lay-in. He added two freethrows to give Drain a 32-29 margin but Dale Marshall countered with a fielder for Oakland.

Drain's Dick Joslyn and Oakland's Gary Blaylock traded a fielder apiece before Swearingen hit again from the field for the final margin.

Joslyn led the winners with 12 while Swearingen had 11 and Marshall netted 9 for Oakland.
