Fire Destroys Greene Barn

IRVING—Fire destroyed the large barn on the Guy Greene place on Aubrey Lane Saturday evening, attracting large crowds of thrill-seekers who saw flames from Highway 99.
 Destroyed was the barn and about 30 tons of alfalfa hay. But firefighters from the Irving and Bethel departments saved a chicken house which caught fire.
 A neighbor saw the flames and alerted fire fighters. The same neighbor helped lead 10 bulls and 50 hogs from the barn.
 The crowds which flocked to the fire greatly hampered firefighters. Amidst heavy rain which did not help, the fire spread to overflow, the fire fighters blocked all access to the fire and resulted in a fire truck and a tow truck being off the road into ditches.
 Loss was not estimated. Greene reported several thousand dollars insurance on the barn.

Brodie Twin To Go Home For Christmas

CHICAGO (AP)—This will be the first Christmas at home for 27-month-old Rodney Brodie, the survivor of Brodie Siamese twins.
 Doctors at the University of Illinois Research Hospital gave their approval Sunday to the request of Rodney's parents to take him home for the holidays.
 The jubilant parents immediately set out by car with him for their farm home near Ferris, Ill., where the little boy can become better acquainted with his four brothers and sisters.
 "We have no special plans," Mrs. Brodie said before leaving. "Our Christmas will be similar to that in most homes."
 "We have looked forward to this for a long time," said the father.
 "The entire family will be present for the first time."
 Rodney has lived in hospitals since birth, first at St. Anthony's in Rock Island, where he and his twin Roger were born, then at the research hospital in Chicago. Roger died 34 days after an operation separated them Dec. 17, 1952.

STUDENTS TO PIONEER IN CO-ED CALENDARS

ALBUQUERQUE (AP)—Thousands of men each year take a look at artistic girls on spicy calendars and sigh: "Now, what could be prettier?"
 "A college coed," scream three 20-year-old University of New Mexico juniors in answer. "And we're quitting school to prove it."
 The three, Wally Deckert of Springfield, S. D., Larry Ross of Albuquerque, and Hank Edwards of Chapel Hill, N. C., are in dead earnest. They've put out their first calendar with photos of scantily clad coeds in place of the painted long-legged beauties.
 "This isn't just a crazy Joe College stunt," said Deckert, a mechanical engineering student.
 "We've already got our first calendar on the market here. They're going like hot cakes."
 The trio had to convince the university, the parents of 11 of the 12 coeds who were under 21, and a censorship board.
 "The university was tough," Deckert said. "The coeds were a cinch. The parents took some talking, but the censorship board—oh, brother!"
 Ross, a biology student, dropped by to see Deckert last month.
 "One thing led to another," said Deckert. "The next thing we knew we decided to make a calendar using college coeds as the cover."
 The calendars—financed by advertising—feature a coed above each month and a cartoon alongside the dates. Not all the girls show their legs—a concession to the censorship board—but most do.
 "But none are suggestive," Deckert said. "The censorship board took care of that. A board made up of two deans and only one student can be pretty tough. They junked four pictures. I still can't see why, but I guess they had their reasons."
 "We copyrighted our calendar and we're going to put one out next year. Then, in 1955, we'll go into the national field. I've quit school already and Hank and Larry are going to quit. Another buddy is going in with us."
