

MUSCLES FOR BRITAIN'S AIR ARM—To help NATO nations increase their air strength in Europe, Britain has added two new planes to her air force. The tailless Short Sherpa, a bat-like jet, above, is designed to probe the problem of ultra-high-speed flight. The Seamew, below, is a new antisubmarine aircraft which can operate from escort and aircraft carriers. Both planes, shown in flight over Belfast, Ireland, will now go into production for the Royal Navy.

TRIPLE CURIOSITY—The triple curiosity of these 11-month-old identical triplets just couldn't be put off until Christmas. That is why they are seen here making ribbons and pretty paper fly under the tree in their San Diego, Calif., home. Left to right are Pamela, Patricia and Priscilla, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Harris.

SLICK CHICK—Luscious is the word for "Miss Southern Fried Chicken of 1953," as seen in the Hasty Pudding Club's 106th production "Ad Man Out." The part played by Harry Beckwith, of Newton, Mass., was one of the top hits of the Harvard University show, performed in Cambridge, Mass., by guys in dolls' clothing.
