

Will Hays, Former Movie Czar, Dies

LULLIVAN, Ind. (AP)—Will H. figure in politics and the movie industry, he kept his home and law office in Sullivan and voted here.

He had been in good health until a pneumonia attack a year ago, then returned from his New York home last fall because of his heart ailment.

His genius in reorganizing the Republican party in Indiana sent him up to the national chairman's job to reunite the party, still bearing the wounds of the Bull Moose split.

His success brought a landslide victory for Harding in 1920, and Harding named him postmaster general.

CLOUD OF SCANDALS

Hays left the Cabinet job in 1922 to clean up the Hollywood film industry, then under a cloud of movie colony scandals. He served 24 years as the $150,000-a-year president of the Motion Picture Producers & Distributors of America.

Though he retired from the Hollywood job to his law practice in 1945, the "Hays office" code of good taste in movies remained entrenched until recently, when signs of rebellion began to appear.

His wife Jessie and his only son, by a former marriage, Will Hays Jr. of Crawfordville, Ind., were at his deathbed.

Demos Endorse James Roosevelt

LOS ANGELES (AP)—James Roosevelt, accused by his estranged wife of being a philanderer, has won the endorsement of the Democratic party as its candidate for Congress in the 26th District.

Prior to the endorsement by the 26th District Democratic Council, made by acclamation on the second ballot, the 46-year-old insurance executive said in a speech that he decided to enter the race to "obliterate" charges against him and "slurs against the of the Democratic party as its ideals of my father."

Store Founder Dies

ENGLEWOOD, N.J. (AP)—John J. Newberry, founder and board chairman of a huge national chain of variety stores, died Saturday night at his home after a long illness. He was 76.

The company bearing his name operates 475 stores in 45 states.

TWO CHOICES

The eldest son of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt made no specific reference to his wife's sensational separate maintenance suit, but he did say Sunday night, "Personal questions are being used not only against me but against the Democratic party."

He added that the "questions" left him two choices, either to retire from public life, which he said would acknowledge "evidence of guilt and lack of courage," or:

"To come before the people and get elected to Congress and make a record which forever would be an answer to any smears the opposition would make."

In her suit, Mrs. Romelle Roosevelt, 38, named three co-respondents and filed a letter signed by Roosevelt and admitting infidelities with nine other women. He has denied all the charges, saying he was forced to sign the letter in 1945 to prevent his wife from divorcing him and thus adding to the burdens of his father as president.

He was in the running for the party's backing. But Roosevelt's only serious competition came from Jerry Pacht, son of a former Superior Court judge. Pacht trailed Roosevelt by only 12 votes on the first ballot and finally lost by only 14 on the second, when Roosevelt got 91—only one more than the 90 required for endorsement.

However, after Roosevelt received 91 votes, Pacht moved that the endorsement be made unanimous. The 197 delegates responded with a roar of applause.
