

Vows Read In Afternoon

JUNCTION CITY—Miss Loreta Anderson and Donald Johnson were married March 14, in the Junction City Faith Lutheran Church. The Rev. Harold E. Olsen, pastor, performed the 2 p.m. double-ring ceremony. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Anderson of Junction City. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Johnson of Central Point.

Arrangements of pink carnations and heather and white altar candles were used for decoration. Miss Vanetta Lint sang "Because" and "O Promise Me," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Dean McKay.

Mr. Anderson gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a grey wool suit with black and white accessories and carried a lavender orchid on her white Rainbow Bible.

Mrs. C. A. Lewis of Central Point was matron of honor, wearing a lavender swiss polka dot organdy dress and a band of white carnations in her hair. She carried white carnations with purple streamers on a white Testament. Bridesmaids were Miss Barbara Anderson, a cousin from Kent, Wash., and Miss Donetta Lint. They wore Nile green organdy gowns and carried white carnations with green streamers on nurse's Testaments.

Roland K. Johnson, brother of the bridegroom, was best man, and ushers were Lawrence Loeffler, brother-in-law of the bridegroom from Central Point, and Merlyn Anderson, the bride's brother.

At the reception which followed in the parish hall, Mrs. Lawrence Loeffler cut the cake. Mrs. Ben Anderson and Mrs. Alvin Anderson, aunts of the bride, poured. Mrs. Walter Howard had the guest book, and Miss Alveta and Miss Karna Anderson, cousins of the bride, cared for gifts.

After a honeymoon on the Oregon coast, the couple will be at home in Alameda, Calif. Mrs. Johnson is a graduate of Junction City High School and the Dental Nurses Training School of San Francisco. Mr. Johnson is a graduate of Gold Hill High School and now is with the U. S. Navy.

Out-of-town guests included the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Anderson from Kent, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Ben Anderson also from Kent, Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Anderson of Clatskanie and Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Johnson of Central Point. A number of other out-of-town guests were included in the wedding party.

Air Force Man Wed in Florida

Heart-shaped decorations of white gladiolus and greenery with palms decorated First Baptist Church of Melbourne, Fla., for the wedding of Miss Betty Jo Willis of Melbourne and A-3-C Christian W. Lee of Patrick Air Force Base, Cocoa Beach, Fla., Feb. 21. The double ring ceremony was performed by Dr. H. D. Frink.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Willis of Melbourne, and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Magnum Lee of Springfield.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white Chantilly lace and tulle over satin. Her tiered illusion veil was attached to a half bonnet of crystal pleated illusion. She carried a bouquet of lily-of-the-valley and white illusion, centered by a white orchid.

All bridal attendants were of Florida. Miss Mary B. Goodwin, Miss Eva Marie Evers, Miss Alice Laverick and the bride's little cousin, Sharon Alecia Nogel as flower girl. Friends of groom stationed at PAFB were groomsmen, William Larson as best man, William Rice and Paul Ullman as ushers.

A reception took place in the breezeway of the church. For their wedding trip to Daytona Beach the bride wore a blue linen suit with the orchid from her bridal bouquet. The couple is at home on Indian River Bluff, Melbourne.

The bride, a graduate of Melbourne High School, is employed at the Bank of Melbourne. The groom was graduated from Springfield High School and attended University of Oregon.

Filipino to Speak To AAUW Group

Recent graduate group of American Association of University Women will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. John Cockrell, 1624 Washington St.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Natividad Malolos of the Philippines, international fellowship student who is studying at University of Oregon.

Home Science Club Due at Smith Home

Home Science Club will meet Monday at 2:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Fred E. Smith, 1087 19th Ave. East. Mrs. David Graham will have charge of the program.

Nuptial Mass at St. Alice Church

Miss Leona (Lee) Falkowski and George Huster, both of Springfield, were married Feb. 27 in St. Alice Catholic Church in Springfield. The Rev. Louis Sobler, pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony at 11 o'clock in a nuptial Mass. The bride is the daughter of John Falk and the late Mrs. Falk of Springfield. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. George B. Huster of Williams, Ariz.

Mr. Falk escorted his daughter to the altar. Lace applique was around the high neck and down each side of her satin bodice, with self buttons to the waist. The full skirt of her gown was of net. Seed pearls decorated the lace cap which held a nylon fingertip veil. She carried a white orchid with satin streamers on a white prayerbook. Later, she placed her bouquet at the feet of the Madonna statue.

The groom's sister, Mrs. Joseph Kirschvink of Salt Lake City, was matron-of-honor. She wore a floor-length dress of yellow nylon with stole, white hat and long white gloves. Her flowers were a nosegay of yellow and white carnations.

Kenneth Falk, brother of the bride, was best man and ushers were Arthur Harbaugh and Lloyd Albright of Springfield. Church decorations were baskets of yellow daffodils and white snapdragons. Mrs. Larry Dilley played organ music and accompanied the church choir which sang "Ave Maria" and "Our Father Who Art in Heaven."

A reception was in the Springfield American Legion Hall. Cake was cut by Mrs. Arthur Harbaugh; Mrs. Russell Page and Miss Nancy LaJoie poured punch, and Mrs. Lloyd Albright presented the guest book. All are of Springfield. A sister-in-law of the groom, Mrs. William Huster of Williams, Ariz., poured coffee.

For their wedding trip to California the bride wore a brown suit with white accessories and the orchid corsage from her wedding bouquet.

The couple is at home in Springfield where both are employed. They are residing at 818 F St.

The bride formerly lived at Bend. The groom attended the University of Colorado.

Out-of-state guests for the wedding included the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Huster, his sister-in-law, Mrs. William Huster, all of Williams, Ariz., and his sister, Mrs. Kirschvink and daughters, Lily Jean and Mary of Salt Lake City.

Simple Rite Marries Pair

JUNCTION CITY—Sixty-one guests were in attendance at the wedding of Mrs. Verna I. Black and Charles S. Waterhouse of Junction City, Sunday, March 7. Rev. R. E. Clark of Eugene, retired Congregational minister, performed the 10 a.m. ceremony at the home of the bridegroom's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. James McManus, in Santa Clara.

The bride was given in marriage by her son, Jack Black of Florence. She wore a grey suit and hat and a corsage of pink and white carnations. Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. James McManus. Mrs. McManus wore a black afternoon dress and a corsage of red and white carnations. Bouquets of daffodils were placed about the room for decoration.

At the reception which followed, Mrs. Douglas Huey, the bride's daughter, cut the cake. Mrs. Ernest Smyth and Miss Muriel McManus poured the coffee, and Mrs. Jake King and Mrs. James McManus assisted with the serving. Mrs. King also cared for the guest book.

Mrs. Waterhouse is a retired schoolteacher and Mr. Waterhouse is employed at the Hult Lumber Co. in Junction City. They now are at home on Star Route near Junction City.

MRS. GEORGE HUSTER (Leona Falkowski) is bride in a nuptial Mass performed recently in St. Alice Catholic Church in Springfield. The couple is at home there.

MRS. CHRISTIAN W. LEE (Betty Jo Willis of Melbourne, Fla.) is the bride of A 3/c Christian W. Lee, formerly of Springfield, now stationed at Melbourne.

Pair Wed In Japan

CAMP TOKYO, JAPAN—At a military wedding ceremony in Tokyo, Japan, Feb. 13, Miss Mary L. Keen, 25, and 1st Lt. Gay F. Baldwin, 25, both of Eugene, were married in the Camp Drake Army Chapel. Chaplain (Lt. Col.) George Almond performed the double-ring nuptials. Afterwards the newlywed couple greeted friends at a reception in the Camp Drake Officers' Club.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Keen, 2060 Emerald St., and the bridegroom's mother is Mrs. Ruth Baldwin, of 951 Alder St., Eugene. Mrs. Baldwin currently is living at The Knoll, Ames, Ia.

Maid of honor was Mrs. Norton L. Parks, of Chicago. 1st Lt. Norton L. Parks, was best man and the ushers included 1st Lt. Robert L. Harper, Dalagona, Ga., and 2nd Lt. Daniel Olin, Alexis, Ill. The bride was given by CWO Robert W. Schultz, of Seattle.

The couple traveled to Nikko, Japan, located about 90 miles from Tokyo, for their honeymoon.

Lt. Baldwin currently is assigned to Company A, Camp Drake Replacement Depot. Prior to being stationed in Japan he spent 12 months in Korea, and earlier was at Camp Roberts, Cal. He is a graduate of the University of Oregon.

The bride attended University of Oregon and was associated with a Eugene department store before coming to Japan by plane for the wedding.

After returning from their honeymoon, the couple will live in Tokyo.

Rites Said at Reno

OAKLAND—Miss Karen Roberson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Roberson, and Lyle Beecroft, son of Mrs. Francis Todd, were married March 2 in Reno, Nev.

The bride is a senior in Oakland High School and the bridegroom is a graduate of the same school, Class of 1953.

They were accompanied to Reno by Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Beham.

Wedding First In New Church

YONCALLA — Miss Dolores Sanders of Los Angeles and Charles Hughes of Long Beach, Calif., were married at Yoncalla Church of Christ March 12, the first wedding to take place in the new church. James Loyd, a student at Northwest Christian College, performed the ceremony at 8 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Otho Sanders of Yoncalla are parents of the bride and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. John Hughes and the late Mr. Hughes, also of Yoncalla.

Mr. Sanders gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of white net and lace over taffeta, fashioned with sweetheart neckline on a fitted bodice. With it she wore white mits and a fingertip veil held by a cap of lace matching that in the bridal gown. She carried a white Bible topped by a lavender orchid and fern with yellow and white ribbon streamers.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Gene Beck of Sutherlin, was matron-of-honor, wearing pink net and carrying a bouquet of yellow and white carnations. Bridesmaids were Miss Phyllis Robinson of Salem and Miss Nancy Thompson of Yoncalla.

The home of the bride's parents was the scene of the wedding reception. Mrs. Glenda Stewart of Sutherlin, Miss Nancy Thompson and the mothers of the wedding couple served. The tiered wedding cake was made by Mrs. D. Benner.

For their wedding trip to Los Angeles the bride wore a navy suit with navy accessories. They will live in that city, where the groom is stationed with the U. S. Navy.

Orides Mothers In Springfield

Orides Mothers Club of the University of Oregon will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. D. R. Fullerton, 136 B St. Springfield. Members are reminded that there is important business.

WEDDING INVITATIONS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS Buy Them at Eugene's Headquarters Koke-Chapman Co. 73 East Broadway Ph. 5-0103

Fine DIAMONDS Reasonably Priced Diamond Wedding Rings SPECIAL DESIGNING Platinum—White Gold Yellow Gold GUARANTEED EXPERT WATCH REPAIRING

HERBERT OLSON JEWELER 175 EAST BROADWAY DIAL 4-5353

talk about FIT . . .

talk about FLARE . . .

There's nothing smarter for the young figure than this wonderful, wearable coat in 100% wool Tropicant... made to your figure (and priced to your budget, too!)

Fitted coat as sketched 49.75

FORT & CO. SPRINGFIELD'S Ladies' Apparel Store

Shop in Springfield . . . where parking is easier . . .

DERALD H. PARKS (Dolores Johnson) of Kennewick, is to be at home at Vida. The couple was married March 13 at Richland, Wash.

Derald Parks Brings Bride

Baskets of white and pale gladiolus and candelabra white tapers decorated the altar of Northwest United Methodist Church, Richland, for the wedding of Miss Dolores Johnson of Kennewick, Wash., to Derald H. Parks of Eugene, March 13. About 75 guests witnessed the double-ring ceremony performed by the Rev. Holly Jarvis, pastor.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Olaf S. Johnson of Kennewick and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Claire Parks of Eugene.

The bride wore a ballerina gown of white Chantilly over satin, the bodice fastened with long sleeves and a V-neck with sequin embroidered collar. A full lace skirt gathered over one of tulle. A half-hat, embroidered in seed pearls, and rhinestones, held her fingertip veil of

Alton-Baker Exchanged Vows

ESWELL—Miss June Oline Alton of Oxnard, Calif., became the bride of Marion Marshall Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Walton of Creswell, at a ceremony in St. Paul's Catholic Church in Oxnard, Sunday, March 7. The Rev. Richard Hall read the vows in a single ceremony.

The bride wore a white lace, train-length dress with white streamers and red rosebud corsage. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. LaPort, Ind. Mrs. Edna Miller, as matron of honor, wore a lavender blue ball-length dress.

The reception took place at the Hotel, Oxnard. After a short trip, the couple will make their home at Oxnard. The groom is attending the naval school of the Navy at Merger, Fort Huenene.

Mothers to Meet

The Delta Theta Mothers Club will meet Thursday at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Marion Cloud, E. 20th Ave.

Arabia from Finland... ours EXCLUSIVELY...

For the unusual and smart table setting we suggest one of the many designs by Arabia... renowned maker of Finnish Faience.

Pictured in Windflower... softly hued flowers in blue, yellow and green with accents of red... handpainted under the glaze on blue-grey Finnish Faience.

5 piece place setting 8.50

GIFT DEPT., 2nd FLOOR

Russell's

WOMEN'S OWN STORE