Miss Margaret McGee Returns to Washington

Miss Margaret McGee, who spent part of her vacation here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McGee, left Saturday on the return trip to Washington, D. C., where she is in the service of the department of state. She will stop in Wyoming en route.

A friend, Miss Katharine Mack of Salem, Mass., also with the department of state, who had visited here at the McGee home, left the same day for San Francisco for a visit before returning East.

Miss McGee, a graduate of University of Oregon and member of Alpha Xi Delta sorority, has been in government work for seven years. In 1947 she went to Lima, Peru, for her first assignment. She remained there until 1950, when she returned to the United States. From December, 1950, to March, 1953, her assignment was in Belgrade, Yugoslavia.

'Ideal Ladies' Honored By King's Daughters

The 60 members of Junior High King's Daughters gave an "Ideal Ladies Tea" the afternoon of May 23.

The girls' group is a missionary club of First Baptist Church under the leadership of Mrs. William Heacock. Each girl secretly chooses an "ideal lady" with whom she corresponds and identities are revealed at the tea. Women and girls met at the tea under a large archway decorated with roses, where each King's Daughter presented her Ideal Lady with a ceramic Bible plaque which she had painted.

Mrs. Jesse Forster of Salem and Mrs. Fred Thomas, president of Philathea Circle, poured and Mrs. Fred Rady, president of Talitha Cumi Circle, cut the cake.
