WHO GOT THE REFUND?
 SEATTLE (AP)—Fred H. Post has drunk over 4,000 bottles of beer in the past year, his wife Laurel said in a divorce complaint filed in Superior Court Thursday.

How does she know?
 She took the empties to the store to sell them.

The Posts have been married 30 years but there was no estimate of his consumption during that period.

'Mutiny' Star Bowled Over By Film VIPs

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A postman's son has been given star billing in his first acting job, but he confessed Saturday when he first saw himself on the screen "it was pretty nauseating."

Some critics hail handsome Robert Francis as a new hero of the celluloid after his portrayal of Willie Keith in "The Caine Mutiny." But the tall, collegiate-looking Francis' first reaction, when he saw himself stacked up against Humphrey Bogart, Fred MacMurray and Van Johnson in one of the top pictures of the year, was to feel ill.

"But it's exciting," he grinned. "I am going to try my best to live up to all this. I didn't feel nervous working with them in my first picture because it all happened so fast."

A MALE CINDERELLA
 Francis is a true male Cinderella in the glitter city. His story is the kind that lures young hopefuls every year to grab for that elusive stardom. Many players battle for years before capturing a top film role. But Francis passed up all the struggles.

The 24-year-old had never acted in his life before he faced the cameras as a star of "The Caine Mutiny."

After two years at Pasadena City College near his home in suburban San Marino, Robert and his brother ran a ski supply shop.

SPOTTED BY SCOUT
 "We gave that up in 1949," he said. "I was in a quandary as to what business to get into. One day a Universal-International talent scout saw me at the beach and asked me to come out for an interview."

"I went to the studio for a briefing. It was intriguing. I figured I'd make $250,000 fast and then get out of the business. But I fell flat on my face. I was no good."

"It was a challenge. I went to a drama coach. She advised me not to go near the studios for a year, just work with her."

SERVED IN NAVY
 But after a year he was called to the Navy. Two years later, he returned. His drama coach's husband was the coach at Columbia studios. He took Bob to see producer Stanley Kramer, and after a three-hour chat, Kramer announced he had found his Willie Keith.

"When I first went to the coach, I couldn't speak a word on her stage," the actor said. "To me it amounted to making an exhibitionist out of myself. I wasn't the bit. But eventually you gain confidence with experience."

"The drama coach and her husband are like second parents to me. I owe everything to them."

Van Johnson Leaving MGM

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Van Johnson is leaving his 12-year contract at MGM, but the parting is on a friendly basis.

"They've already sent me three scripts to do," says the actor. After lengthy negotiations he decided against signing on again with an exclusive contract. He has made a deal with Columbia for one picture a year for the next five years.

His first assignment as a freelancer will be "End of The Affair," which will be filmed this summer in England. He'll co-star with another former contractee from MGM, Deborah Kerr.

State Delays Attack On Spruce Budworm

SALEM (AP)—The final assault on the tree-killing spruce budworm in Eastern Oregon has been postponed until June 20 because of the bad weather, the State Forestry Department reports.

The last remaining heavy concentration of the insects is 15 miles south of La Grande. They will be sprayed with DDT within the next month.

The spraying program, begun in 1949, will end this year. More than three million acres have been sprayed.
