departments in the general fund actually received budget increases. These included district attorney's office, court, election department, department, parks and recreation department, sheriff's office and slight increases in several other departments.
Lane's total budget, only 20 percent is financed with tax money. The remaining 80 percent comes from non-property sources such as timber receipts, gas apportionment, and like.
The new assessed valuations compiled by Assessor George W. Smith will not be possible to make the county's millage rate. The county assessor's office is currently working on the figures.

Twins' Chance Rated 'Poor'

BONIFACE, Man. (A)—The twins who delivered the Mosseau twins rated their survival chances Saturday as "poor," although they could live for some time.

R. L. Howden, who attended the 25-year-old Mrs. Yvonne Mosseau Thursday night when she gave birth to the twins and a normal, healthy boy, said there was no way to separate the twins because of the way they were joined.

Joined at the lower abdomen, the twins share several vital organs and pelvis and two complete legs. A third leg is malformed. They are in an incubator.

Mrs. Mosseau's husband, Victor, 33, is a locomotive engineer.

cause, he said, that "in a very short while this mathematically certain 'take' can drain a community of every dollar available for betting."

(Dog racing, but not pay-off slots, is allowed under Oregon law. But the State Racing Commission, with some legislative backing, has indicated that they will abide by the will of a particular community in issuing licenses for tracks.)

A track's ability to "strip" a community may be the reason for seeking to locate near Eugene, Venn said.

"Parl-mutual operators themselves prefer short racing seasons as they know from experience that the greedy appetite of their system 'take' soon leaves little money to be wagered and so they prefer to move on to greener fields," he said, pointing out that "Unquestionably, that is the reason why Lane County has been selected."

This systematic impoverishment of bettors must lead to less commerce, he stated. "Beginning in fewer purchases and slower collection for the retailer, it would in turn be felt by the wholesaler and the manufacturer as well as by the landlords, service trades and professions," he said.

Spies for U.S. Get 25 Years

MOSCOW (A)—Two "American spies" have been sentenced to 25 years in prison by the Supreme Court of the Soviet Union, Pravda announced Sunday. The Communist Party newspaper said the two men had been spirited into Murmansk with the aid of Norwegian officials.

Pravda identified the alleged spies as Vladimir Constanovich Galai and Juri Alexandrovich Khramtzev.

The story said Galai deserted from the Soviet army in Austria, contacted American intelligence in Vienna and was sent to a "spy school" under the name of Lawrence O. Johnson.

The account said Khramtzev left the Soviet sector of East Berlin, was picked up by Americans in the Western sector and sent to a "spy school" under the name of Gregory Vasilov.

Red Cross Plans Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Lane County Chapter of the American Red Cross will be held at the Veterans' Memorial Building, 16th and Willamette St., Thursday, June 17.

The session will begin with a dinner at 6:30 p.m. A regular report of operations for the past year will be given afterward.

Eldon Woodin, chairman of the local board of directors, said "This is one time of the year that all Red Cross members meet at one time to conduct their elections of board members and give recognition to the many volunteers who have worked so diligently the past year. An excellent program has been planned for this meeting and it will be an outstanding event of the year."

If It Rains . . .

In the event of rain, the platform party faculty are requested to assemble for the commencement procession in the passage way under the Hayward Field east grandstand.

The degree candidates will also assemble in the east grandstand. Signs there will direct them to their appropriate groups.

Participants are asked to be at the designated places at 1:45 p.m. The platform and faculty line will form in double file beginning at the south door to the grandstand.

A public address system in front of Johnson Hall will direct the participants.

If the day is clear, original directions to assemble on the old campus will be followed.

Councilman Undecided on Running for Re-election

Ray F. Siegenthaler, Eugene city councilman since 1950, said Saturday that "at the moment" he is not planning to seek re-election to the council in the November general election.

Siegenthaler, of Ward 4—the southwest section of Eugene—is one of four councilmen whose terms expire at the end of this year. All of the others were still expressing doubt Saturday as to whether they will try to keep their council seats for another four years.

They are Council President Calvin Crumbaker, of Ward 2; Councilman Larry Watson, Ward 3; and Councilman Carl Koppe, of Ward 1.

Siegenthaler, 41, has been one of the more active councilmen during his term of office. He is chairman of the council's public safety committee and a member of the finance and airport committees.

He said Saturday that the council has been "too much work lately" and that it is taking much time from his insurance business. But he left the door open when he added that the final decision will be up to his partner in the business, James R. Stevenson.

And there is still more than two months left before the final filing date on Aug. 24.

Crumbaker, a veteran councilman with more than 11 years of service, said he is not so sure he will continue. But he too left the door open for later comment.

Larry Watson, new to the council in 1950, said he would like to seek office again, but that business interests may force him to drop out before the filing deadline. "I just haven't made up my mind yet," he commented.

But Carl Koppe, also on the council since 1950, indicated that he might also quit this year. He said he is still "on the fence" on election plans, but that the council work is taking increasingly more time from his real estate associations.

Koppe has been a member of the Eugene planning commission prior to election to the council. He feels that eight years of service may be enough time to devote to the community groups.
