

Women's Golf Meet

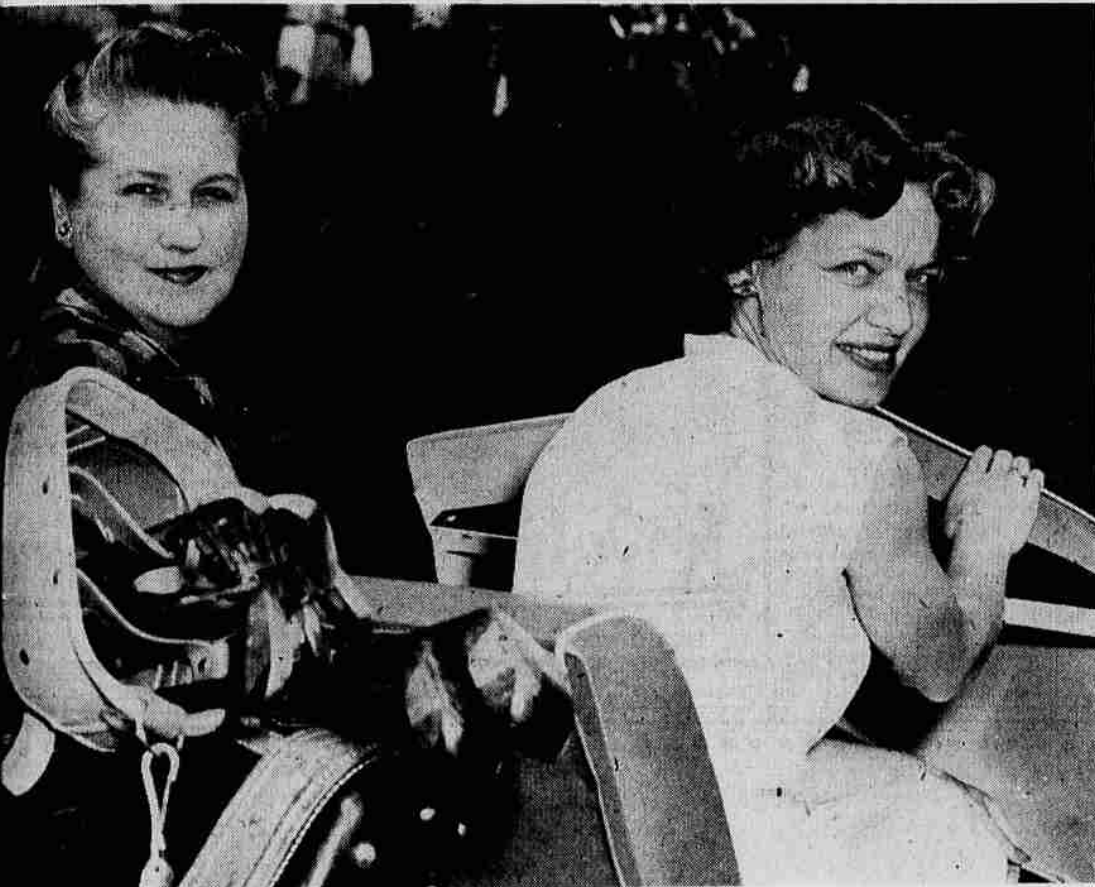

OFFICERS AND BOARD MEMBERS of the Willamette Valley-Southern Oregon Golf Assn., which held its meet a week ago at Laurelwood Golf and Country Club, are shown here against a background of the greens: From left, they are: Mrs. David Evans, Eugene Country Club, permanent honorary member of the board, as organizer; Mrs. J. W. McCracken, alternate for Mrs. Willis Shepherd, Eugene Country Club delegate; Mrs. Clarence Urey, Eugene Country Club delegate; Mrs. Clyde Saylor, Laurelwood delegate; Mrs. Edgar Thompson, Coos Bay, treasurer; Miss Beverley Steel, secretary and Laurelwood delegate; Mrs. W. A. Grimsley, Bend, vice president; Mrs. Marvin Nerseth, Klamath Falls, president.

WINNERS A DIVISION: From left, Mrs. A. C. Stipe, Bend, low net; Mrs. W. W. Davies, Medford, low gross.

TWO GENERATIONS of golfers: Mrs. Belle Schenck and her daughter, Mrs. W. W. Davies, both of Medford, turn in scores to Pro Dave Killen. Mrs. Davies is former OGA champion, and plays "scratch golf" (no handicap), while her mother plays with a handicap of 6.

0 "VIP'S" — Mrs. H. L. Nebergall, left, general chairman of Women's Committee, Eugene Country Club; Mrs. Elton Embrey, president of Women's Group, Laurelwood Club.

WINNERS IN B AND C DIVISION were, left to right: Mrs. Gus Hixson, Eugene Country Club, low net B; Mrs. Bruce Pringey, Eugene Country Club, low net C; Mrs. Bob Alexander, Corvallis, low gross B; Mrs. Harry Kern, Coos Bay, low gross C.

SNACK BETWEEN NINES: Mrs. Edward Siegmund, left, and Mrs. Preston Coursen, both of Eugene Country Club, enjoy a quick "bite and sup" with Mrs. George Calderwood, right, of Laurelwood club.