Welfare League Records Huge Annual Hours Sum

A total of 14,152 volunteer hours of community service was contributed locally by members of Eugene Welfare League in the year ending June 1. This equals 5.8 years, on a basis of the 40-hour work week, it is pointed out. This figure was announced by the retiring president, Mrs. Lynn S. McCready, at the annual Welfare League luncheon meeting at Eugene Country Club. At the same time, Mrs. McCready welcomed seven new members into the League, bringing the active membership total to 100. New members are: Mrs. Robert Davis, Mrs. Don DeRemer, Mrs. Scott Ferguson, Mrs. Roy Gillespie, Mrs. Richard Rinde, Mrs. Herbert Robbins and Mrs. George Skele.

In keeping with the spring atmosphere, the tables were decorated with shiny ivy leaves interlaced with flowers, and each table had as centerpiece a gaily festooned bird cage, in most of which were parakeets, who reportedly observed the proceedings with aplomb. Total attendance at the luncheon was about 155, according to Mrs. Howard A. Moller, luncheon chairman.

Highlight of this year's luncheon was the introduction of the Welfare League officers for the ensuing year. Mrs. E. H. Wood will be president, aided by the following: Mrs. Dale Fischer, vice-president; Mrs. L. T. Campbell, recording secretary; Mrs.
