

Miss Loretta White Bride of Raymond A. Galvin

Nuptial Mass at 9 a.m. Saturday, June 5, married Miss Loretta White, daughter of Mrs. May White of Creswell, to Raymond Anthony Galvin. He is son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Galvin of River Loop 2, Eugene. The ceremony was read by the Rev. William McLeod in St. Mary's Catholic Church.

The bride wore a dress of yellow dotted nylon, floor length. She carried yellow and pink carnations, and wore matching headdress.

Bridesmaids were Miss Mary Bricher of Cottage Grove and Miss Mary Ann Laherty of Eugene. Their gowns were of pink dotted nylon, and their flowers were pink and yellow carnations. They also wore headdresses.

Flower girl was Kathleen VanBurger of Coquille, great niece of the bride, in a dress of blue dotted nylon, carrying a basket of spring flowers. Wayne VanBurger, great nephew of the bride, was ringbearer.

Best man was Justin Brabham, brother-in-law of the bridegroom. Ushers were Jerome Poissant and Bernie Galvin.

Following the church service, there was a garden reception for 150 guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Galvin. Flower decorations were lavender and yellow iris and lilies.

Mrs. James Hall, Eugene, a sister of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Gerald Turpin of Creswell served punch. Mrs. Justin Brabham and Mrs. George Heitzman assisted with serving. In charge of gifts were Mrs. Orville White of Cottage Grove and Mrs. Wayne VanBurger of Coquille. The Carolers, singing group from St. Francis High School, sang several songs at the reception.

The couple left for California on their wedding trip, and will be at home at 511 River Loop 2. The bridegroom is employed here by Southern Pacific Co. For traveling, the bride wore a suit in light brown with pink accessories, and her bridal orchid corsage.

Rev. Sydney B. Gaither officiated the ceremony. James White was the soloist, singing "I Love You Truly" and "O Perfect Love." Mrs. Wayne Monroe was organist.

The bride was married by her brother, Rex Austin Munsell, the groom was a ballerina-length dress of yellow nylon. Her veil was white and white lace was in place with white stephane. To complete her costume she wore white pumps and carried a bouquet of white stephane, sweet peas and lilies.

Jerry C. Fain was matron of honor in a ballerina dress of green nylon and net. She carried lavender sweet peas and rosebuds. Bridesmaids were the bride's niece, Miss Gertrude Ferguson and Miss Doris both in pink nylon ballerina dresses. Their flowers were yellow and lavender sweet peas.

Robert Hyde was best man. Ushers were Roy Duerst and Edward Duerst, the latter of White City, brothers of the bride.

Elmer Kent served the wedding cake at the reception in church parlors. Mrs. Rex Austin Munsell served punch and Mrs. Munsell served coffee.

The couple made their wedding trip to Victoria, B.C., in a traveling costume a navy polka dot taffeta dress, with purple, pumps and handknit hat. Since June 6 they have been at home at Oakridge.

(Nolph Photo, Willshire Engraving)
MR. AND MRS. RAYMOND A. GALVIN were married in nuptial Mass Saturday morning, June 5, in St. Mary's Catholic Church. They will be at home on River Loop 2.

Girl's Home at Oakridge

Beverly Munsell, daughter of Mrs. David Munsell of the Grove, was married May 28 to Clarence Duerst, son of Mr. Harold Duerst, also of the Grove. The ceremony took place at 8 p.m. in the Methodist church, which was decorated with stock and gladioli and tapers.

Rev. Sydney B. Gaither officiated the ceremony. James White was the soloist, singing "I Love You Truly" and "O Perfect Love." Mrs. Wayne Monroe was organist.

The bride was married by her brother, Rex Austin Munsell, the groom was a ballerina-length dress of yellow nylon. Her veil was white and white lace was in place with white stephane. To complete her costume she wore white pumps and carried a bouquet of white stephane, sweet peas and lilies.

Jerry C. Fain was matron of honor in a ballerina dress of green nylon and net. She carried lavender sweet peas and rosebuds. Bridesmaids were the bride's niece, Miss Gertrude Ferguson and Miss Doris both in pink nylon ballerina dresses. Their flowers were yellow and lavender sweet peas.

Robert Hyde was best man. Ushers were Roy Duerst and Edward Duerst, the latter of White City, brothers of the bride.

Elmer Kent served the wedding cake at the reception in church parlors. Mrs. Rex Austin Munsell served punch and Mrs. Munsell served coffee.

The couple made their wedding trip to Victoria, B.C., in a traveling costume a navy polka dot taffeta dress, with purple, pumps and handknit hat. Since June 6 they have been at home at Oakridge.

(Willshire Engraving)
MISS JEAN MILLHOLEN of Eugene High School was adjudged outstanding in music, and will receive recognition by having her name on the Phi Beta Alumnae Chapter's music cup.

(Willshire Engraving)
MISS JANET SOMERS of Springfield High School will be honored by having her name engraved on the drama cup of Phi Beta Alumnae Chapter, for her activities in dramatic arts in the past year.

How to Install and Initiate

Eugene Business and Professional Women's Club will install officers and also initiate all new members received since the first of the year, at a formal banquet Friday, June 17, in the Civic Temple, 10th and Olive. The 7 p.m. dinner will be presided by a 6:30 p.m. social. The emblem committee, headed by Miss Ruth Murtha with Lottie Lee Lamb as co-chairman, is in charge of arrangements. Assisting are the club directors, Mrs. Merle Chase and Mrs. W. E. Nicholson, past president, and Mrs. Helen Kilpatrick, retiring president, who will preside at the dinner.

A program is planned, and members of other B&PW clubs in the area are invited to attend. Reservations should be made by Friday with Mrs. Floyd Horn. Anyone not wishing to attend in formal dress is asked to attend informally.

Gamma Plans Chinese Picnic

Next summer activity of Xi Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Chapter will be a Chinese dinner at 8 p.m. Monday at Mandarin. It will be known as "Day Ascending on High," meaning Chinese picnic. Games and skits being planned by the committee. Mrs. Edgar Combs, chairman; Miss Wilda Parrish, Mrs. Pate and Mrs. Howard Dunn, latter of Junction City.

New officers of Xi Gamma Chapter are Miss Bette Hack, president; Mrs. Wayne E. Youel, secretary; Mrs. Clarence W. Ferguson, treasurer; Miss Hazel Ferguson and Mrs. Edgar Combs, representatives to City BSP Council; Miss Viola Volkien, alternate; Mrs. Dorothy Calhoun, representative to Eugene Council of Women's Organizations.

Alumnae to Meet at Time 'Til Fall

Phi Beta Alumnae will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Walter Erickson, 1111 1/2 St. The group will meet again until fall.

Phi Beta Cup Awards Given Young Musicians

Annual cup awards to outstanding music and drama students were announced this week by Phi Beta, national music and drama fraternity. Recipient of the music trophy is Miss Jean Millholen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd F. Millholen Jr., 2327 Columbia St., Eugene. Recipient of the drama trophy is Miss Janet Somers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Somers, Level Lane, Springfield.

Mrs. William Dolph Janes, president of Phi Beta Alumnae, presented the music trophy to Miss Jean Millholen at the Eugene High School award assembly, Friday, May 28. Miss Grace Wocott, chairman of the Phi Beta award committee, presented the drama trophy to Miss Somers at the Springfield High School award assembly, Wednesday, June 2. Names of both girls will be engraved on cups.

Jaycee-ettes Meeting Wednesday

Eugene Jaycee-ettes will have a dessert meeting Wednesday at 7:45 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Dalton Treick, 1391 Dalton Drive. Assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Heinke, Mrs. Gordon Reeves, Mrs. Lloyd Bissell and Mrs. Ralph Smeed.

Couple Wed Here in May

IRVING — Miss Sylvia Ellen Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Jones of Eugene, and John Leeland Sutley, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Sutley of Oakridge, were married early in May at First Baptist Church in Eugene. Dr. Vance H. Webster officiated.

The bride wore a white faille taffeta gown in chapel length with a jacket and tunic of Chantilly lace. Her fingertip length veil was of illusion net, held by a head-dress of Chantilly lace and pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and stephanotis.

Mr. Jones gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. William Jones Jr. of Eugene was matron of honor, wearing a dress of shrimp pink taffeta with pink and blue tulle overskirts. She carried yellow carnations and pink and yellow gladioli.

Bridesmaids were Miss Elizabeth Barnes and Miss Joann Kridelbaugh, both of Eugene. They wore ballerina-length dresses of blue and yellow tulle over taffeta and carried yellow carnations with pink and yellow gladioli.

Candlelighters were Miss Shirley Mohwinkle and Miss Phyllis Thompson.

Vernon Sutley was best man for his brother and ushers were James Sutley, another; William M. Jones Jr., the bride's brother, and Patrick Bryans Carry.

Mrs. A. Virgil Robidiou sang "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly," accompanied at the organ by Mrs. S. H. Wilcox.

The church was decorated with lilies, iris, pink and rose tulips, and tapers in candelabra.

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony. The cake was cut and served by Mrs. C. A. Wilcox and the punch was served by the bridesmaids.

The couple went to Monterey, Calif. for their wedding trip. The bride wore a gray suit with white accessories for her going-away costume.

The bride has remained at home until her graduation from Williamette High School. The groom returned to duty at Ft. Benning, Ga. where he is attending Officers Candidate School.

Among the out-of-town guests were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. C. B. Martin, and aunt, Mrs. C. A. Jones, both of Ingleswood, Calif., and the groom's grandmother and grandfather, Mr. and Mrs. John Lamb of Creswell.

Unitarian Church Scene Of Van Houten-Poeta Rites

Miss Jean Ann Poeta, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Poeta of Findlay, Ohio, became the bride of Charles James Van Houten in a double-ring ceremony at Eugene Unitarian Church Sunday afternoon. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Van Houten of Oak Grove.

White candles on the altar were lighted by the groom's sisters, Misses Amy and Anne Van Houten. Other decorations for the late afternoon ceremony were garden flowers. The ceremony was performed by Edward Ericson, Unitarian pastor, and Dr. Wesley G. Nicholson of the Congregational Church.

Mrs. N. A. Bussard sang "Ich Liebe Dich" (Beethoven) and "My Peace Thou Art" (Schubert). Piano music was by Miss Ruth Ownbey, who played these numbers: "Communion" (Purvis) and "Andante Cantabile" (Tchaikovsky). As a processional she played Handel's "Largo" and the traditional Mendelssohn Wedding March as a recessional.

Mr. Poeta gave his daughter in marriage. The bride and her attendant, Miss Irene Vanderpool, were dressed in similarly-styled summer frocks of sheer white. The bride carried a nosegay of white stephanotis circling yellow rosebuds and white carnations. Her attendant's nosegay was of blue carnations, tied with blue ribbon matching the sash on her dress.

Craig Beeson was best man and Easton Cross, William Vibrans and Al Staehli ushered.

White candles and garden flowers decorated the refreshment table for the reception immediately following the ceremony. Mrs. Floyd Leavitt and Mrs. Beeson poured. Assisting were Mrs. Ralph Crow, Mrs. Norma Chrysler and Mrs. Merlin Myers. The bride's book was presented by Mrs. Joey Hansey and Mrs. Staehli received the gifts.

Mrs. Van Houten received her

Weds Pledged In Parsonage

The livingroom of the parsonage of First Baptist Church of Drain was the scene of an afternoon wedding Saturday, June 5, when Miss Evelyn Harris became the bride of Otis Doherty. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. T. Smith, pastor of the church, in the presence of a few friends and relatives. Decorations were of roses, iris and other early summer flowers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Harris of the Smith River community. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. Herman Doherty of Pasagoula, Miss.

The bride wore a suit of blue-gray linen with an orchid corsage and white accessories. Her attendant was Mrs. Laila Harris, her sister-in-law, who wore a blue linen suit with white accessories. Best man was Reginald Powell of Yoncalla.

Following the ceremony a reception was given. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Buchanan and little daughter, Diana, of Spokane, Wash., who drove to Drain for the occasion. Returning from a wedding trip to California, the young couple will live for the summer with the Rev. and Mrs. Smith. In the fall they will go to Mississippi, where the bridegroom will resume his studies in preparation for the ministry.

(Willshire Engraving)
MRS. CHARLES J. VAN HOUTEN (Jean Ann Poeta) was married Sunday in Eugene Unitarian Church, and will be at home here. Her home formerly was in Findlay, Ohio.

Wedding Rites At Myrtle Creek

A ceremony at 2 p.m. in the Methodist Church at Myrtle Creek June 6, married Miss Marian Louise Verrill to Arthur C. Stewart of Eugene. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Verrill of Myrtle Creek. Mrs. Walter Youst of Ochoco Camp, Prineville, is the bridegroom's mother. The Rev. Frank Brown performed the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Special music before the ceremony was "The Lord's Prayer" and "I Love You Truly." Yellow and white roses and snapdragons decorated the church, and greens were attached to pews.

The bride wore a gown of lace and satin, the bodice of lace, the skirt of satin with lace trim, made with a train. Her illusion veil was held by a lace cap. She carried an orchid, with lily-of-the-valley in its streamers, resting on a white Bible.

Matron attendant was Mrs. Howard Schauers of Seaside, who wore a gown of yellow satin with overskirt of white net. She carried yellow carnations and also wore them in her hair.

Robert Nice of Eugene was best man, and ushers were Donald

Zonta to Hear Mrs. C. A. Barnes

Zonta Club meeting Wednesday will be a dessert at 7:30 p.m. at the Woman's Club, 450 E. 14th Ave.

Mrs. C. A. Barnes, president of the YMCA-YWCA Building Assn., and regional board member of National YWCA, will speak about "The YM and YW Building."

Hostesses will be Mrs. L. B. Schmidt, Mrs. Harold K. Lounsbury, and Mrs. Wesley T. Davis.

Bridge Club to Meet

Bridge Club of Catholic Daughters of America will meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Peter DiPaolo, 2484 River Road.

CDA Pinochle Club will meet Tuesday at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Phillip Heidt, 1971 Garfield St. Mrs. Donald Hammer will be co-hostess.

Rev. Mr. Empey, Mrs. Rauch Wed

The Rev. W. B. Empey and Mrs. Jessie Dell Rauch of Salem were married in a quiet home wedding ceremony at the Salem home of the bride's cousin, Ralph Hein, Friday afternoon. The Rev. Brooks Moore, pastor of First Methodist Church, Salem, officiated.

The couple took a wedding trip into California after their marriage. Later they expect to make a trip to Victoria, B. C. After July they will be at home at the bride's own residence at 395 S. 24th St., Salem. Mr. Empey will commute back and forth to Junction City to take care of his hatchery business.

The families of the bride and groom have been close friends for the past 25 years, forming this friendship when Mr. Empey was pastor at Brownville.

Weds Pledged In Parsonage

The livingroom of the parsonage of First Baptist Church of Drain was the scene of an afternoon wedding Saturday, June 5, when Miss Evelyn Harris became the bride of Otis Doherty. The double-ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. T. Smith, pastor of the church, in the presence of a few friends and relatives. Decorations were of roses, iris and other early summer flowers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Harris of the Smith River community. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. Herman Doherty of Pasagoula, Miss.

The bride wore a suit of blue-gray linen with an orchid corsage and white accessories. Her attendant was Mrs. Laila Harris, her sister-in-law, who wore a blue linen suit with white accessories. Best man was Reginald Powell of Yoncalla.

Following the ceremony a reception was given. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Buchanan and little daughter, Diana, of Spokane, Wash., who drove to Drain for the occasion. Returning from a wedding trip to California, the young couple will live for the summer with the Rev. and Mrs. Smith. In the fall they will go to Mississippi, where the bridegroom will resume his studies in preparation for the ministry.

WEDDING INVITATIONS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

Buy Them at Eugene's Headquarters

Koke-Chapman Co.
 73 East Broadway Ph. 5-0103

Appropriate Gifts for Fathers Day

To honor FATHER, we take this day to express our appreciation. No gift is more highly regarded than one from our large and varied collection.

★ GUARANTEED EXPERT WATCH REPAIRING

HERBERT OLSON JEWELER

175 EAST BROADWAY DIAL 4-5353

SAVE ... close-out on 700 pairs of famous Red Goose shoes at a savings you can't afford to miss ...

INFANT'S SHOES ... SIZE 3 TO 8 ... 3.99
 values to 5.95

CHILDREN'S SHOES ... SIZE 8 1/2 TO 12 4.99
 values to 7.95

MISSES SHOES ... SIZE 12 1/2 TO 3 5.99
 values to 8.95

Use Your Charge Account

oxfords, patents, straps in pink, light blue, white, brown, black and red.

ALL SALES FINAL

also:

LADIES' DRESS FLATS & WEDGES 4.99 to 7.99

millers